

West Klamath

WEST KLAMATH—Mr. and Mrs. William Archer and Frances spent the weekend camping at Lake o' the Woods. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Thurman and Evelyn attended the Eagles picnic near Fort Klamath Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith had Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells and infant daughter Karen of Dallas, Tex., as guests last week. Wells is a United Press correspondent.

They have been visiting relatives in Washington and are now on the way to Kansas City, Kan., to visit Wells' parents before returning to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holliday and Jean and Howard drove to Portland Thursday, then to Klamath Wash., Friday to visit Mrs. Holliday's sister. They expect to visit Mt. Rainier national park. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phelps and daughters drove to Lakeview Wednesday to visit Mrs. H. Robinson who underwent a serious operation there recently.

WAGE DEMAND

COQUILLE, July 24 (AP)—Three hundred Smith Wood products employees approved coast-wide demands yesterday for a 70-cent per hour minimum for plywood workers and authorized a strike if the increase is not granted within "a reasonable time." The present minimum is 62 1/2 cents an hour.

RECORD TUNA

IPSWICH, Mass., July 24 (AP)—Hauling in a 753-pound giant tuna, B. Davis Crowninshield of Boston and Annisquam broke the American Atlantic sport fishing record for tuna last night in Ipswich bay.

DROWNS

CORVALLIS, July 24 (AP)—

William Elliott, 42, Corvallis hotel employe, fell from a boat into Colorado lake near here yesterday and drowned. His body was recovered.
