

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

HOME FROM SCHOOL, and with a charming visitor accompanying her, is Miss Dawn Everitt, (left), whose houseguest is Miss Margaret Hammer, the Cinderella girl of the University of Washington, chosen to represent her campus in the all college contest. Miss Everitt and Miss Hammer are at the Earl Whitlock summer home at Lake Odell for a week.

Invitations Issued For Summer Tea

Interesting Affair Planned for Saturday, June the Twenty-Ninth, at Francis R. Olds Home

As the month of June draws to a close many interesting affairs are scheduled on the social calendar. Invitations were received Saturday morning for a delightful tea to be given Saturday afternoon, June the twenty-ninth, at the home of Mrs. Francis Robert Olds on Riverside. Mrs. Harry William Bathiany will assist.

Tea hours are from three o'clock until six o'clock and more than one hundred and eighty invitations were issued. Asked to pour, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz and Mrs. Martha McCollum, from three to four o'clock, Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver and Mrs. Ernest Dolph Lamb, from four o'clock until five o'clock, and Miss Cleo Champagne and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, from five o'clock until six o'clock.

MISS CHAMPAGNE HOSTESS FOR MISS HOUSTON

Miss Cleo Champagne was hostess at a party on Tuesday evening, June the eighteenth, honoring Miss Virginia Houston, who is leaving the latter part of June for Costa Rica, Central America, where she will become the bride of Mr. John Tillotson.

Contract was played during the evening, with high score going to Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz, and consolation to Mrs. Russell Marshall. Miss Houston was presented with a personal gift from the group.

Those honoring Miss Houston were Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany, Miss Bernice Heldebrand, Miss Emma Howard, Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz, Mrs. Jack Buchanan, Mrs. R. A. Marshall, the guest of honor, Miss Houston, and the hostess, Miss Champagne.

Miss Prideox Attends Meeting

Miss Elizabeth Prideox, teacher at Fremont school, has returned to this city from Portland and is a guest for a short time at the home of Mrs. Fred Linfesty before leaving for San Jose, California to attend summer school. While in Portland, Miss Prideox participated in one of the international conferences of young people which have received much publicity throughout the country the past two years due to the clear thinking and expression of ideas brought out at these gatherings.

Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger left Friday morning by motor for Tacoma, Washington, accompanied by Miss Betty, June and Bonnie Hauger, and Miss Kay Dunbar. Miss Betty Hauger is returning north after spending her vacation here.

Miss Hauger Honored

Jester Home Scene of Lawn Party Wednesday

An interesting affair of the past week was the lawn party given Wednesday evening at the Jester residence, 2027 Earle street, when Mrs. C. Jester and Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger entertained for the pleasure of Miss Betty Hauger who has been here on vacation from Tacoma, Washington.

Games were played and dancing enjoyed until the supper hour. Guests included Miss Betty Hauger, Miss Patty Fleet, Miss Barbara Bell, Miss Stella Bowen, Miss Kay Dunbar, Miss Jean, Bonnie and June Hauger, Miss Marianne Lion, Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook, Mr. H. E. Hauger, Mr. O. J. Horne, Mr. Lee Metz, Mr. R. Paul Roberts, Mr. Eldridge Anderson, Mr. James Burness and Mr. William Jenkins.

MEDFORD GIRL PLANS WEDDING TO N. MOTY

Miss Jenes Jensen, bride-elect of Norman Moty of Klamath Falls, was entertained at a shower party last week at the John J. Wilkinson home on Park avenue. Hostesses were Miss Geraldine Wilkinson and Mrs. John E. Wilkinson.

Guests included Mesdames Oliver Hughes, William Tucker, Ray Scott, Jack Fitzgerald, Eugene Monaco and the Misses Patricia Thompson, Jane Russell, Maurine Carlton, LaVerne Stephenson, Martha DeSousa and Jeanette McKee.

Bridge was played throughout the evening with prizes being won by Miss McKee, Miss DeSousa and Miss Thompson.

The honoree, whose marriage will be an event of June 25 in Sacred Heart Catholic church here, was presented with many lovely linen gifts at the shower.—Medford Mail Tribune.

COUPLE GIVEN FOOD SHOWER AT GROSS HOME

A canned foods shower was given Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Norton Taylor by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gross at their home on Laguna street.

