

Riding Club Plans Barbecue June 9th

Paddock Ranch Near Bly To Be Scene of "Cayuse Frolic" Scheduled Next Month

Clever invitations to members of the Klamath Riding club and guests were received this week, bidding them to a barbecue and "cayuse frolic" June the ninth. Following are the invitations:

Calling all Riding club buckaroos and buckarooettes to attend the Riding club outdoor barbecue, chuck wagon specials and cayuse frolic at the Paddock BK rancho, four miles north of Bly, on Sunday, June the ninth. Fun from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Included in this invitation are your thoroughbreds, cayuses, fuztalls, bangtalls and mustangs. Wear riding togs or out-door clothes.

Drop your rear on your appetite. Blap on you dollys or tie it tight.

Then head in a gallop for our spread. For we promise you something more than bread.

The chuck wagon's stocked for a roundup crew. And buckaroo, there's some grub for you.

There's room for all on our spread. And we've lots of meat and plenty of bread.

Phone or write reservations before June the eighth, 6 p. m., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paddock, Bly, Oregon, telephone 18-73. Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kennett, telephone 484 or 387. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Larsen, telephone 766-J. Mr. Chet Barton, route 2, Klamath Falls, Oregon.
