Many at Picnic — Between 500 and 600 persons attended the annual district Knights of Columbus picnic at the Union Creek campground Sunday. Bend was the attendance prize for the third consecutive year. Marie Willis of Bend was chosen Queen of the Cascades, and her attendants included four Klamath Falls girls. Playful Smith, Patricia Sexton, Norma Earnest and Dorothy Lemminger. An open air mass was celebrated during the day by Rev. Father William Conaghan, Bend. In the softball double header played in the afternoon Klamath Falls won, beating Bend 11 to 4, and Medford 5 to 0.

Dies in South — Word of the death of Janet Young, 50-year-old University of Oregon actress who died Wednesday of last week in Los Angeles, was received here this week. Miss Young was known in Klamath Falls where she played on several occasions with the Moroni Olsen players. Later she achieved fame in Hollywood as a supporting actress and also played with Lillian Gish and in the Eugene O'Neill success, "Mourning Becomes Electra." Miss Young had relatives in Ashland and Portland. Hites were held in Forest Lawn Memorial park.

Visitors — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and family of Bakerfield, Calif., are visiting here as the guests of Mrs. Mike Galarnena and family. Allen and Mrs. Galarnena are cousins. This is the first visit Allen has made to Klamath Falls in 33 years and he remarked on the great change in the city as well as surrounding country. It was Allen's opinion that "Klamath is the most prosperous looking section" he has seen.

From Portland — A guest in the city this past week has been Jane Meek, daughter of Mrs. Norma Meek of Portland, who has visited with Peggy Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker, 1815 Erie street. The girls left for Lakeview Wednesday to visit friends and sorority sisters.

BARTENDERS ASK "DRY" SUNDAYS

FRESNO, Calif., Aug. 21 (AP) — A dry Sunday movement blossomed in Fresno today, and its source was not the WCTU but the bartenders' union. Fresno county supervisors received a resolution from the union advocating closure of bars and halting of liquor sales on Sunday, in the interest of "driving all abuses" from the industry.

GEARY HEADS SALES GROUP IN 4-H SHOW

Ed Geary, Klamath county rancher and seed grower, has been named chairman of the livestock sales committee by T. B. Walters, general chairman of the Rotary club committee for the junior livestock show in which several hundred boys and girls, members of the 4-H clubs and Future Farmers of America will participate September 22 to 24.

YAKIMA HOLDS MAN ON LOCAL CHARGES

Jack Burrows, alias Jack Holmes, 48, former Klamath Falls sausage maker wanted here to face a forgery charge, was arrested Monday by Yakima, Wash., authorities and will be extradited immediately. Sheriff Lloyd Low said Tuesday.

Burrows is also wanted in Shoshone, Ida., and in Gooding county, Idaho, Low said, on similar charges.

The fugitive allegedly passed a check for $25 to the Farmers Lumber company on April 29, 1940.

Burrows formerly operated a sausage plant on South Sixth street, Low said.

SPARKS BLAMED FOR FUEL FIRE AT BIG LAKES

Sparks from the Big Lakes Box company burner were thought responsible for a fire which broke out in the fuel bin early Tuesday night and the city fire department responded to a call at 8:09 p. m. to extinguish the flames. The truck returned to the fire hall within 27 minutes and firemen reported no damage.

Three grass fire calls were answered Tuesday afternoon, the first at 3 p. m. in the vicinity of Broad and Oak streets, the second at 3:46 p. m., and the third at 4:05 p. m., both in the area near Spring and Oak streets. No damage was reported.
