MRS. MARTHA MCCOLLUM

Installation Held By Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Konnie, Staff Start Term of Office; Delegates To Convention Elected

One of the most picturesque installation ceremonies ever held by the American Legion auxiliary took place Tuesday evening, July the sixteenth, at the home of Mrs. Effie Paul on the Lakeview highway. The event was held on the spacious lawn of the Paul home. Baskets of Shasta daisies were placed at the station of each officer, making a colorful note on the lighted lawn.

Mrs. Dorothy Templar, state treasurer, acted as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Leola Heilbroner as installing usher. Officers presented an attractive picture in their formal frocks. Officers of the Junior auxiliary were installed at the same meeting.

Those installed for the coming year were Mrs. Cora Konnie, president; Mrs. Martha McCollum, vice president; Mrs. Clara Heup, second vice president, and Mrs. Neva LaForge, secretary. Mrs. LaForge is the retiring president of the auxiliary and Miss Frances Foster is retiring president of the Junior girls.

Installed as sergeant-at-arms for the auxiliary was Mrs. Sue Morrison; color-bearer, Mrs. Willa Bark; chaplain, Mrs. Della Schroeder.

Officers of the Junior girls for the coming year include Miss Clarice Forness, president; Miss Rose Gallagher, vice president; Miss Bessie Pope, second vice president; Miss Gloria Pope, secretary-treasurer; Miss Gloria Peterstetter, chaplain; Miss Mary Jane Mettler, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. LaForge, the retiring president, was presented with a past president's pin by Mrs. Lucille Britt, and earnestly thanked all committee members who had assisted in making her term a success.

A musical number was presented at the close of the evening by Elaine Abbot, daughter of an auxiliary member, and refreshments were served during the social hour.

Due to the nation's endeavor to give all the support needed in any program undertaken, it is expected to be a busy and patriotic year for the local unit. In order that activities may get under way as rapidly as possible, the following chairmen have already been appointed:

Mrs. Effie Paul, child welfare; Mrs. Grace Miller, Americanism; Mrs. Martha McCollum, membership; Mrs. Clara Heup, poppy sale; Mrs. Lillian Otterbein, community service; Mrs. Mabel Foster, radio; Mrs. Vera Petrick, constitution and by-laws; Mrs. Florence Ogle, legislation; and Mrs. Annabelle Newton, publicity.

Delegates elected to attend the Legion's state convention at Seaside in September include Mrs. Konnie, Mrs. LaForge and Mrs. McCollum, with Mrs. Heup, Mrs. Heilbroner and Mrs. Paul as alternates.

Miss Joan Eller of Oakland, California, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gentry of Pacific Terrace, who have just returned from Napa, California, where they attended a reunion of the Gearhart family. Miss Eller is a niece of Mrs. Gearhart.

Miss Foster Honors Guests

Four Companions On Tour of State Pay Visit Here

As a courtesy to the three girls with whom she is enjoying a motor tour of Oregon, Miss Phyllis Foster entertained about twenty of her friends at an informal evening Monday, July the twenty-second at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Foster on Eldorado street. The guests of honor for the occasion were Miss Mary Louise Vincent of Portland, Miss Lisbeth Daggett of Prineville and Miss Virginia Young of Roseburg.

Assisting during the evening when Miss Daggett was greeted by a number of her friends in this city, were Miss Betty Lou Drake and Miss Virginia Bubb.

On Tuesday the four girls who are sorority sisters, all affiliated with Pi Beta Phi at the University of Oregon, left for Lake o' the Woods for a week's stay at the Foster cabin.

Since the start of their tour they have visited at Portland, Blue Lake and Seaside, and after a sojourn at Lake o' the Woods they will go to Odell lake and from there to Prineville where they will be guests at Miss Daggett's home. This will be followed by a trip into eastern Oregon before returning home.

Miss Bernice Hooton has returned to San Francisco after several weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hooton of St. Francis park. Miss Hooton is a student of nursing at the Stanford University hospital in San Francisco.

Mrs. F. I. Bowerman and daughter, Mildred, of Hood River, Oregon, are visiting here for a couple of weeks, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steers at 2235 Garden avenue. The Bowermans are former residents of Klamath Falls.

MRS. S. F. KONNIE

MRS. F. A. LaFORGE

At an installation ceremony held the evening of July the sixteenth on the lawn at the A. L. Paul home, the recently elected officers of the American Legion auxiliary were inducted into office in preparation for an active year planned by the local unit. Those inducted into office by the organization's state treasurer, Mrs. Dorothy Templar, were Mrs. S. F. Konnie, president; Mrs. Martha McCollum, first vice president; Mrs. A. P. Heup, second vice president and Mrs. F. A. LaForge, secretary. Mrs. LaForge is also the retiring president. —Kennell-Elis pictures.

