

Mrs. Scharfenstein Presents Program

Interesting Evening Enjoyed By Eastern Star Chapter as "Aloha" Night Observed Monday

"Aloha" night was fittingly observed by Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, at the regular meeting held Tuesday evening in the Masonic hall. Hula dancers with grass skirts, trained by McCown's Dance studio, entertained with several delightful Hawaiian dances. Taking part in this feature were, Billie Jean Jackson, Donna Wilkes, Carmen Jones, June Marie Murphy, Shirley Hutchinson, Shirley Francis, and Catherine Blanas, accompanied by Ethel Powers at the piano.

Miss Gayle Galloway sang three Hawaiian solos. Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein accompanied at the piano.

Mrs. Scharfenstein gave a most interesting and instructive talk about the Hawaiian Islands, their people and customs, and their rulers. Queen Liliuokalani, her virtues and shortcomings, proved an enlightening part of the story.

Mrs. Scharfenstein's talk was given under somewhat trying conditions. First, the American Legion drum corps, not knowing they were disturbing anybody, lined up out in front of the hall, and the rat-a-tat-tat of the drums and stirring tune of "The Stars and Stripes Forever," bursting on the air drowned out every other sound inside or out.

Mrs. Earl J. Templar, worthy matron, went down the stairs and walked two blocks to overtake Captain Carl Cook, who willingly transferred the drum corps to other streets. Mrs. Scharfenstein talked on, saying she was accustomed to bands.

About that time a peculiar smell pervaded the room, something like burning metal. It grew stronger and stronger. Mrs. Templar went out again. Soon the fire whistle blew. Some commotion developed downstairs. A few members, no doubt feeling that discretion is the better part of valor, left the room. Mrs. Scharfenstein talked on and said she was used to fire alarms. The smell grew stronger. Mrs. Templar returned the second time to say that she had called the fire department, they had come and gone, the large motor over the front door had burned out, but everything was safe now. By that time Mrs. Scharfenstein had concluded her talk. That the one hundred or more members and guests present remained to hear her through all the commotion, is ample proof that she is a magnetic speaker, has an interesting story to tell of the islands, and is able to hold the attention of her listeners no matter what the distractions may be.

At the conclusion of the evening's entertainment and excitement refreshments were served from artificially decorated tables in the lobby. In charge were Mrs. DeLoe Mills, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. George Humphrey and Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz.

Mrs. Templar and Dr. Harold M. Brown, worthy patron pro tem, presided during the business session of the chapter. Potted palms, bowls of roses and iris and vases of snowball were used in decorating the main chapter room.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held June the twenty-fifth, when adjournment will be taken for the months of July and August.