Three tables of miscellaneous games were played during the evening by the guests who were close friends of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor's wedding was an event of June the ninth in Astoria, Oregon.

Mrs. Andrew McGee of Twin Falls, Idaho, is visiting in Klamath Falls at the home of her sister, Mrs. Barton Frulan.

SUMMER VISITORS IN THE CITY include Miss Ruth Margreiter, (right), and Miss Gail Thompson, both of Wichita, Kansas, who are the houseguests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Pacific Terrace. Miss Margreiter is Mrs. Rogers' niece, and with Miss Thompson is enjoying visits at various points along the Pacific coast. They accompanied the Rogers on motor trips of interest recently.

—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

Tea Planned for Mrs. Frank Holmes

Many Affairs Given for Klamath Residents Who Leave To Make Future Home in Grants Pass

Numerous affairs are being planned this coming week, and several have been given during the past few days, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes Jr., who will leave for Grants Pass to make their home after residing in Klamath Falls for the past three years. Invitations were received the latter part of the week bidding friends of Mrs. Holmes to a tea planned for Tuesday afternoon, from three o'clock until five o'clock at Reames Country club with Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. John H. Houston, and Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver, as hostesses.

Asked to pour the first hour are Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, and during the second hour, from four o'clock until five o'clock, Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Mrs. Lawrence Slater.

On Thursday evening a group of friends, members of Mrs. Holmes' bridge club, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Louis Serruys in the Audley apartments. A handkerchief shower was given the honor guest, complimented by Mrs. Claude H. Davis, Mrs. Paul W. Sharp, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Jr., Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Lawrence Slater, Mrs. George Auxier Myers, Mrs. John H. Houston, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mrs. T. M. Medford, Mrs. Joseph Peak and the hostess, Mrs. Serruys.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Medford, entertained at their home on Lakeshore drive Friday evening for the supper club of which Mr. and Mrs. Holmes are members. Following supper at half past seven o'clock cards were played. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg and Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and members were Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slater and Mr. and Mrs. Medford.

A few of Mrs. Holmes' intimate friends have been asked for luncheon by Mrs. Joseph W. Peak, 1945 Huron street, on Monday at one o'clock.

MRS. REEDER HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Dick Reeder entertained for members of her bridge club Thursday evening at her home on Pacific Terrace. High score in cards was held by Mrs. Paul Foster, second high by Mrs. Howard Hanville, and low by Mrs. David R. Vandenberg. Traveling prize went to Mrs. George Clark. The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany was observed during the evening.

Picnic Supper On Thursday

Carter Home Scene of Party During Past Week

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the picnic supper party enjoyed Thursday evening when Mrs. J. Hardin Carter and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook entertained at the Carter home, 1315 Pacific Terrace, for a group of friends. Supper was served at half past seven o'clock out of doors in the Carter garden, and later the guests enjoyed games and cards indoors.

Guests included Mrs. George H. Adler, Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger, Mrs. Myra Cain Stewart, Mrs. Joan DeWeese, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. C. B. Browne, Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. William Serruys, Mrs. C. Jester, Mrs. John Cusick, Mrs. Wallace C. McArthur, Mrs. George Erickson, Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Andrew McGee of Twin Falls, Idaho, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mrs. Brady Narey, Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, Mrs. Paul Foster, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Gary B. Cozad, Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. Wilbur Arnold and Mrs. C. C. Kelley.

Hunts Enjoying Alaskan Trip

Among the many Klamath people enjoying trips in the north are Dr. and Mrs. Warren C. Hunt and three sons, Donald, Calvin and James, who motored to Seattle last Monday and sailed Wednesday morning on the Baranof for Alaska. They will go as far as Seward and from there take an interesting trip into the interior. They will be gone for at least a month.

HIGH UP ON A HILLTOP, overlooking Klamath Falls, the cameraman snapped Miss Patricia Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff of Auburn street. Miss Woodruff is home from the University of Oregon during the summer months and a greater part of her time will be spent with her parents here.

CO-HOSTESSES AT AFFAIR FOR MRS. HOLLOWAY

Complimenting Mrs. D. W. Holloway, a lovely shower was given on Tuesday evening, June the eighteenth, when Mrs. Jerry Ricker and Mrs. J. H. Poppy presided as hostesses.

