CHANGES MADE IN NEWSPAPER STAFF

Mrs. Merta Campbell, with her children, is a recent arrival in Bonanza from Burns, Ore., to join her husband, W. C. Campbell in working on The Free Press, weekly newspaper published in Bonanza. The paper was purchased several weeks ago by Arch McDonald of Dorris, Calif., from Catherine Terry, veteran newspaper woman of Klamath county. The Campbells originally came from Minnesota and South Dakota where they both were in newspaper work, Campbell having 18 years experience to his credit and Mrs. Campbell eight years work as a reporter.

McDonald will continue as publisher of The Free Press in Bonanza and will also publish a paper for Bly at the Bonanza office. Campbell will continue as manager, which position he has held since the change in ownership. He had also previously worked on the paper for Mrs. Terry.

Mrs. Campbell holds the position of editor and reporter.

Henley

HENLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wainright have moved to the Clarence Enloe home.

Mrs. Lee McMullen, Frances Lee McMullen and Mrs. Pound were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell and family Tuesday. Mrs. Pound is the mother of Mrs. McMullen and resides at Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Maggie Latta is suffering with an attack of arthritis. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Semon are spending several days at their summer home on the Umpqua river.

Roy Orem and son Roger of Portland visited at the home of Orem's brother, Ira Orem, several days last week.

Mrs. Bill Babbs is on the sick list.

Frances Sexton of Pendleton, Ore., visited last week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Lawrence Birk, en route to Corvallis to attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Porter of Santa Cruz, Calif., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Grizzle Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jackson have re-papered their house and dug a new well. The old well caved in.

Mrs. Gray Brannon visited at the home of her parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Ernest Ayres, in Bonanza Wednesday.

Harry Orem has as his guest for the summer, his cousin, Charles Orem Williamson of San Francisco. They are spending several days at the Orem ranch at Fort Klamath.

Ronald Whitlatch is re-flooring the front porch of the William Whitlatch home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Keinzel of Eugene arrived Friday to spend the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wainright, also their son, John Keinzel, who is working here.

Mrs. Gus Hilyard was very pleasantly surprised by a number of friends on her birthday Saturday, June 22. Those arriving at dinner time were Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Drew Sr., Mrs. Ada Brown, Mrs. June Gimes, Mrs. Ida Grimes and Mrs. Gertrude Cox. Also present was a neighbor boy, David Tripp, whose birthday was also that day. Mrs. Hilyard received a number of lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins entertained Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Dixon at dinner Saturday night, the occasion being Mrs. Dixon's birthday.

A number of the Henley band members are studying under Charles Stanfield this summer. The clarinet players are Marjorie Dehlinger, Dorothy Dixon and Garrett Dean Hilyard. Trombone players are Elmer Birk and Stephen Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mosier, returned missionaries of Kirby, Africa, will have charge of the morning and evening services at the Mt. Laki church Sunday, June 30.

Margaret Murphy is staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ferrill Hilyard, while recuperating from a recent illness.

Ruth Dixon of San Francisco visited at the home of her brother, Percy Dixon, Tuesday.

The Henley grange will hold its regular meeting at the grange hall Wednesday night, July 3. The lecturer, Mrs. T. D. Jackson, has planned a patriotic program.

HEALTH GROUP COMPLETES PLANS FOR MEMBERSHIP

LAKEVIEW — Plans have been completed for the annual membership drive of the Lake County Health association that opened Monday, July 1. Mrs. Phil Smith was appointed as county membership chairman. Miss Margaret Hay assisted by members of the Girls' Junior auxiliary will have charge of the local canvass.

RESIDENTS WILL TALK PTA PLANS

BONANZA — A number of people from the Langell Valley, Hildebrand, Bonanza and Poe Valley communities got together recently with representatives of the school and discussed plans for the organization of a Parent-Teachers association.

As there seems to be widespread interest in the movement, which has been a long-time desire of people who have interest in the school at Bonanza, and as the school serves a large territory, it has been decided to have a mass meeting at the new school gym on the afternoon of July 24 to further discuss plans and organization. Anyone having children who will attend school at Bonanza is invited to attend.

BONANZA FACULTY UNDERGOES CHANGE

BONANZA — There will be several changes in the faculty of Bonanza schools, according to a late report.

Burdette Nickolaus will replace Myron Wheeler, instructor in band and music in the high school. He comes from Oregon State college.

Kent Woodruff will join the teaching staff at the grade school, bringing the number of teachers up to seven for the six grades. He comes from Ashland and Monmouth.

Rauligh Carruthers arrived with his family in Bonanza recently to take over the Smith-Hughes work, formerly handled by George Shambrook.

Other changes to be made have not yet been announced.
