

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

MRS. FRANK HOLMES JR. snapped on the green at the country club this past week. Many parties have been given for the Holmes who leave to make their home in Grants Pass this coming week after a residence here of the past three years.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

HOSTESSES ON TUESDAY at a delightful tea at Reames clubhouse for Mrs. Frank Holmes, were (left to right) Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. John Houston, and Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver. Seventy-five of Mrs. Holmes' friends were bidden to the affair between three and five o'clock.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

THE LAST DAY OF JUNE has been chosen by Dorothy May Browne for her marriage to Richard Post. Miss Browne will become Mr. Post's bride in an eight o'clock ceremony Saturday evening in St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. Victor E. Newman reading the ceremony.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Ruth Mary Bathiany Announces Betrothal

Attractive Klamath Girl Engagement Told at Lovely Summer Tea Saturday Afternoon.

Another attractive Klamath Falls maid announced her betrothal this week when Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany, daughter of Mrs. Harry William Bathiany, told friends of her coming marriage to Mr. John M. Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford of this city. The engagement was made known at a charming summer tea given at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Francis Robert Olds of Riverside street, Saturday afternoon. Tea hours were between three o'clock and six o'clock.

Receiving with Mrs. Olds were Mrs. Bathiany and Ruth Mary who was lovely in a frock of white lace with a full white net skirt. A cluster of flowers was worn at the throat.

Names of the young couple were printed in gold on the tea napkins. The wedding will be an event of mid-August at St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. Victor E. Newman reading the ceremony.

The tea table was centered with a low arrangement of summer blossoms flanked on either side by tall white tapers. Pouring the first hour were Mrs. G. C. Lorenz and Mrs. Martha McCollum, during the second hour Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver and Mrs. Ernest Dolph Lamb presided, and during the last hour pourers were Miss Cleo Champagne and Miss Elizabeth Anderson.

Lovely summer flowers were used throughout the living room where a group of the younger set assisted, including Miss Elizabeth Gallagher, Miss Patricia Gallagher, cousins of the bride-elect, Miss Betty Crawford, Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz, Mrs. Ralph Waggoner and Mrs. Robert Francis Olds of Dunsmuir, California, Miss Bathiany's cousin.

The bride is a member of a well known Klamath Falls family and was graduated several years ago from Armstrong's in Berkeley. Mr. Crawford attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. They are popular members of the younger group and many affairs are being planned within the next few weeks for their pleasure.

More than one hundred and seventy-five guests called during the tea hours.

Luncheon Given Friday

Mrs. Frank Holmes Complimented By Group of Friends

Mrs. Frank Holmes was complimented with an attractively arranged bridge luncheon Friday at one o'clock at the Frank Jenkins home on Pacific Terrace when Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Lawrence Slater entertained a group of friends. The affair was planned as a farewell prior to Mrs. Holmes' departure for the valley where she will reside.

Covers at luncheon were laid for Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. John H. Houston, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. Ted Medford, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Don McLucas, Mrs. Joseph Feak and Mrs. Louis Serruys.

Miss Gallagher to Attend Convention

Miss Patricia Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robert Olds, will leave Sunday for Sun Valley, Idaho, where she will attend a convention of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority in session at the famous lodge this coming week. Miss Gallagher represents her chapter at Whitman college, Walla Walla, Washington. En route home she will visit in Woodburn for several days with relatives.

SEATED AT THE GARDEN WALL one sunny morning this week, the cameraman snapped Nancy Ann Pike of Claremont, California, (left), and her hostess, Helen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, 304 North Carroll. Miss Pike is the daughter of Mrs. E. M. Pike of the southern city and attended Flintridge school for girls with Helen. The two are enjoying several days at the Moore summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

JOINING THE RANKS OF SUMMER BRIDES is lovely Ruth Mary Bathiany, daughter of Mrs. Harry William Bathiany and the late Mr. Bathiany. Her betrothal was told at a charming tea given Saturday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. Francis Robert Olds, at her home on Riverside. Miss Bathiany's marriage to Mr. John M. Crawford will be an event of mid-August in St. Paul's.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.