

Graduates Feted At Tulalake Home

Newton Residence Scene of Breakfast Party Sunday Morning for Faculty and Senior Class

TULALAKE—In a garden setting of unusual beauty, against a background of evergreens, members of the graduating class of 1940 and faculty members of the Tulalake high school with their husbands and wives were guests of honor at a delightfully arranged breakfast Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. Tom Newton, mother of Aurel Hanchett, member of the class. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Newton were Mrs. Clarence Bell of Klamath Falls and Mrs. John Miller, Tulalake.

Promptly at half past eight o'clock the guests were seated at small tables on the lawn, the white cloths garlanded with pink roses. Favors were tiny gum drop candle holders and miniature tapers. A pink rose bud graced each place. Invitations were small diplomas made by Mrs. Newton, exact replicas of those offered during the commencement exercises.

Herman Turnbaugh, Bob Adams, Dean Callas and Frenchie Johnson, junior class members, served the guests. Games that kept the ball of hilarity rolling for the morning were on the program.

The guest list included the twenty nine members of the class, Jean Anderson, Ardye Brown, Peggy Duggan, Nola Edwards, Doris French, Althea Harrington, Virginia Hooper, Mavis Laiselle, Lura Osborne, Marjorie Thacker, Betty Waits, Georgene Wachler, James Addelman, Dan Crawford, George Cross, Valare Dahle, Aurel Hanchett, Wilbur Hartley, Bob Liddell, William Madron, Bill McClymonds, Stuart Miller, Thurio Ott, Grady Pritchett, Roger Reid, Dale Sprout, Keith Vokach, Sherman Waldrip, Joe Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Reiben, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holst, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Lang, Mr. and Mrs. E.
