

Library Club Fall Flower Show Slated

Calling Committee Busy Making Reservations for Luncheon at Willard Hotel September Ninth

Important on the September social calendar is the annual fall flower show and luncheon to be given by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, Monday the ninth, and officially opening the year's programs which are so much anticipated by women of the city. Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, president of the club, will preside. Announcement of the 1940-41 schedule will be made by Mrs. A. G. Proctor, program chairman.

Mrs. E. D. Hamacher is luncheon chairman, and the following women have assisted as members of the calling committee: Mrs. Willard Constans, Mrs. H. R. Coulam, Mrs. S. D. Earhart, Mrs. D. C. Gregg, Mrs. Glenn Hunt, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, Mrs. L. N. Huls, Mrs. T. C. Griggs, Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mrs. T. H. Reeves, Mrs. Marvin Nerseth of Chiloquin, Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse of Algoma, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor of Merrill, Mrs. Margo Johnson of Tulelake, Mrs. E. Isenelson of Dorris, and Mrs. W. E. Lamm of Modoc Point.

Schedules for the flower show, which reached interested persons last week, were prepared by Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. F. D. Lamb and Mrs. T. B. Watters.

Scouting committee members were Mrs. William Scott and Mrs. Jerry Ricker. Registration: Mrs. K. G. Cummings, general chairman, Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mrs. Warren Hunt and Mrs. Perry Wells.

Staging is being done by Mrs. E. D. Lamb, chairman, who will have charge of show arrangements. Table arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse, and specimens, Mrs. Walter West.

Placing committee: Mrs. G. A. Krause, general chairman, Mrs. C. C. Kelley, Mrs. William W. McNeely, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. H. R. Perrin, Mrs. W. H. McPherson and Miss Marie McMillan.

Corsages, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton and Mrs. Roy L. Browne. They are being assisted by Mrs. B. N. Akard, Mrs. C. H. Palmer and Mrs. W. R. Hibbs.

Mrs. Horace E. Getz, flower show chairman, has worked diligently preparing plans for the show which should be one of great beauty. Mrs. Getz has asked all those who plan to enter in the various divisions, that they study their schedules and especially in the specimen division. Mrs. Getz pointed out the inadvisability of including one more, or one less, specimen, as each would be as quickly disqualified as the other. The proper number must be included.

During the luncheon hour Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, announced numbers would be presented by Miss Barbara Johnson, talented young Klamath Falls pianist. Miss Johnson will play, "Mandolita," by Saint-Saens, and "Nocturne," by Chopin.

A general board meeting of the library club will be held Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the small clubrooms of the city library with Mrs. Hornbrook presiding.

BRIDE-ELECT HONOR GUEST MONDAY NIGHT

Young people of the First Covenant church honored Miss Iris Lindberg with an informal party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Karin Carlson on Jefferson street. Host for the evening was Mr. Erik Carlson. The bride-elect was presented with a blue chenille bedspread from the group.

Present were Miss Lindberg and her fiancé, Mr. Vergil Nelson, Miss Martha Eastman, Miss Eva Rae Jacobson, Miss Gerda Persson, Miss Dorothy Baile, Miss Dorothy Currier, Miss Marilyn Lomborg, Miss Phyllis Anderson, Miss Nell Lindberg, Rev. and Mrs. Gottfred Anderson, Miss Brita Strid, Mr. William Bickers, Mr. Fred Reinoldson, Mr. Wendell Currier, Mr. Clifford Froid, Mr. Wilbur Anderson, Mr. Erik Carlson and Mrs. Carlson.

ANW CLUB TO HAVE MEETING SEPTEMBER 4

Schedule Course Here

Girl Scout Official To Work With Leaders In City

Mrs. Lucille Henderson of Seattle, former member of the national branch of Girl Scouts, will arrive in Klamath Falls Tuesday, September the third, and conduct a training course here.

Mrs. Henderson is called the itinerant director for the month of September and the purpose of her visit is not only for training of those heads of Girl Scout work, but all leaders and troop committee members are urged to avail themselves of the course.

There will be a special council meeting at the chamber of commerce Wednesday, September the fourth, at ten o'clock in the morning, the purpose to outline with Mrs. Henderson the program for the coming month. Persons are asked to watch for further announcements.

EASTERN STAR MAKES PLANS FOR MEETING

Mrs. Earl J. Templar, worthy matron of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, and Mr. Lloyd Robinson, worthy patron, will preside at the regular meeting of the chapter to be held Tuesday evening, September the tenth, at eight o'clock, in the Masonic hall.

Mrs. Ted E. Shoop, program chairman for the meeting, is arranging a program of music, dancing and readings, details of which will be announced next week.

Mrs. Leo N. Huls will serve as chairman of the refreshment committee for the evening. This will be the first meeting following the July and August vacation period.

Stewart Groesbeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck of North Ninth street, left Thursday for the University of California. Stewart is a senior student in engineering and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Mrs. George Gwyn will entertain the members of the Jolly Eight club at her home on South Riverside on the afternoon of September the second at two o'clock when it is urged that all members be present.

