Garcelon's

Fans are a boon in weather like this we've been having... Not the kind that the dancers wear, although it probably would be pretty cool to dress in a fan, at that... But what I'm thinking about particularly are electric fans, which are priced away below last year's prices... At Garcelon's.

Incidentally, Wednesday was my birthday... And it was my day to buy Pat Livingstone a drink... I think she felt rather conscience-stricken, considering the occasion, but she let me persuade her it was all right.

Anyway, there's one sensational buy in an electrical fan that I want particularly to mention... Still speaking of Garcelon's... It's a 7-inch, rubber-bladed oscillating fan... Which means that rubber won't cut when you stick your finger in it... And that it moves around and is adjustable... The price right now is $2.95... In former years this type of fan sold for $6.95.

This rubber-bladed fan is on a short stand that can be set on a table or hung on the wall... It's noiseless, too.

Garcelon's also has all other types of electric fans, rubber and metal, tall and short, and all are at new low prices... I saw them.

Shaw's are coming back... Have you noticed?... I read one interesting explanation the other day... It said that shawls are so light in weight and pack so easily that they are ideal to carry on planes.

Currin's
If you've ever seen the bottles and jars that Courtly's men's toilet requisites come in, you have an idea how mannish and dignified the fragrances are... And they're the cleverest-packaged articles for men that I've ever seen... In fact, I've made gifts of Courtly's products to men twice—one a grandfather, and the other not even a father—and I could tell both men really were delighted.

So here's an idea for a gift for Father's Day... Courtly's after-shaving lotion, talcum powder, hair dressing, cologne, etc... They come in sets or separately... You'll find Courtly's products at Currin's.

But if you don't think something like that would do... Well, Currin's has lots of things like electric shavers... Pipes... Siphon bottles... Leather bill folders... Parker pens and pencils... Shaving sets... And other things Fathers could use.

Incidentally, Currin's will gift wrap packages for you at all times... Not just on special occasions, but anytime throughout the year.

Or why not bring Father up-to-date?... With a sport shirt that is cool and comfortable as well as the latest thing in men's wear?... Rudy's Men's Shop has just what you want from 80c to $5... And hundreds to choose from... The store does free gift wrapping, too.

Cal-Ore
A girl I've known a long time—went to school with, and everything—telephoned me Wednesday night from Portland to wish me a happy birthday... And during the conversation she said that she and her husband would be down this way soon, and that they'd like to make a definite date so we'd be free to take them to Cal-Ore.

And I swear I've never mentioned the place to her... In fact, I've seen her only a few times, for a half-hour or so at a time, during the last several years... And one of the occasions was her wedding in Portland, when we certainly didn't spend any time talking about going to night clubs.

I am kidded a lot about "liking Cal-Ore" so much... But why shouldn't I when it's the kind of place everybody on the coast wants to go?... Well, maybe not everybody, but an amazingly large number of people.

I've always wondered why Ray Bigger beams such a big smile whenever he drives one of his East Side Electric trucks... I've seen him several times driving down Main street in one of them, flashing a grin at everyone he knows or doesn't know... Answers will be gratefully received.

Beauty Shop

Here's a hair-do that you'll love to take on a vacation with you... Ruby Engel at the Medical-Dental Beauty shop told me that it's ideal for swimming and running around, because it's SHORT... It's easy to take care of, and your back hair won't get unsightly when water insists on creeping up under your bathing cap... It's a cool hair-do, too.

The shop is in back of the barber shop just beyond the Medical-Dental building elevators, you know... So you can have one of the barbers cut your hair in the short style right there... Or have Ruby or Lila do it in the beauty shop.

Incidentally, Ruby's famous Oil of Redwood permanents are still only $3.50 on Mondays... The regular $5 ones that really are worth much more, as I know because I've had several myself.

And ask Ruby about hot-oil shampoos to keep your hair in condition for summer.

Shaw Stationery

Maybe you have the kind of father who has to SIT quite a bit of the time... If you have, I know he'd appreciate a soft seat... The kind provided by the air cushions I saw at Shaw Stationery... They have about every kind there... From $1.50, which are made of rubber and covered with felt, to special deluxe ones about two or three inches thick, covered with tapestry, which cost $7.50... They fit any chair... Some are made of the new air-foam material.

Shaw's has a lot of things for Father... Like the "daylite" desk lamps that can be adjusted to any position... They're very dignified and mannish looking.

Or how about one of the zipper brief cases... Leather, of course... With his name stamped on it free? Naturally you know about the Parker Lifetime pens and pencils at Shaw's... You can get them singly or in sets... The sets are nicest... And don't fail to have his name engraved on it.

There are a lot of other things at Shaw Stationery... I can't mention them all... But just go in and look around for ideas.

Matt Finnigan's

If the Father in your family likes to fish, give him a break... He'll adore something he can use... And I found a number of swell things for fishermen at Matt Finnigan's Sporting Goods store... Of course, there are all kinds of fly books, baskets, tackle boxes and such things, but I also found some unusual things, too.

There's a fly box called the Daisy Rotating Fly box that he attaches to his fishing basket strap... It has a transparent top... And his files are always where he wants them and where he can see them... And he can get one without having the rest blow away... It's only $1.50.

There's a fishing thermometer that shows him the temperature of creeks or lakes, so he'll know whether to fish deep or shallow... It's $1.00.

And a fisherman's barometer, specially set for this high altitude, so he'll know whether he ought to fish at all... It's $5.

