Sightly Headgear Features Tulelake Garden Club Meet

TULELAKE—Peas and carrots, radishes and cabbage leaves, choice blooms from south-end flower gardens, and even the lowly onion garlanded millady's bonnet at the relaxation meeting of the Tulelake Garden club at the home of Mrs. Almo Newton on Friday afternoon. A clever innovation, a box of strawberries tilted over one eye, gave first prize to Mrs. Dwight Hamilton for the most original head covering, while Mrs. Lee Dixon, with a realistic creation of delphinium and roses, took first for the prettiest. Probably nearest in fashion to the present day mode was the Easter basket topped by an egg worn by Mrs. Tom Newton.

Mrs. Merton J. Brown as program chairman introduced Patricia Bond who played an accordion number, "Roses of Picardy." Barbara Bentley and Jean Anderson sang "Just An Old Fashioned Garden."

Mrs. Almo Newton, reviewing Richardson Wright's, "History of Gardening," emphasized the part that women have played through the ages in flower culture, from the time that primitive man, the meat eater, was first induced to eat edible roots and fruits.

"Womanhood in Flower," a series of pantomimes representing well known flowers, concluded the program.

Hostesses for the afternoon included Mrs. Dan O'Keefe, Mrs. Melvin McConnell, Mrs. Walter England, Mrs. Almo Newton and Mrs. Walter Reynolds.

February, the club is recessing during July with a tour of community gardens planned for August 9. Members are asked to be alert for the announcement of the August session.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Brown, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney, Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mrs. Steve Takacs, Mrs. John Takacs, Mrs. Dwight Hamilton, Mrs. Tony Victorine, Mrs. Pritchett, Mrs. H. T. Street, Mrs. Mose Crawford, Mrs. Olney Rudd, Mrs. Merton J. Brown, Mrs. Hathaway Buell, Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse, Mrs. Everett Durkee, Mrs. John Kandra Jr., Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Mrs. Clive Tittle, Mrs. Robert Nebiker, Mrs. Lee Dixon, Mrs. Jess Dieter, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. A. J. King, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Miss Barbara Bentley, Miss Jean Anderson, Miss Patricia Bond, Miss Eleanor Kandra, Miss Bernice Nebiker, Miss Helen Suty, Miss Sara O'Keefe, Miss Mary England, Miss Barbara Jean England, Miss Janet Dixon and Miss Margaret Ann Takacs.

YONNA STATION RECORDS HOTTEST JUNE IN HISTORY

HILDEBRAND — The past month has been the hottest June on record at the Yonna station in the past 23 years. The maximum for the past two weeks has ranged between 90 and 97 degrees through the day and the nights were from 47 to 61 degrees.

Bonanza

BONANZA—Members of the Bonanza Woman's club gathered at the library on Wednesday afternoon and spent the time sewing for the hope chest which they are filling to be sold in the fall. The ladies are getting a nice supply of lovely handmade linens, including embroidered and appliqued dish towels, decorated comforter protectors, crocheted hotdish holders and mats, embroidered pillowcases, and various other nice things dear to the heart of fastidious housewives. They plan to start work on a quilt at the next meeting which will be on the afternoon of July 10. They have also announced that any of these items will be for sale at any time during the summer, so that anyone needing something nice for a gift will be able to obtain any number of handmade articles at a nominal price, by seeing Mrs. Noma Becholdt or Mrs. Ada Sparretoren.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taunton of Kansas City, Mo., were visitors at the home of Mrs. Taunton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hamaker recently. Mrs. Taunton is the daughter of Earl Hamaker of Klamath Falls. Before returning home they plan to visit at San Francisco, Los Angeles and Memphis, Tenn.

The Bridge club was entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Velma Whitby at the home of Mrs. Noma Becholdt. Mrs. Lillian Becholdt received high and Mrs. Birdie Burk received the traveling prize for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thurman of Green River, Utah, were recent visitors with their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Beebe and son, George Thurman of the Monopole store. They were accompanied by another son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thurman, also from Utah. The family left last week, planning on attending the fair at San Francisco before returning to their home in Utah.

Because of the Fourth of July holiday, the Bonanza Garden club has decided to skip one meeting. The next meeting will be on July 12, at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Teare in Langell valley.

The Bonanza Woman's club will hold a regular business meeting on Tuesday evening, July 2. At the meeting there will probably be some discussion of the organizing of a cemetery board.

When rough weather prevents a boat to put out from shore, lighthouse keepers often receive their supplies by airplane.

Bly

Jeff Caubie suffered a painful back injury in a fall from his truck Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fletcher are leaving Saturday, June 29, for Salem.

Mrs. Lloyd Harbin from Weyerhaeuser Camp No. 4, visited friends in Bly on Wednesday, June 26.

Mrs. Stump and two children are leaving Friday to spend a few days visiting in Fort Klamath.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Mrs. Detrick's lawn, Mrs. Charles Stump will act as co-hostess.

Mrs. Ivan Cartwright entertained members of the bridge club at her home Friday afternoon, June 21. Those present were Mrs. Dwight Bingham, Mrs.

Pound, Mrs. Charles Stump, Mrs. Leo Quackenbush, Mrs. Archie Strong, Mrs. Clark Abbott, Mrs. Carl Deering and the hostess, Mrs. Cartwright.

Mrs. Madison and Mrs. Coke entertained the Ladies Aid at the church Wednesday afternoon, June 26.

Tulelake

Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Brown have as their guests over the weekend their son Stanley, an employee of the Douglas airplane factory, Los Angeles, who has been here for his vacation and his roommate, Bob Burns, who came north for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dixon have been hosts to Miss Ruth Dixon, San Francisco, Dixon's sister.

Mrs. George Yost was hostess Thursday to members of the Octave bridge club with honors going to Mrs. Merton J. Brown and second honors to Mrs. Yost. At play during the afternoon were Mrs. L. J. Horton, Poe valley; Mrs. J. Barkwell, Mrs. M. J. Brown, Mrs. C. C. Chamberlain, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Pat McGinley, Mrs. Charles K. Wiese and the hostess.