Decorations were carried out in a clever manner with a centerpiece of pink and blue flowers and pink tapers used on the table. Miniature crystal baskets of flowers centered the individual tables for the refreshment hour.

The daintily wrapped gifts were presented to the guests of honor by Mrs. Dale West, garbed as a nurse who arrived at the front door with the packages concealed in a suitcase.

Bridge provided the entertainment with award for high going to Mrs. A. N. Beals, the second high to Mrs. James Busch and traveling to Mrs. O. R. Holloway.

Those honoring Mrs. Holloway besides the hostess were Mrs. M. L. Gaetz, Mrs. O. R. Kenschot, Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, Mrs. James Webb, Miss Beverly Ricker, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. Victor M. Palmer, Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. A. N. Beals, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Freda Wheeler, Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mrs. Dick Reeder and Mrs. Betty Gibson.

GARY REYMERS OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Gary Reymers, who was one year old on Sunday, June the sixteenth, was honored by his mother, Mrs. Mahr Reymers, with a birthday party on Saturday afternoon from four o'clock until five o'clock when a group of little friends and their mothers were invited for birthday cake.

The guests were served in the garden, and those calling to wish Gary many happy returns of the day were Mrs. John Houston and son, Jon, Mrs. Robert Thompson and daughter, Sue Kathleen, Mrs. James Busch and son, James, Mrs. John A. Shaw and Betty, Mrs. Harry Weimar and Ann, Mrs. Don McLucas and Patricia and Michael, Mrs. A. E. Macartney and David, Mrs. Ted Young and Janice and Mrs. Charles Mack.

Garden Club To Meet On Monday

A regular business meeting of the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club is scheduled for Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the small club rooms of the city library. All members are urged to be prompt in attendance.

The Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon, June the twenty-seventh, in the parish house. This is the last meeting of the year and the president, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, asks that all bazaar chairmen be present to receive their committees.

Margaret Goldsmith Weds in Ceremony

Attractive Klamath Maid Exchanges Vows With Mr. Gerald Morrison Good in Oregon City

St. Paul's Episcopal church in Oregon City was the scene of the marriage at noon Saturday of Miss Margaret Doris Goldsmith, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Goldsmith of Klamath Falls, and Gerald Morrison Good, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Good of Oswego. Rev. Julian Mockford officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a dress of white chiffon with a finger-tip veil held in place by a tiara of lace inset. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Laura Goldsmith, wearing a dress of delphinium blue chiffon and carrying coral daisies and blue sweet peas.

Marcus Corwin was best man. Robert Dunn of La Grande and Ian Robertson of Salem were ushers.

Miss Betty Starr sang before the ceremony and at the reception which was held afterward in the reception hall adjoining the church.

Mrs. C. L. Starr and Mrs. A. C. Callahan presided at the bride's table, while Mrs. Lenore Sehl cut the wedding cake. Assisting were Misses Ann Nelson, Alice Lyle, Venita Braus, Sarah Callan, Marge Brainerd, Marilyn Ashley and Mrs. Fred Smith.

After a short wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the couple will be at home in Oswego.—Oregon Journal.

MOTHERSINGERS ENJOY PICNIC IN MOORE PARK

The Mothersingers entertained their children at Moore park on June the eighteenth at a delicious picnic luncheon. This annual affair always closes the work for the year.

The mothers attending were Mrs. Van Evans, Mrs. Rollin Thompson, Mrs. L. E. Juniper, Mrs. Charles P. Edwards, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. John Selby, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. H. E. Stone, Mrs. C. C. Calvert, Mrs. Reed Clark, Mrs. Sid L. Petersen and Mrs. Boyd Sprague. Miss Carol Calvert was a guest.

Former Residents Visit In Klamath

Former residents who were welcomed by their many friends in Klamath Falls this week were Mrs. F. Hill Hunter of San Diego, California and her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Schmidt of Coquille. Before returning south, Mrs. Hunter will spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt and their young daughter on the coast.

On Thursday Mrs. Hunter and several of her friends spent the day together, enjoying a motor trip to Crater lake and Union creek. The other members of the group were Mrs. Edna Russell, Mrs. O. R. Holloway and Mrs. J. H. Poppy.