

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

GREETED IN KLAMATH FALLS this week was Miss Lisbeth Daggett of Prineville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett, and former residents of this city. She was the guest of Miss Virginia Bubb, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb. Several parties were given for Lisbeth during her stay.

—Picture by Bill Jenkins of The Herald and News.

CHARMING GROUP OF COUSINS, snapped at play in the garden at the E. A. Geary home this past week. Seated on the lawn, left to right, Susan and Dorothea Geary, and above, Alice and Richard Geary. The very fine dog is "Kerry" Richard. Susan and Dorothea are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geary of Portland, and guests of cousin Alice, daughter of the E. A. Gearys.

—Picture by Bill Jenkins of The Herald and News.

In the August Whirl

MRS. RICHARD REEVES of Lebanon, Oregon, the former Miss Margaret Cummings of this city, will return north this weekend after a stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Cummings of Washington street.

—Picture by Bill Jenkins of The Herald and News.

CHARMING MID-AUGUST BRIDE was Miss Frances Taylor Berry, daughter of the S. R. Berrys, who became Mrs. Donald Lee Golding in a ceremony read at the family home Sunday afternoon, August the eighteenth. The Goldings are now honeymooning in British Columbia and will be at home in the Audley apartments after September the first.

—Kennell-Ellis.

FROM THE CITY OF PORTLAND comes Miss Jane Meek (left), who has been the houseguest of her sorority sister, Miss Peggy Rakestraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw. The girls are members of Alpha Chi Omega and motored to Lakeview to visit friends recently.

—Picture by Bill Jenkins of The Herald and News.