

MRS. JOHN CRAWFORD, the former Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany, was a charming bride of Monday, August the twelfth, in a ceremony read in St. Paul's Episcopal church at one o'clock in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride's dark beauty was enhanced by the quaint wedding gown worn by her mother, Mrs. Harry William Bathiany, and a lovely old veil, an heirloom in the family of her aunt, Mrs. Francis Robert Olds.

Vows Exchanged In St. Paul's Church

Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany Lovely In Mother's Gown When She Weds John Crawford

Before an altar banked with lovely white gladioli, and lighted with tall white tapers, Miss Ruth Mary Bathiany, daughter of Mrs. Harry William Bathiany and the late Mr. Bathiany, and Mr. John Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford, exchanged vows in a one o'clock ceremony read Monday afternoon, August the twelfth in St. Paul's Episcopal church. Rev. Victor E. Newman read the service.

Just before the ceremony the bride's aunt, Mrs. Francis Robert Olds, sang, "Because," with Mrs. Raymond Coopey at the organ. Mrs. Coopey also played the traditional processional and recessional marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Robert Bathiany, was radiant in her mother's wedding gown of brocaded white crepe with insets of ivory velvet and seed pearls. A beautiful lace veil, an heirloom in Mrs. Olds' family and used by generations of brides, was worn by the lovely bride. The veil was caught at the crown with a small coronet of seed pearls. A white prayer book, which she carried, held streamers of white satin ribbon and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan, (Elizabeth Gallagher) cousin of the bride, who wore delphinium blue net made with a small bodice, puffed sleeves, and full skirt with bands of matching lace. On her hair Mrs. O'Sullivan wore a wreath of pink carnation hearts which held in place a small blue net veil. Her flowers were fashioned into a small Colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds, lilies-of-the-valley and forget-me-nots.

Mr. John Merryman was best man.

Ushers were Mr. Dalton Henderson, Mr. Darrell Miller, and Mr. Robert Chilcote.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the wedding guests, made up of members of both families and a small group of intimate friends, was held in the parish house. A profusion of white gladioli was used throughout the room and for the mantle decorations. The bride's table, covered with a white brocaded organdie cloth, was centered with two wedding cakes made in the shape of bells and on which were written the names of the bride and groom. Yellow rosebuds and white bouvardia were placed about each cake which was cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Lloyd Prock, sister of the groom.

Mrs. Olds presided at the punch bowl, and assisting about the room was Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver. In charge of the guest book was Miss Betty Crawford, sister of the groom.

Receiving with the young couple were Mrs. Bathiany and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford. Mrs. Bathiany chose a light blue print for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Crawford was in a navy figured sheer costume. Both wore corsages of white gardenias.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left for Odell lake to spend a fortnight at the Olds summer home. For traveling the bride wore a suit of dusty pink wool with a corsage of roses. They will be at home after September the first at 505 North Ninth street.

Numerous affairs were given for the young couple before their marriage which was one of the highlights of the late summer. Both are active in affairs of the younger set and Mrs. Crawford shared many parties with the season's popular brides-elect.

Miss Roma Priester Weds Mr. Thomas

Young Couple Exchange Vows in Historic Old Mining Town in Nevada, August Fourth

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Roma Priester of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Priester of Davenport, Iowa, to Mr. Gerald D. C. Thomas of Klamath Falls.

Their wedding was an event of ten o'clock Sunday morning, August the fourth, in Virginia City, Nevada. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will be at home after September the first, at 833 Eldorado street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Phillip Lee of this city attended the couple and the ceremony was read in the historic old mining town by Mr. J. R. Polard. Later the party enjoyed a motor trip to Reno, Lake Tahoe and Carson City.

The bride was attractive in a blue and white print ensemble with a matching turban of white.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left this weekend for Portland where they will be the guests of Mr. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Thomas.

Portland Visitors

Merryman Entertain Visitors At Summer Home

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merryman have had as their guests this past week Mrs. E. Burke Tongue and son, Robert, well known Portland residents. During their stay here the visitors have been guests at the Merryman summer home at Lake o' the Woods where an informal luncheon was given for Mrs. Tongue on Thursday, a group motoring from Klamath Falls for the party.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Shaffer of San Marino, California, were recent guests of the Merrymans from their home in the south and also enjoyed a stay at the lake. The Shaffers' son, Dr. Robert N. Shaffer of San Francisco, and Dr. George H. Merryman, Jr., were roommates at Pomona college during their years at school.

Greeted by old friends here this past week was Mr. Tom Dixon of Great Falls, Montana, who was a guest at the McCartney, Lamm and Merryman homes.

WEDDING OF COUPLE IN NORTH TOLD

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Karl Dyrud are sending them best wishes with the announcement of their marriage which was an event of June the seventh in Vancouver, Washington. Mrs. Dyrud is the former Vera Pearson of this city and for a number of years art teacher at Fremont school.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Wagner of Portland were attendants for the couple. The bride had returned recently from an interesting motor trip to Mexico City accompanied by Miss Lilian Redkey, Miss Emilie Halldeman, both of this city, and Miss Rose Halldeman of Cottage Grove.

Dr. and Mrs. Dyrud are now at home at 1536 California avenue. Dr. Dyrud came here several years ago from Ashland and is a graduate of the North Pacific Dental college.

SUPPER PARTY GIVEN SATURDAY AT ANDERSON'S

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goeckner of Yakima, Washington, who were recent visitors here at the home of Mrs. Goeckner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson of the Merrill highway, entertained a group of friends with a supper party at the Anderson home Saturday evening. Later the guests danced at Cal-Ore tavern.

Supper guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pieser.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay entertained with a cocktail party Thursday evening at their home on Manzanita street in honor of the Goeckners who left early this week for their home in Yakima.

WEDNESDAY CLUB TO SPONSOR RUMMAGE SALE

One of the surest signs of fall is the rummage sale, and members of Wednesday club received announcements of the annual two-day sale to be held this year on Friday and Saturday, September the sixth and seventh, the place to be announced later.

The executive committee is making plans for the sale and urges members to collect fruit jars, curtains, dishes, rugs, shoes, newspapers, magazines, books, luggage, furniture, stockings and clothing of all sorts for the event.

The first meeting of Wednesday club will be held Wednesday evening, September the fourth, in St. Paul's Episcopal church parish house.

Boise Visitors In Klamath Falls

Among the interesting out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls this week are Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Bauman of Boise, Idaho, who are houseguests of Mrs. Bauman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Cleve of Lindley Heights. A number of delightful affairs have been planned for the pleasure of the Baumans during their stay. From Klamath Falls the visitors plan to motor to the San Francisco fair, and later visit in Salt Lake City.

Weed Show Of Interest

Seeds, Grasses Also To Be Featured At Exhibit

Of interest to women of the city who spend many hours arranging flowers for their homes is the forthcoming weed show which will stress the arrangements of weeds, seeds and grasses. The show is sponsored by the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club and will be held in the small club rooms of the city library on Monday, August the twenty-sixth from half past two until half past four o'clock.

A cordial invitation has been issued to the public to attend and see the many arrangements which will be on display. Anyone wishing to make an entry may also do so, it was learned.
