

Miss Frances Berry Names Wedding Date

Attractive Klamath Girl To Become Bride of Mr. Donald Golding August the Eighteenth

Exciting is the late summer news, most of which centers around brides, and showers, announcement dates, and parties honoring the bride-elect and her husband-to-be. This past week Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Berry of 2105 Reclamation street, announced the date of the marriage of their attractive daughter, Frances Taylor Berry, to Mr. Donald Lee Golding, son of Mrs. Harriet Golding of Islip, Long Island. The marriage service will be read at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday afternoon, August the eighteenth at one o'clock.

A few intimate friends and members of both families have been invited to the wedding which will be very simple. Following a motor trip the young couple will make their home in this city where Mr. Golding is a member of the Klamath Union high school faculty. At the present time Mr. Golding is in Long Island, but is expected to arrive August the eighteenth.

Mrs. Anthony Manno entertained at a prettily appointed party for Miss Berry at her home, 2440 Darrow avenue, this past Tuesday evening. The affair was a towel shower and the honor guest received many attractive gifts. Games were played during the evening with prizes given to Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany, Miss Elizabeth Anderson and Mrs. Chester Hostetler.

Bouquets of summer flowers were used about the rooms where a supper was served in the late evening to Miss Berry, Miss Bathiany, Miss Cleo Champagne, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Mrs. Willard Ward, Mrs. Greer Drew, Mrs. Don Hunt, Miss Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Chester Hostetler, Miss Gertrude Tolle, Mrs. Ralph Waggoner, Mrs. S. F. Scott, Mrs. Helen Strawn, Miss Eleanor Weatherford, Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz, Mrs. Oliver Riley, Mrs. John Larson and the hostess, Mrs. Manno.

MISS DeBORD WEDS RECENTLY IN NEVADA CITY

Friends in this city have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Christine DeBord to Mr. Paul Marcus Segel, which was solemnized in Carson City, Nevada, on July the second.

Mrs. Segel formerly taught school in Klamath Falls where she has a wide circle of friends. For the past two years she has been teaching at Modesto, California, and during the coming year, in addition to her position there, will serve as recreational director for the John Muir school. Mr. Segel, who is now attending the summer session at Stanford university, has been principal of the school at Hanford, California, for the past two years.

Mrs. John Burns, the former Neva Palmer, is visiting in Klamath Falls from her home in Spokane, Washington. She is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Palmer of North Third street during her stay of a week.

Mrs. E. F. Kieley is among the Klamath folks who are "tripping" these days. Mrs. Kieley left this past week for St. Paul, Minnesota, to visit friends and relatives for the remainder of the summer.

Making the journey will be Miss Barbara Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, Miss Ora Lea Vannice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice, now of Mt. Vernon, Washington, and Miss Marie and Carolyn Collier, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier.

The girls will first visit in San Francisco and spend a day or two at the Golden Gate fair, and from there continue to Chicago, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, New York City and of course the New York World's fair, Boston, and then the return journey through Winnipeg, other eastern Canadian cities, and home by way of Lake Louise and Banff.

Included in their itinerary are many visits at schools and colleges throughout the country.

VENTURISTS ASSIST WITH RED CROSS WORK

A joint business meeting and picnic was held by the Klamath Falls Venture club at Moore park last week when plans were made for continuing the Red Cross work. Print for thirteen dresses has been obtained from Mrs. C. S. Elliot, manager of the Red Cross sewing rooms, and each Venturist is busily engaged in producing dresses for girls from two to eight years of age. Several of the Venturists are also knitting for the Red Cross.

Meetings have been held at the home of Mrs. Rita Whisenant on Portland street for conducting this work, two having been held so far. The Red Cross sewing is in charge of Miss Beverly Reed. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Odell, 227 Ewauna street, when dinner will be served on the lawn at half past six o'clock and a program will be given on parliamentary law.

SAN FRANCISCO PIANIST TO PLAY IN MEDFORD

Music lovers are interested to learn that Bernhard Abramowitsch of San Francisco, will appear in Medford in concert the evening of July the twenty-sixth, and a number of Klamath Falls folks are planning to motor to the valley to hear him.

Mr. Abramowitsch was presented in concert in Medford last year and is returning by demand. He is considered one of the six leading pianists on the Pacific coast and those who have had the pleasure of hearing him hope to bring him to Klamath Falls in the near future.
