TWIN ROUNDUP SUNDAY EVENT

The First Christian church and Bible school is conducting a twin round-up this Sunday, September 15. More than 40 sets of twins have received special invitations to be present for this occasion. A general invitation is hereby extended to all twins in the city and county to enjoy this round-up at the First Christian church next Sunday. Prizes will be given for the youngest and oldest sets as well as for other features.

The special meetings under the leadership of Rev. Walter Ficus, evangelist, and Ned James Whitaker, song director, are drawing good crowds. "The evangelist's sermons are dynamic presentations of scriptural truths backed up with wonderful array of scriptural quotations," says the pastor, Arthur Charles Bates. James Whitaker read the 26th chapter of Matthew last evening from memory. This is one of the interesting and helpful features of these meetings. Tonight he will read the 26th chapter of Acts—Paul's great defense before King Agrippa.

These meetings will continue through this week and over Sunday only, closing on Sunday evening. Members of the church are quite anxious that all, who can possibly attend, hear these evangelists during these closing nights of the revival.