HOUSEWARMING IS GIVEN FOR PLAYHOUSE

Mrs. W. L. Larson entertained a group of little friends of her daughter, Lois, at a housewarming in the new playhouse built by the father of the guest of honor at her home, 2147 Eberlein avenue. Refreshments were served in the little house to Patsy McCoy, Mary Louise Sholdy, Regina Brown, Charlene Reynolds, Cleo May Higgins, Jimmie Holland and Lois Larson.

Mrs. Wyatt Swisher honored her son, Ronald, with a birthday party Friday afternoon, July the nineteenth, at Moore park on the occasion of his seventh birthday.

After several hours of games, ice cream and cake were served to Mrs. M. L. Miller, grandmother of Ronald, Bobby Hollister, Mrs. Harold Prather and children, Don, Betty and Bonnie, Joyce Graham, Jackie Moore, Joe Sarver and Mildred Miller.

MRS. A. P. HEUP

Theatre Party Given In Honor Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany whose marriage to Mr. Jack Crawford will be an event of August the twelfth, Miss Elizabeth Anderson and Miss Cleo Champagne presided as co-hostesses at a theatre party on Tuesday evening, July the twenty-third.

Later in the evening the guests adjourned to Miss Anderson's home on Alameda street where Miss Bathiany was showered with gifts of lovely towels. The packages were cleverly arranged on a miniature altar which was the center of the decorative motif.

Honoring the bride-elect were Mrs. Ralph Waggoner, Mrs. Ruth Olds Bathiany, Miss Betty Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Gallagher, Miss Hazel Herreld, Miss Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Clara Jester, Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz, Miss Francis Berry and the hostesses.

GIRLS HOSTESSES TO SCOUTS AT SCAVENGERS HUNT

The Camp Fire Girls attending summer camp at Kasta, Lake o' the Woods, entertained the Boy Scouts of Camp McLaughlin Wednesday evening, July the twenty-fourth.

Following arrival of the guests there was a general assembly and groups were numbered for a scavenger hunt at the end of which a box of homemade candy was presented to the winners.

All the teams gathered at camp fire after the hunt when Bill Case, Boy Scout song leader, led in singing and refreshments of punch and doughnuts were served the hundred and seventy participants.

Miss Lola Marie Whisenant left Friday for Bend to join her grandmother, Mrs. O. M. Whittington, and Mrs. Whittington for a week's vacation trip to Seaside.

FOUR MAIDS VISIT IN EAST

Miss Barbara Johnson, Miss Ora Lea Vannice and Misses Carolyn and Marie Collier have been guests for the past several days at the Barbizon Plaza in New York City, according to cards received here by relatives and friends.

The four girls who left about two weeks ago are on an interesting trip throughout the United States and visited in several of the large cities en route east to Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and New York. They will return home via the northern route in August.

The Misses Collier are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, Miss Vannice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice of Mt. Vernon, Washington, and Miss Johnson is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson of this city.

Couple Will Wed Sunday

Olds Home To Be Setting for Lovely Ceremony Here

An outstanding event of the mid-summer season will be Sunday afternoon, July the twenty-eighth, when the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robert Olds, and Mr. Robert O'Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Sullivan, will be solemnized at the Olds' home on South Riverside.

The hour of the wedding has been set for four o'clock and only a small group of intimate friends will be present besides members of the families of the bride and groom. Following a wedding trip the young couple will make their home in this city where Mr. O'Sullivan is affiliated with the United States National bank.

MRS. ERDMANN HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Leroy Erdmann was hostess to her bridge club at her home in the Alexandra apartments Wednesday evening, July the nineteenth, at a dainty dessert bridge.

A color motif was cleverly carried out in red and blue. Boat-shaped vases of blue held red candles and the colors were also carried out in the tallies.

The award for high was received by Mrs. William Van Buskirk, the traveling by Mrs. O. K. Puckett and for bingo, Mrs. Lloyd Porter. Others enjoying the evening were Miss Mildred Crawford, Mrs. John Gates, Mrs. Don Harlan, Mrs. J. Oren Nichols and the hostess.

SOCIAL CLUB CHANGES NAME TO COMPEERS

The Compeers club of the First Christian church met Wednesday afternoon, July the twenty-fourth, at the home of Mrs. Clarence S. Robertson on Lincoln street. A lawn party was enjoyed by the group.

The regular business meeting was held and members re-named their club, formerly the Young Ladies' Social club. The club has two advisors, Mrs. Charles A. Bates and Mrs. Clarence S. Robertson, newly-elected. Plans were made for a skating party for Friday afternoon, August the second, at Poole's Rollerdom.
