

Engagement Told At Mt. Vernon Tea

Egbert Mersereau Jr., To Wed Miss Rita Moen in Washington on July the Twenty-seventh

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Wheeler Mersereau of San Jose, California, until recently of Klamath Falls, are receiving invitations to the wedding of their son, Egbert Wheeler Mersereau Jr., and Miss Rita Moen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Moen of Mt. Vernon, Washington. The marriage will take place Saturday evening, July the twenty-seventh, at the United Presbyterian church in Mt. Vernon. Following is a story of the announcement tea which appeared in the Mt. Vernon paper:

"Charming in its appointments and exciting in the news which greeted the guests, the tea given Monday afternoon when Mrs. G. O. Moen and her daughter, Miss Rita Moen, entertained, complimenting Miss Betty Louise Stewart, proved one of the most delightful events of the summer social season. Miss Stewart returned Friday from New York and Porto Rico, having spent the past ten months as a guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Holmes, at their home in San Juan.

"Greeting the guests at the door were little Janet and Jean Moen, wearing adorable powder blue frocks, who presented tiny envelopes to each guest, thus revealing the news of the engagement of Miss Rita Moen to Egbert Wheeler Mersereau Jr., and the date of the wedding, July the twenty-seventh.

"Receiving the guests were Mrs. Moen, Miss Rita Moen, Miss Betty Louise Stewart, Mrs. J. K. Stewart Jr. and Miss Kathryn Lee Randles, of Seattle, the fiancée of Miss Moen's brother, Gilmore Moen Jr., whose own engagement was recently announced. Each wore attractive corsages of white begonias.

"An all white motif was chosen for the tea table which was centered with a lovely arrangement of white snapdragons and greenery. White snapdragons were also used on the mantel arranged with white dahlias and caladium leaves. Tall white tapers further carried out the chosen motif.

"Pouring for the first hour were Mrs. Sidney Warner and Mrs. J. K. Stewart Sr., and for the second, Mrs. G. B. Grace and Mrs. Frederick Ornes. Between four and five o'clock, Mrs. C. J. Moen and Mrs. P. A. Cornelius presided at the tea table. Mrs. John Seaman and Mrs. Ray Clark were in charge of the dining rooms.

"Assisting in serving during the afternoon tea hours of two to five o'clock were the Misses Betty Cornelius, Harriett Cornelius, Josephine Webster, Mary Dunlap, Lura Jo Davis and Kathryn Hammer.

A musical program added enjoyment to the affair with vocal solos provided by Mrs. Dean Darling accompanied by Mrs. L. G. Davis, violin solos by Miss Ellis Ann Lindbloom, accompanied by Mrs. Davis, vocal numbers by Rawles Wilson with Keith Stewart acting as accompanist and piano selections by Mr. Stewart.

"The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Moen of this city and was graduated from Whitman college at Walla Walla this year. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

"Mr. Mersereau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Wheeler Mersereau of San Jose, California. He attended Mount Hermon in Northfield, Massachusetts, and graduated last year from Whitman college where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

"The wedding will take place Saturday evening, July the twenty-seventh, at the United Presbyterian church in this city.

Miss Moen visited recently in Klamath Falls en route south, and was the guest of Miss Maxine Peterson and Miss Patricia Gallagher while in the city.

Friends surprised Mr. W. B. Hendrickson at his home on Scott street on his birthday when pinocle and other games were played with high award going to Mr. and Mrs. Moulder and the special prize to Mrs. Twilliger. A number of gifts were presented the honor guest.