Did you hear about the bee that got in the car with Augusta Parker, principal of Fremont School?... She was driving over to Ashland to start summer school, and the bee decided to ride with her... Anyway, it got into an argument with Miss Parker and the car turned over on the highway... It's lucky for her that she always drives slowly... Because both she and the car came out of the accident with little to show for the experience.

PATTERN 6328

In every handicraft there are some design forms that are handed down from generation to generation, retaining their popularity through all the years. When this happens we know that the design must be good.

Crochet is no exception to this rule. Back in the days of our great-grandmothers, the pineapple (and you can see how faithfully the design represents that fruit) was a favorite. That's because it is not only beautiful, but easy to crochet as well.

These doilies—they form a set of three, an oval 16x30 inches, one 13 and one 6 inches in diameter—will add greatly to the appearance of any room. Use string or finer cotton, depending on the size doilies you want. Pattern 6328 contains instructions for making doilies; illustrations of them and stitches; photograph of doily; materials needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Department, Klamath Falls. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.

SHOWDOWN LOOMS OVER CITIZENSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13 (AP)—A showdown in the United States supreme court appeared probable today over the naturalization of William Schneiderman, state secretary of the communist party, whose citizenship was cancelled yesterday by a ruling of Federal Judge Michael J. Roche.

The judge held that Schneiderman had obtained citizenship illegally because he failed to reveal that during a five year probationary period he belonged to organizations advocating violent overthrow of the government.

Attorney George Anderson, who defended the 34-year-old communist, said he would appeal the decision and probably take the case before the supreme court.

If the ruling is upheld, it would pave the way for deportation proceedings against Schneiderman, who was born in Rumanov, Russia, and came to the United States in 1908.

Judge Roche cited that testimony showed Schneiderman had belonged to two organizations now merged with the communist party, the Young Workers' League of America and the Workers Party of America.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Louis Mercado, who handled the government's case, said the decision did not affect naturalized persons who joined the communist party after they became citizens.

Schneiderman, former Los Angeles newsboy who ran for governor on the Minnesota communist ticket in 1936, denied he advocated violent overthrow of the government, and said he would bear arms against Russia if this country were involved in war with his native land.

Pouring onto the highways this summer will be some 50,000,000 motorists. It seems only fair to warn the potential mechanized invader what he would be up against on a Sunday afternoon.

Smothered Chopped Steak Wise Plan for Vacation Meal

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

You can't always be sure of the quality of country butcher shop "hamburger." It is wiser to rely on packaged quick-frozen chopped round steak. Most rural stores now carry a good brand in their special refrigerators. Allow one 4-lb. package for each two persons. Here are two vacation recipes that will taste equally good even if the family stays at home.

Smothered Chopped Steak

(Serves Four)

Two packages (1 pound) quick-frozen chopped steak, salt, pepper, flour, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 cups sliced onions, water.

Season chopped steak (frozen or thawed) with 1 teaspoon salt and dash of pepper and dredge with flour. Sauté in butter in skillet, turning to brown both sides. Spread onions on top, season with salt and pepper. Add 2 tablespoons water, cover, and bake in hot oven (450 F.) 35 minutes, basting occasionally. Remove meat to hot platter.

To make gravy, add 1 tablespoon flour to 1 tablespoon drippings in skillet, stirring until smooth; add 1 cup water. Place over fire and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Season

Fruit Butters Fit Modern Tastes in Old-Fashioned Way

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

YOU don't have to be an old-fashioned cook to make fruit butters. They are as modern as any other good food and with these brand-new recipes you will have 100 per cent success.

SPICY RHUBARB-BLACKBERRY BUTTER

(About 10 half-pint jars)

Four quarts (4 lbs.) prepared rhubarb, 2 quarts (3 lbs.) prepared blackberries, 1 cup water, sugar, 3 sticks (4 inch) cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon whole cloves, 1/2 teaspoon whole allspice, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Wash about 6 pounds of rhubarb. Peel if not young and tender. Cut in 1/2 inch pieces. Pick over and wash about 2 1/2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Drain and measure. Simmer rhubarb and berries in water until rhubarb is very tender, stirring occasionally. Rub through fine sieve and measure into large preserving kettle.

Add 1/2 cup sugar for each cup pulp, spices tied in cheesecloth bag, and salt. Cook slowly until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils, stirring constantly. Boil rapidly until clear and desired consistency is reached, stirring frequently to prevent burning. Remove spices. Pour into clean, hot sterilized jars or glasses and seal at once.

This recipe will give a clear plum colored butter with excellent flavor. It may seem tedious to force rhubarb through a sieve but the results are worth the effort.

BLACKBERRY-APRICOT BUTTER

(About 6 half-pint jars)

Two-thirds cup (1 lb.) dried apricots, 3 quarts (4 lbs.) prepared blackberries, sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Wash apricots, cover with hot water. Stand about 15 minutes, then drain. Pick over and wash about 3 1/2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Measure into kettle and crush. Add apricots and simmer, cover, about 25 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Rub through fine sieve and measure into large preserving kettle. (If pulp is too thin, cook until thick enough to heap or round up on spoon before adding sugar.) Add 1/2 cup sugar for each cup pulp. Cook slowly until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils, stirring constantly. Boil rapidly until clear and desired consistency is reached, stirring frequently to prevent burning. Pour into clean, hot sterilized jars and glasses and seal at once.

MENU

BREAKFAST: Stewed strawberries and rhubarb rice griddle cakes, crisp bacon, blackberry-apricot butter, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Split pea soup with frankfurter rings, hard rolls, fruit cup, peanut cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Beef kidney stew, spoon bread, broiled tomatoes, lettuce and water-cress salad, cup custard with whipped cream and strawberries, coffee, milk.
