Lodge Holds Initiation

Merrill Rebekahs Hold Colorful Ceremony on Monday Evening

MERRILL — Beth Robley, candidate for membership, was initiated into the Merrill Rebekah lodge Monday night at a colorful ceremony with the lodge drill team in pastel formal of pink and green. Sweetpeas predominated in the flower arrangements in the hall and Miss Robley was presented with a corsage by Mrs. Hazel Lilly, noble grand. The drill team in turn received corsages of gardenias, gifts of the Columbia Utilities company with which Mrs. Lilly is associated. Mrs. Nan-lie Van Meter, transferred from the Bonanza lodge to Merrill during the session was also recipient of a corsage.

Louis B. Riel of the Win-nemucca Rebekah lodge was introduced. Mrs. Minnie Dillard-Bowman, mother of Mrs. Melvin Bowman was a guest. Mrs. Davis, who teaches at Beaulah, in Malheur county, is spending the summer here with Mrs. Bowman, another daughter, Mrs. Clyde Barks, Tulelake and with other relatives. Still other visitors were Mrs. J. W. Reeder, Mrs. Ray Rowan, Mrs. Cora Rycraft and Miss Nevada Schooley.

Mrs. Lilly urged all members to assist with Red Cross sewing for overseas war relief. Material may be obtained at the home of Mrs. Warren Fruits, it was announced.

The refreshment table, commemorating the union of the United States and Canadian lodges, was centered with a patriotic motif flanked by the Canadian dominion. Serving were Mrs. Millie Stukel, chairman, Mrs. Leona Beasley, Mrs. Alice Dillard, Mrs. Ray Rowan, assisted by Mrs. Lilly. Honor guests of the evening were Mrs. Elmer Stukel, Mrs. Ernest Buck, Mrs. Sanford Jones, Mary Ellen Noakes and Warren Fruits.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas of San Diego, Calif., were among visitors in Klamath Falls the early part of the week, calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahan of West Klamath. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Mahan have been friends for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas stopped here en route south after a visit at Seattle. While on the trip they visited the Redwoods, Portland, and numerous other points of interest along the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beal have had as guests at their home on Huron street this past week Mr. Beal's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beal and their son, Jimmy, of Lincoln, Nebraska. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Gaddis and Mrs. H. J. Kuhn, also residents of Lincoln.
