BAPTIST SERVICE INTEREST RISING

Revival services now in progress at the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets, continue to deepen in interest, according to Rev. Cecil C. Brown.

Services are to continue daily at 8 p. m. except Saturday. Special services are being planned for Sunday when Rev. R. E. Milam will bring a message to the junior department at the Bible school hour. At 11 a. m. Mr. Milam will speak on the subject, "The Family Altar." At 8 p. m. he will use as his subject, "I Stand at the Door and Knock."

Mrs. R. E. Milam will continue the classes for women at 2 p. m. The Missionary society has received Mrs. Milam and her work enthusiastically. Many reports have come to the pastor praising her devotion and ability in this phase of the revival work. All women of the community are invited to attend these classes.

Friday night Mr. Milam will speak on "The Unspeakable Gift." In all his messages the evangelist has upheld the person and work of Christ in redemption in a remarkable way. The public is cordially invited to enjoy the inspiring song services and to hear the Rev. Milam.

Sunday, June 30, has been set as home coming day at the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets. On this date the church will commemorate its 56th anniversary as an organized church in Klamath county. Although the church was organized somewhat earlier than this date the homecoming has been arranged to coincide with the closing day of the revival meetings with Rev. "Bob" Milam of Robstown, Texas. The church will also honor Mr. and Mrs. C. H. DeLap on the occasion of their 56th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. DeLap are among the few remaining charter members of the church and are pioneers of the Klamath country.

The Rev. Cecil C. Brown will close his fifth year as pastor of the church on June 30 and these three events will be combined into one day of rejoicing and celebration. It will be of special interest to many to know that Rev. A. F. Simmons plans to be present for this occasion. Mr. Simmons served the local church as pastor for about 12 years. The fact that Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Milam are to be with the church for this day will also add much to the interest and meaning of the occasion.

Further details as to the program for the day will be announced later.

HARDBOILED!

The Shopper has to perform a harder task this year. She must do a hard-boiled job of buying. That is a theme we hear frequently. We should like to raise just one question. When has the true practice of thrift ever been otherwise?
