

Helping Hand Society, Pioneer Malin Group, Holds 25th Anniversary

MALIN — The Helping Hand society of Malin celebrated its 25th anniversary on Wednesday, June 26.

The oldest ladies' organization in this community, it attributes much of its success to one of the by-laws: "We shall never say anything detrimental to anyone at our meetings."

Many of the members' husbands doubted the ability of women to stand by this strict rule, but soon realized how beneficial the society was to the community and were willing to offer services freely even to using the horses in the busy season.

There were seven charter members, Mrs. Dilla Bailey, Mrs. Emma Wilson, Mrs. Clara Daniel, Mrs. Lida Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Carrie Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Hale and Mrs. Lillie Barnes all of whom are living Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are still residents of the Malin community.

At the first meeting $1 was collected in dues with which the ladies purchased gingham for aprons which they made and sold to each other at a slight profit. The next financial undertaking was threshing sudan grass for the husband of one of the members, he having grown a small plot as an experiment. Their method of threshing brought out their talent for ways and means. The straw was pounded with sticks, sacked and rubbed on wash boards. Two days hard labor netted the society $1.

At this time there were no automobiles and members drove from one to 20 miles to attend a meeting, each member being hostess at an all-day meeting. The hostess served a hot noon meal with the menu limited to four articles. If more was served she was subject to a fine. This custom is still observed.

The ladies soon found many ways to render aid in the community. An entertainment and box social was first given to raise funds for a piano for the Shasta View school. From their small treasury they purchased materials to make fifty boxes filling them with home cooked food. Sold at auction, they brought $85.

As this was during the war period the society was asked by the Red Cross for assistance and they responded by meeting each week to work for the worthy cause.

The first entertainment given for Red Cross support for which 12 members were responsible netted $200.

Among many other things done for the community has been purchase of a piano for the Malin high school and one for the community hall. A kitchen in the hall also came in for attention and the members assisted with furnishings.

The society is also responsible for the annual reception for new teachers in the Malin schools. For a banquet for the winning athletic squads and a room in the school is furnished and maintained for first aid treatment. It takes an active part in the county health program, supports the president's ball and serves annually the chamber of commerce banquet with this year's guest list for the dinner reaching 180.

The society now has an active membership of 34 who on June 26 honored the three local charter members. Old time costumes were worn and old time photographs were displayed. Songs of long ago were sung by five of the members and were most heartily applauded.

At noon a delicious picnic lunch was served on the lawn by the hostess, Mrs. John McCully. At an opportune moment a member appeared, arrayed in a unique costume, and proved a jolly entertainer. A beautiful birthday cake, purchased by the society was cut by Mrs. Wilson.

During the business session Mrs. Ina Shultz was re-elected president, Mrs. Eva Hundley was re-elected secretary, Mrs. Leah Street was elected vice president and Mrs. Frances Kester named treasurer.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Dilla Bailey, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Clarence Hundley, Mrs. Harry Hundley, Mrs. Perry Haley, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. Joe Jacobs, Mrs. Everett Jones, Mrs. Harry Jackson, Mrs. Earl Kester, Mrs. Lilly Meyers, Mrs. John McCully, Mrs. John Reber, Mrs. Jack Ratliff, Mrs. Earl McVey, Mrs. A. West Side

A good crowd attended the benefit supper dance at the Westside grange hall June 22 sponsored by the Westside Catholic ladies. About $60 was taken in, and Virgil Young, Teren and Margaret O'Connor, and one of the Kudna brothers furnished the music for the dance. Mrs. Marvin Pardue was general chairman.

McKinley Butts, a brother of Mrs. Robert Maddock, flew to Klamath Falls Sunday to get his regular 100-hour check-up. He returned just at dark and landed safely, although 15 minutes later, he reports, he would not have been able to have seen the runway on the landing field at Maddock's station, where he has recently constructed a hangar for his plane.

Lightning flashed and flared over northern Goose Lake valley, slowly traveling northward, for over two hours Monday evening. Bringing with it sudden, heavy showers in some sections, it lit up the sky almost continuously at times, the flashes and streaks coming with almost no intervals between them. A fire set by a bolt of lightning on a slope of buckbrush in the northwest of the valley brought out a group of CCC fighters and a piece of equipment known as a killafir.

Mrs. J. L. Pardue visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker at Hart Mountain last week.

Mrs. Wilson Hanks of the Dry creek district has gone to Tulelake to cook for a hay crew.

Westiders and their friends will again hold a Fourth of July picnic just this side of Yocum valley next Thursday when they gather at the Covert place for fun, food, and firecrackers. Last year a cold wind and falling snow part of the day brought about the strange situation of eating ice cream on the Fourth of July while sitting around a campfire.

Better weather is hoped for this year, when a larger crowd than ever is expected to attend. Although Pat Albertson is planning to roast a lamb and Henry Albertson a weaner pig, all who attend are to bring food for a potluck picnic dinner.

Clyde Fenimore and Willard Williams left Sunday to work in the haying at the Arthur ranch.

Max Schlemmer, who is night guard at the Likely mill, and his wife were up Sunday to visit relatives.

Jack Howard came over from Bondon Thursday to work for Ross Collahan.

Ray Grinstead and family were up Saturday and Leo Buck and family Sunday from the logging camp at the southwest end of Goose Lake. Logs are being hauled out from there across the lake to Davis creek and over Sugar Loaf mountain to Willow Ranch box factory.

The weeds in Merle O'Neil's garden, from which he sells vegetables in the summer to a Lakeview store, were getting the best of him recently, and he had to call in Luster Williams to help him for a while. As an example of the size of his garden, he has set out 1500 cabbage plants.

Cut on Chin Falls to Daunt Tony Galento

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 1 (AP) — Apparently a beer glass, sailing through the air with the greatest of ease, was too small a detail to change Tony Galento's mind about his ability to belt out Maxie Baer in the local ball park Tuesday night.

Tony and Madcap Maxie wound up their training Sunday, such as it was, but the round gentleman from Orange was around today sporting a bandage on his chin, covering a cut brought about by the aforementioned beer glass. Complete details were still the secret of Tony's barroom today, but the Newark Star Ledger found witnesses who reported Tony had been having a dispute with his Brother Russel, who pitched a beer glass at him in a moment of excitement.

He received a cut about an inch long, they said, and was taken to a physician's office for treatment. However, Mike Jacobs, who is promoting the "battle of the bums," announced Tony's managers had advised him a little thing like a split chin wouldn't bother Two-ton.

Largest Entry List Announced For Links Play

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — More than 2600 strong, the boys who like golf well enough to get up at dawn and wait in line at the municipal links, or who find the daily fees of 50 cents or so more suited to their purses than expensive club memberships, are going after the 19th annual public links championship of the United States Golf Association at Detroit July 22 to 27.

The entry list of 2602, believed to be the largest ever recorded in any major golf competition, was announced today by the USGA together with plans for reducing it to a mere handful of 192 players for the championship proper.
