IT'S OUR FAMILY'S WHISKEY. NEIGHBOR... PA WILKEN'S PERSONAL RECIPE

Here Us Wilkens are Calling on the Statue of Liberty

My brother Bill, on the left there, remarked to my brother-in-law Tom standing next to him that this Statue in New York harbor has been holding the torch of Liberty for 54 years, just as long as us Wilkens have been distilling fine whiskey. William Wilken, in the dark clothes, our chief of coopers, got a smile out of that one.

The "NUTTY FLAVOR" of Our Family's Whiskey Sure Goes Big With All You Folks!

It seems like everywhere we go folks are taking mighty kindly to the good old-fashioned "nutty flavor" of Our Wilken Family Whiskey. Well, we want to tell you that tastiness is no accident. Our family's had 54 years of distilling experience—and on top of that we make our whiskey right straight from Pa Wilken's Personal Recipe. No wonder everybody's so delighted with its goodness and mild "nutty flavor," as well as its neighborly price.
