BUSINESS WOMEN MAKE DONATION

With a unanimous send-off for the National Guard, the executive board of the Business and Professional Women's club held its first official meeting of the year Tuesday, September the tenth, at the home of its president, Mrs. Flo-Ann Eaton.

Pledging twenty-five dollars toward the establishment of a permanent mess fund reserve for the National Guard, the board made an appropriate start on its 1940-41 program.

Chief among the claims of the club for the coming year, is an intensive study of the position of the business woman in a democracy, which includes an approach to the problem of propaganda and intelligent voting, women's place in a nation-wide emergency, her place generally in the world of business.

Besides the more serious business of an educational program, a number of interesting fun and social programs were outlined, among them a silver tea for the mess fund benefit. New members of the executive board were announced as follows: Mrs. Hilda Park, chairman music and arts; Dorothy Grossman, chairman, education; Kathleen Livingston, chairman, publicity.

Past Matrons To Meet Friday

The Past Matrons club will meet for a one o'clock no-hostess luncheon at the Masonic temple Friday afternoon, September the twenty-seventh, with Mrs. Glenn Kent acting as chairman of arrangements. Election of new officers will take place during the business hour, followed by bridge.

Guild Plans First Party

Hostesses Named for Dessert Bridge On September 26th

Members of St. Paul's guild met Thursday, September the twelfth, at the parish hall for a delightful potluck luncheon. Greetings were extended by the president, Mrs. Robert Henry Anderson, who presided during the business hour.

Plans were made for their first social function of the year, a dessert bridge to be given Thursday, September the twenty-sixth, at one o'clock at the parish hall. A cordial invitation is extended to all women of the church to attend this affair including newcomers who have not as yet affiliated with any organization of the church.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be the newly elected officers of the guild, Mrs. Anderson, president; Mrs. W. J. Morgan, vice president; Mrs. A. C. Listoe, secretary; Mrs. Leroy Tyrrell, treasurer; Mrs. Don Stansell, custodian of united thankoffering boxes, and Mrs. Victor Newman, wife of the rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Assisting will be Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Bertha Morgan and Mrs. Jack Kimball, a new member of the guild.

Mrs. Thomas Hampton will be in charge of prizes and the tallies will be furnished by Miss Hazel Morrison and Mrs. Don Stansell.

Mrs. Stansell urges all who have thank offering boxes to return them at this meeting.

Mrs. J. V. Schmidt of Grants Pass was a guest of the afternoon.

CALIFORNIANS VISIT EN ROUTE HOME FROM NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Montgomery and daughter, Mary Lou, of San Jose, California, passed through Klamath Falls on Monday, stopping for a brief visit with friends en route from Hood River where they attended the wedding of Mr. Montgomery's youngest sister, Miss Mabel Montgomery, to Mr. George White, also of Hood River, solemnized at high noon Saturday, September the fourteenth, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. R. Addington.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. B. W. Montgomery, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles Kenneman of Yakima, Washington, as matron of honor, Miss Mary Lou Montgomery as bridesmaid and little Bettie Jane Kenneman was the flower girl. Mr. Allyn Price of Seattle acted as best man. The ceremony was followed by a prettily appointed luncheon at the home of the bride's mother.

MISS ANDERSON COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Victor Vehring entertained Tuesday evening with a bridge party and shower honoring Miss Elizabeth Anderson, bride-elect of Mr. Myron Shannon, whose marriage will be an event of late September.

Mrs. Howard Hosken received the award for high score at the close of bridge. Those honoring Miss Anderson besides the hostess were Mrs. Wayne Truxal, Mrs. John Fevoro, Miss Lois Cassel, Mrs. Carroll Colvin, Mrs. Howard Hosken and Miss Jo Hessig.

Delphians To Meet Tuesday

The home of Mrs. K. G. Cummings on Washington street has been selected as the place of meeting for the Delta Gamma chapter of Delphians to be held Tuesday morning, September the twenty-fourth, at a quarter to ten o'clock. The leader will be Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver and the subject will be "The Individual: His Endowments and Formative Experiences."