SNAPPED AT THE WEED SHOW

Mrs. E. V. Hawley of Modesto, California, houseguest of Mrs. Almo Newton of Tulelake, snapped by the cameraman as she admired an arrangement of false dandelion, entry of Mrs. William Scott. Mrs. Hawley made several interesting nature scenes during her talk on flowers before members of the garden group of the Library club at the weed show Monday.

Program Is Announced

Soroptimists To Hear Mrs. Henderson at Thursday Meet

The final quarter of the club year for Soroptimists will open Thursday, September the fifth, when the weekly luncheons will be resumed at the Willard hotel and there will be a program meeting with Mrs. Lucille Henderson, of Seattle, a national figure in Girl Scouting, as guest speaker, and with Mrs. W. E. Lamm as program hostess.

The annual picnic of the club was held at Union creek Sunday, August the twenty-fifth, with forty in attendance. Under the direction of Mrs. Gwendolyn Wright, chairman of the social committee, that committee assumed the responsibility for the success of the day. A surprise feature was the box luncheon which replaced the usual type of luncheon with Mrs. Wright in charge, ably assisted by Mrs. Effie Garcelon and Mrs. Ed Young. Miss Catherine Gaylord prepared the games which were efficiently managed by Mrs. Sylvia McClelland. An equal amount of money was distributed to each person, but clever games succeeded in so changing the distribution of the wealth of the community that when it was announced that anyone expecting to participate in the lunch would be expected to purchase his box at auction some found themselves with few funds for purchasing. However, it turned out that this was a charitable organization and no one was allowed to go hungry. Pasted to the top of each box was a clever little verse beginning "Within this box I have a hunch, you will find the makings for a picnic lunch," followed by full directions, indicating that at a cafeteria table not far away would be found baked ham, a warm entree, and the trimmings. In the box the participants found all the other necessities for a good dinner.

The final round-table luncheon was held Thursday afternoon with ten Soroptimists present. Mrs. Pearl Jane Young of the Stockton club was a visitor. Mrs. Young, an artist, is sketching various points of interest during her visit here.

A meeting of the Soroptimist board will be held in the office of the president at 116 North Eighth street on Tuesday evening, September the third at half past seven o'clock.

Former Residents Visit From North

Mr. and Mrs. William Ruonich and daughter, Shirley, have returned to their home in Oregon City after being the house guests for the past week of Mr. Ruonich's brother, Lawrence Ruonich. They are former residents of this city.

On Tuesday evening they were dinner guests at the W. B. Hendrickson home when other guests included Emma Delitz of San Pedro, California and Mrs. H. E. Cornell.

Honored On Anniversary

Occasion Enjoyably Observed at Redman Home Saturday

Observing the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Redman, a group of their friends brought a pot-luck supper to the Redman's lakeside home, 803 Front street, the evening of August the twenty-fourth.

Preceding the supper hour, a short ceremony repeated several features of the original ceremony such as the use of goldenrod for decorations, the singing of "I Love and the World is Mine," Johns, by Mrs. S. Meade Badger; Nevins' "Venetian Love Song," a piano number by Miss Miriam Smyth, sister of the "bride," who had also played at the wedding twenty-five years ago. Wearing the white frock which was her wedding gown, Mrs. Redman entered upon the arm of her husband at the close of the musical numbers and stood before Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church, who, in a ceremony both entertaining and impressive, joined the couple in matrimony for another twenty-five years. He then presented to them, as a gift from the group, a beautiful silver tray.

Supper was served on the terrace above the Redman home, overlooking the lake. At this time Mrs. Smyth, the mother of Mrs. Redman, read the newspaper account of the wedding which took place in Eureka, Kansas where both Mr. and Mrs. Redman were born and reared. An item of interest was the fact that the date was also the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Smyth.

Guests for this occasion included the families of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, Mr. and Mrs. John Yaden, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. S. Meade Badger, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger, Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy and Mrs. William Slough.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS TO MEET SOON

The first meeting of the year for members of Court Klamath, Catholic Daughters of America, will be held Monday evening, September the ninth, at eight o'clock in the parish hall.

Grand Regent Lenore Gallagher makes a special request that all Daughters attend the program as important plans for the coming year will be discussed.

Mrs. W. C. Strong and Miss Frances Lee McMullen are enjoying a short vacation trip to California, visiting at numerous points including the Golden Gate exposition.

The bride was attractive in a blue costume suit with a delicate pink lace blouse and dark blue accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. For something borrowed, she wore a beautiful brooch loaned by her friend, Miss Isabelle Thayer, who was also the only attendant. Miss Thayer wore a black suit with black and white accessories.

Mr. Lee Real, brother of the bride, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a brief trip to Odell lake by way of Crater lake and Diamond lake.

The bride is a member of a well known Klamath county family and was graduated from the University of Oregon with the class of 1938. Mr. Barnes is also a member of pioneer Klamath and Lake county families and is affiliated with the Union Oil company. Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will be at home at 914 Lincoln street.

Present at the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sutton and daughter Carmelita, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Sutton and daughter Phyllis, Mrs. Vera Real, Isabelle Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackmer and son Loren, Mr. and Mrs. John Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Britton, Bill Byser, Ed Taylor, Nancy Boyd, Lorraine Larson, Mr. and Mrs. R.
