

Yankees Blast Out Two Victories

Fishin's Fun

HIATT LAKE—Toads as bait for bass with yellow buck flies and spinners for crappies and perch.

GERBER DAM—Limits of perch being taken on worms.

FOUR MILE LAKE—Best on bait fishing, about 300 feet off shore in deep water.

Good fishing has been reported at both SEVEN LAKES and SKY LAKES. The information on bait used was not available. Be sure and go prepared for mosquitoes.

The CHEWAUCAN in its higher reaches has been good for limits on files.

HARRISON LODGE is still the hot spot on the Upper lake. Trolling wobblers is best. Fish have been running large.

BLUE LAKE, which opened on the first, has been heavily fished and the reports have been very good. Fish run small. Bait is best but flies worked for some from the shore in the late afternoon.

CAMPBELL LAKE also opened on the first for the first time in a year. Fishing reported as good with many fishing boats available. Trolling and bait were best.

CRATER LAKE still reports limits of fish, mostly a lot smaller than last year. All were taken on trolling with a few at the far end of the lakes on spinners with bait and a few on flies.

DIAMOND LAKE has been full up so far as accommodations and boats are concerned, with some fish being caught by most boats. The limits of big fish have been on bait.

DESCHUTES RIVER has shown a decided improvement. Big fish have been reported, mostly on files.

METOLUIS RIVER is clear from the cove to Crooked River ranch. Nice catches of fish running around a pound have been caught on gray and brown flies.

EAST LAKE—Good fishing, all on bait.

PAULINA LAKE—Trolling and files. Probably the best fishing of the season is now due.

ODELL LAKE—Plenty of fish being taken and occasionally a big one is coaxed out, mostly by trolling with flashers. Some fly fishing in the evening.

Care with LIGHTED MATERIAL is now most important while using the forest for your recreation. BE SURE it's out when you throw it away.

"Take a boy fishing."

CHAMPS LOOSE 23 HITS; WIN OVER BOSOX

NEW YORK, July 55 (UP)—Eight major league double-headers furnished baseball's fireworks for Independence day but the New York Yankees set off the program's biggest explosion by battering the Boston Red Sox for a double victory.

Apparently out of the American league race only little over a week ago, the champions bounded to within one and one-half game of third place by two victories Thursday, 12-4 and 7-3. The Yanks loosed a 23-hit barrage, reminiscent of their 1939 power, which included eight home runs.

In the first game Charlie Keller drove out two four-baggers and Red Rolfe, George Selkirk and Joe Gordon one each as Spud Chandler held the Red Sox to 10 scattered hits. Buddy Oscar connected for a pair of circuit blows and Gordon one in the nightcap as Marius Russo stopped the Sox with nine blows.

The twin victory stretched the current Yankee record to eight wins in their last nine games and sent them to within five and one-half games of the top spot.

An 11-inning 2-1 victory in the nightcap gained the Cleveland Indians an even break with the Detroit Tigers to maintain their one-game league lead. Tommy Bridges' five-hit pitching led the Tigers to a 5-3 triumph in the opener. Rudy York homered for the Tigers in the opener and Ben Chapman for the Indians.

Chisox Win Two
The Chicago White Sox pulled up into fifth place with two decisions over the St. Louis Browns, 7-3 and 8-5, the Browns dropping into sixth. Washington's Senators climbed into seventh place by knocking off the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-1 and 9-5.

Brooklyn stopped the New York Giants' National league flag rush by holding the Terry-men to two runs and exactly 10 hits in two games for 5-1 and 6-1 victories. Curt Davis pitched a seven-hitter for Brooklyn in the opener and Vito Tamulis a three-in the nightcap. Tamulis had a perfect game for seven innings, retiring the first 21 men in order until the eighth when Babe Young, first man up, got a two-bagger.

The largest crowd of the 1940 National league season—54,306—watched the Dodger romp which protected their one-game lead over the Cincinnati Reds.

Pirates Lose Two
Cincinnati came through with 9-1 and 3-1 victories over the Pittsburgh Pirates, Bucky Walters pitching a seven-hitter for victory No. 11 in the opener while Gene Thompson allowed only three hits for his tenth win in the nightcap.

The Philadelphia Phillies split with the Boston Bees, winning the first game 4-3 behind Cy Blanton's eight-hitter. Boston won the second, 5-4.

Four runs in two innings gave the Chicago Cubs a 4-3 win over the St. Louis Cards in the first game of their doubleheader. Clyde Shoun, former Cub, held his old mates to four hits while the Cardinals gained an even break with a 5-2 win in the second game. The Cards got nine hits off Ken Raffensberger and Charley Root.

From Lou to Ray ... Two Out

Lou Boudreau

Ray Mack

These two college kids, who made the Cleveland ball club already rank with the greatest second basing combinations of all time. They are Lou Boudreau, speedy shortstop (above), and Ray Mack, fast-pivoting second baseman (below), who have a knack of bringing crowds to their feet with unbelievable double plays.

Chico Nine Billed Tonight

MATCHMAKERS TANGLE WITH TIMBERMEN

TONIGHT'S GAMES
7:30 p. m.—Smith's All Stars vs. Kiger's All Stars.
8:30 p. m.—Weyerhaeuser vs. Chico Matchmakers.

