FRENCH WEIGH HITLER'S TERMS

In The Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT names two prominent Republicans — Col. Frank Knox, 1936 vice-presidential candidate, and Henry L. Stimson, Hoover secretary of state — to his cabinet; Knox to be secretary of the navy and Stimson to be secretary of war.

IT would be WONDERFUL to be able to think of it as having been done solely to increase national efficiency and weld national loyalty and not as an impish gesture designed to take the wind out of the sails of the Republicans who are just gathering for their national convention.

It might be possible to think of it as such if at the same time the President had announced he will NOT ACCEPT a third term.

IF this small-time writer were advising the Republican party, this is what he would tell it to do:

1. Nominate Willkie for President.
2. Nominate McNary for vice-president.
3. Commission Bruce Barton to write the platform.
4. Adjourn quietly and soberly, and leave the decision to the people.

AS to Willkie:
He must have sincerity, honesty, convincing straightforwardness and GREAT ABILITY or he would not have been able to carry on successfully against a powerful and vengeful government corporation—the TVA.

He has unquestionable charm and personality which he is able to project to the public through the medium of the press and the radio. This writer, who has never seen him, has felt these qualities in him as a result of reading and listening.

He is NOT A POLITICIAN. This writer is weary of politicians and their all-things-to-all-men utterances, and senses that the public is in the same mood.

AS to McNary:
He is able, wise, fearless and TOLERANT. He has skilled knowledge of the intricate and (in a democracy) NECESSARY machinery of politics.

As an adviser and collaborator for Willkie, he would be invaluable.

BRUCE BARTON is an advertising man who is now a congressman. As an advertising man, he knows how to say what needs to be said so briefly, so clearly and so convincingly that people will read, understand and BELIEVE.

That is the kind of platform the Republican party must have if it is to win the confidence of the people.

IF the Republican party is to win this election, it must convince the people of the United States that it is sincere, loyal and able to do efficiently and patriotically the big things that in the next four years must be done.

This writer believes the program here outlined would help toward that end.

BARCELONA, June 21 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor said today that his plans for the future were "unsettled" and that he and his American-born duchess, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, were not "at present" considering a trip to the United States.

NYE DECLARES AID TO ALLIES CAUSE OF TIFF

Solon Says Woodring Resigned When Asked to Release Secrets

WASHINGTON, June 21 (AP)—Senator Nye (R-N.D.) declared today he would be "very much surprised" if proper questioning failed to disclose that Secretary Woodring had been asked to "surrender" the army's secret bomb sight.

Nye spoke in the senate after Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) had demanded that Woodring be called before a senate committee to explain his resignation from the cabinet.

Bomb Sight
The resignation was accepted by President Roosevelt shortly before he nominated Henry L. Stimson to be the new war department chief and Col. Frank Knox to be secretary of the navy. Both Stimson and Knox are republicans who have urged that this country extend material aid to the allies.

Nye, speculating on the probable contents of Woodring's letter of resignation, told his colleagues:
"I am going to be very much surprised if Mr. Woodring and his staff are questioned in the military affairs committee, if they aren't going to reveal that among other things the secretary of war has been asked to surrender national defense secret No. 1 — that all-valuable bomber sight that every member of the senate has been assured for months was being guarded with the utmost secrecy."

Should Retire
Nye also told the senate that it "seems certain" that President Roosevelt had promised military aid to France and he said that the chief executive should retire and turn over his office to Vice President Garner.

Vandenberg said Woodring was reported in the press to have told friends that his ouster was sought by a "clique of international financiers" because

Labor Convention Closes With Nominations; Astoria Picked for 1941 Conclave

BY BILL CUMMINGS
Delegates to the 38th annual convention of the Oregon State Federation of Labor adjourned a peaceful and highly constructive five-day meeting at the Fremont school shortly after noon Friday with nomination of officers to be elected within the next few weeks by referendum ballot.

Both Executive Secretary Dell E. Nickerson and President Paul E. Gurske will be opposed in the rank and file vote for the federation's two highest offices.
Nickerson, Portland, will be opposed by Bonn R. Mathis, secretary of the Portland Building Trades council, and President Gurske will be opposed by Phil J. Brady, president of the Portland Central Labor council.

FRENCH FIGHT ON; FLEET MAY REVOLT
Alpine Army Holds Nazi Motorized Drive in Lyon Region

ALEXANDRIA, June 21 (AP)—French official sources expressed belief tonight that the French Mediterranean battle fleet here and the middle-east armies in Syria would continue to fight beside the British regardless of France's acceptance or rejection of German peace terms.

These sources said it was "impossible to believe" France would surrender the fleet or its Syrian armies.
French officers and crews, they said, were unanimously agreed that "We cannot go now; the fight must go on."

AT THE FRENCH-SWISS FRONTIER, June 21 (AP)—France's reorganized army of the Jura and the Alps, reinforced by many units which had retreated from the Maginot line, today was reported not only to have held German motorized units south and east of Lyon but to have driven back advanced Nazi columns north.

These sources said it was "impossible to believe" France would surrender the fleet or its Syrian armies.
French officers and crews, they said, were unanimously agreed that "We cannot go now; the fight must go on."

That hirsute growth on the faces above, which has caused some considerable comment around town since the labor convention started, is all for the purpose of advertising Salem's centennial celebration, to be held this summer. These gentlemen, and most other male Salemites, are growing whiskers for that purpose. President Explains Pool Plan for Surpluses in Western World

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt asserted today his program for Pan-American economic cooperation involved "economic defense" designed to supplement our military defense program.
In a statement issued at a press conference shortly after he arrived from Washington, Mr. Roosevelt asserted the contemplated measures for achieving economic unity among the Pan-American nations were "intended as a further safeguard for the peace of this hemisphere and as a means of protecting our economy and the economies of the other American republics from the repercussions of the disturbed international situation."

Submitted to Others
He omitted any reference to Canada, although presidential aides previously had said the dominion "would not be excluded."

The program for economic unity was approved by the president last night and ordered submitted to the other American nations for their approval.

The president did not disclose details of how his plan for Pan-American economic cooperation would work out, but he added that perhaps a series of corporations might be formed, each to handle a specific export commodity. Or perhaps one corporation might be set up, he said.

Friday Longest Day of Year

Friday, June 21, was the longest day of the year with the sun rising at 4:19 a. m. and setting at 8:05 p. m. Summer arrived on schedule, alright, but there was a dispute as to the time. The U. S. weather bureau reported the debut at 5:37 a. m., and the navy hydrographic office at 5 a. m.

It was the longest day of 1940, nevertheless, and the mercury rose to 82 degrees, looking back on an early morning maximum of 54 degrees.

Hitler Reaches Highest Peak Of Career in Historic Spot

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
COMPIEGNE FOREST, France, June 21 (AP)—Adolf Hitler reached the highest point of his meteoric career today in historic Compiègne Forest when he personally received the French envoys and handed them armistice terms which proclaimed the defeat of France.

The fuhrer chose for the meeting the railway car in which Marshal Foch handed the Germans the 1918 armistice terms. There at 3:32 p. m. (4:32 a. m. PST) Hitler, flanked by his highest military chiefs and civil officials, faced the four-man French delegation.

Germany Tightens Grasp As Rumania Reforms Politics

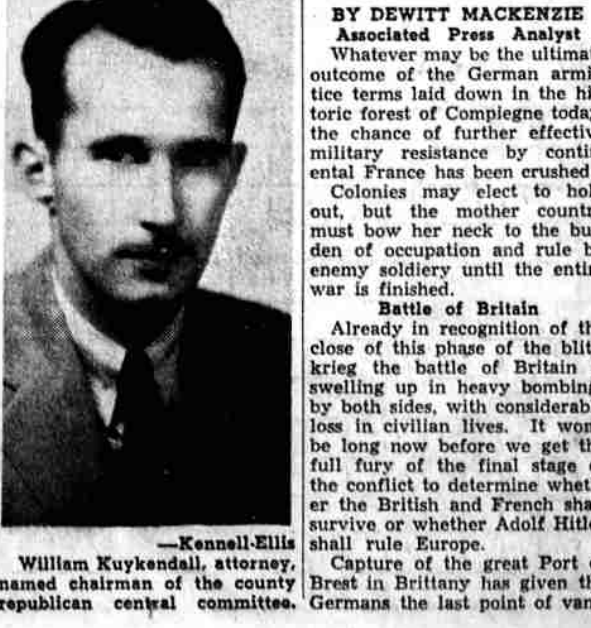

BUCHAREST, June 21 (AP)—A sweeping German victory in the battle for political influence in Rumania was scored tonight with the announcement that King Carol was forming a new totalitarian political party on the Nazi pattern.

The party is to be known as "the party of the nation." It will supersede the present party of national rebirth. The pro-Nazi iron guard will play a big part in the new organization whose bases were announced as "nationalistic, Christian and racial."

It was learned that a royal decree was drafted providing for complete reorganization of the national rebirth front to take in all opposition elements, the iron guard along with the peasant party.

Carol will make the first broadcast of his life—except for his annual holiday greetings—tomorrow night when he is expected to elaborate on the changes.

BORDEAUX, France, June 21 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's armistice terms were communicated without delay to the French government today by its negotiators at Compiègne.

There had been no announcement of acceptance or rejection tonight, however.

COMPIEGNE FOREST, France, June 21 (AP)—It was understood tonight that the German armistice terms to France call for an unconditional "yes" or "no" reply.

The French negotiators were in constant telephone communication with their government.

No Armistice
No immediate hour was given for the "cease firing" order, which is expected to follow swiftly—unless France rejects the axis-dictated terms.

The Nazi fuhrer met the French plenipotentiaries in the same historic railway car in which Marshal Foch dictated the terms on which Kaiser Wilhelm's imperial armies laid down their arms.

Colonel-General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the Nazi high command, first read a preamble to the armistice conditions, with Hitler remaining silent nearby.

Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop and Colonel-General Walter von Brauchitsch, commander-in-chief of the German army, were present.

Aims Announced
Three aims of the German armistice were announced: 1—To prevent continuance of the war in France—apparently (Continued on Page Eight)

France Unable to Fight on; Britain Faces Double Threat

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Analyst
Whatever may be the ultimate outcome of the German armistice terms laid down in the historic forest of Compiègne today, the chance of further effective military resistance by continental France has been crushed.

Colonies may elect to hold out, but the mother country must bow her neck to the burden of occupation and rule by enemy soldiery until the entire war is finished.

Battle of Britain
Already in recognition of the close of this phase of the blitzkrieg the battle of Britain is swelling up in heavy bombings by both sides, with considerable loss in civilian lives. It won't be long now before we get the full fury of the final stage of the conflict to determine whether the British and French shall survive or whether Adolf Hitler shall rule Europe.