One of the best softball teams on the Pacific coast, the Chico Diamond Matchmakers, will appear here tonight at Recreation field tangle with the Weyerhaeuser Timbermen, 1939 Klamath champions, in the feature contest of a doubleheader under the arcs of the local diamond in Mills addition.

Reports from the California city indicate that the invaders are a heavy hitting club. Team batting average to date for the 1940 season is .382, with three infielders, Hank Urbina, third base, Hank Picanco, shortstop, and Johnny Meade, second base, socking the ball at a .480 clip or better.

McKeown to Hurl
Heading the pitching staff of the Chico nine is Joe McKeown, rated one of the best hurlers in northern California. McKeown, who will start on the mound for the visitors tonight, pitched a Seattle, Wash., softball outfit to seven straight state championships.

In 11 games played this season the Matchmakers have lost only two contests, and all of their games have been played against the toughest competition available. Management of the Chico squad believes that his infield is one of the best on the coast, both at the plate and defensively.

Dangerous Hitters
Weyerhaeuser will probably give the invading aggregation a stiff battle with Ivan Broten, speedy twirler, attempting to send his tricky delivery past the Chico batters. The Timbermen, too, have a lineup full of dangerous hitters that will give most any pitcher a headache.

Tonight's tentative lineups, not necessarily in batting order, follow:

Smith's All Stars	Per.	Kiger's All Stars
Ham	CF	L. Arlio
Ramos	P	J. Broten
F. O'Casey	1B	McKeown
Edwards	2B	Wagner
Edwards	3B	Thomas
Edwards	SS	McKeown
J. Arlio	LF	Wagner
Mahoney	CF	Fante
Ward	RF	Kiger

Chico	Per.	Weyerhaeuser
A. Picanco	P	J. Broten
McKeown	1B	Broten
Urbina	2B	Broten
Meade	3B	Wagner
Urbina	LF	Ferguson
Broten	CF	H. Broten
D. Westlake	RF	Franklin
Urbina	CF	Wilson

PADRES TAKE THIRD BY DOUBLE WIN

By United Press
Seattle and Oakland, running one-two in the Pacific Coast league, won double-headers on Thursday and San Diego replaced Sacramento in third place.

Seattle beat Portland, 6-3 and 6-2. Hal Turpin won the first while Byron Speece took the loss, each side getting 11 hits. Les Webber won the nightcap while Orrell and Fallin were on the hill for Portland, and again each side got the same number of hits—ten.

Oakland drubbed San Francisco, 12-2 and 5-2. The Oaks came through in the seventh and eighth innings of the opener, with Jack Salveson winning on nine hits while Powell and Jensen of San Francisco allowed 14. Ralph Buxton gave the Seals six hits in the windup while Al Epperly allowed the Oaks eight.

Double Drubbing
San Diego's double drubbing of Sacramento moved the Padres into third place, a half-game ahead of the Solons. San Diego won the first game, 6-4, with Wally Hebert scattering 11 Sacramento hits and Kleinke and Riel yielding 14 to San Diego. The Padres took the nightcap, 4-1, as Howard Graghead gave up only five hits and his mates got 11 from Bill Schmidt.

Los Angeles and Hollywood split. Hollywood won the first, 2-1, with John Bittner the winning pitcher, Ray Prim the loser and each team getting nine hits; Los Angeles evened it with a 6-0 win in the second game. Joe Berry blanked the Stars on six hits while Los Angeles pounded Fleming, Tost and Gay for 11.

San Diego 4 11 0
Schmidt and Grill; Craghead and Detore. (7 innings.)

Los Angeles 6 11 1
Hollywood 0 6 3
Berry and Hernandez; Fleming, Tost, Gay and Dapper. (7 innings.)

San Francisco 2 6 3
Oakland 5 8 2

Weissmuller Record Broken in AAU Swim

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 5 (UP)—Otto Jaretz, 18-year-old Chicago high school youth, broke Johnny Weissmuller's 13-year-old American record Thursday in winning the 220-yard freestyle event of the 1940 senior national AAU swimming and diving championships.

Jaretz churned through Santa Barbara's coral Casino pool in 2 minutes 13 1-10 seconds to break Weissmuller's 1927 record by five tenths of a second.

Adolf Kiefer, Jaretz' husky teammate from the Tower club of Chicago, was second two yards behind.

Paul Herron of Long Beach, Cal., finished third and the defending champion, Kiyoshi Nakama of Hawaii, took fourth ahead of his fellow Hawaiian, Takshi Hirose. Henry Paris, San Francisco, was sixth and Gus Sharemet, Michigan, took seventh.

The youthful Jaretz indicated he was at peak form when he won his morning qualifying heat in 2:17.7, going the last 55 yards easily.

Two more records fell when the Tower club of Chicago won the 330 yard medley relay.

Keifer Breaks Record
Keifer, swimming the backstroke, broke his own American record for 110 yards in 1:05.4, two-tenths faster than the old mark. William Kraus swam the breast stroke and Jaretz the freestyle to set a new American record of 3:22. The former record was 3:22.2.

Los Angeles Athletic club was second behind the Chicagoans and the Hawaiian Islands team was third.

Ohio State's diving stars, Earl Clark and Al Patnik, led seven qualifiers for the national championship on the three-meter board. Clark, with 164.42 points, shaded Patnik with 154.8.

The other contestants followed in order: Sammy Lee of Occidental college, Eagle Rock, Calif., 143.76; George Athens,