Miss Schneider Recent Bride

Attractive Klamath Girl Exchanges Vows In Church Rites

A lovely bride of mid-September was Miss Marion Schneider, daughter of Mrs. Michael Schneider of Batia, North Dakota, who exchanged vows with Mr. James Cronon, son of Mr. F. D. Cronon of this city, in an eight o'clock nuptial mass read in Sacred Heart church Monday morning, September the sixteenth. The Rev. Father T. P. Casey officiated.

The bride was attractive in an afternoon frock of wine silk with darker wine accessories. Her bouquet was of rapture rosebuds, bouvardia, and gardenia.

Mrs. Norman Moty, the bride's only attendant, wore moss green crepe with black accessories. Her bouquet was fashioned of talisman rosebuds.

Mr. Norman Moty was best man.

Ushers were Mr. Anthony Schneider, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ralph Crawford. Mr. Warren Cronon, brother of the groom, played the processional and recessional, and also the music during the mass.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Pelican cafe where covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. James Cronon, The Rev. Father T. P. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moty, Mr. F. D. Cronon, Mr. Ralph Crawford, Mr. Anthony Schneider, and Mr. Warren Cronon.

The young couple left in the evening for San Francisco to enjoy a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a costume suit of soldier blue with wine accessories, and a gardenia corsage. Upon their return they will make their home on Sargent street.

FRIENDS HONOR JACK NAPIER AT DINNER

As a farewell courtesy to Mr. Jack Napier, a second lieutenant in the National Guard, who is leaving for camp the fore part of the week, a few of his friends gathered for a no-host dinner party which was held last Saturday evening.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. Napier, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bullis, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Linville, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Miss Connell Napier, Miss Kay Dunbar, Miss Ruth Ann McAllister, Mr. Reginald Ashworth and Mr. Bob Napier.

Messages of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill over the passing of her mother, Mrs. Nathan Selig, well known Salem matron, on Sunday evening, September the fifteenth. Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill returned from Salem Thursday.

CHARMING CO-ED

Going back to school with other members of the younger set is attractive Barbara Bigger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bigger, 1419 Canby street. Miss Bigger will resume her studies at Oregon State college where she is affiliated with Sigma Kappa. She will leave Sunday for Corvallis.

Luncheon Served

Art Needle Work Club Enjoys Affair Wednesday

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin and Mrs. George Chastain were hostesses to members of the Art Needle Work club at the Martin home, Wednesday, at a one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Martin is club president for the ensuing year.

Twenty-one members and guests were seated at the beautifully appointed table, centered with a low bowl of pompon dahlias from the home gardens.

Mrs. Rufus Moore showed a book which recently came into her possession, entitled, "H. H. Bancroft's Hand-Book Almanac for the Pacific States, published 1864." This book listed each county in the different states and territories, also officers and postmasters serving in 1864. Under Wasco county, Oregon, we read: "A military post has been established in the Klamath Lake county, called Fort Klamath."

In the list of Oregon postmasters was this notation: "Fort Klamath—No Postoffice; Lieut. Colonel C. S. Drew, Commanding Officer." Many names familiar to all pioneers and descendants of pioneers were found in the list of officers for state, county and city offices.

Members present at the meeting were: Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Samuel Edward Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. R. H. Friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Laura Willits has been confined to her home on Klamath avenue with illness for the past several weeks.

Mrs. B. A. Purcell, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Olive Wells, and her mother, is visiting in Sacramento with friends for several days.

Travel Talks To Be Given

Members Toastmistress Club To Choose Own Topics

Although Chesterfield said, "The world is a country which nobody ever yet knew by description; one must travel through it oneself to be acquainted with it" members of the Toastmistress club will endeavor to share with each other something of the unusual of their travels by descriptions during the dinner hour discussion Monday evening, September the twenty-third, in the Spanish room of the Elk hotel.

The toastmistress of the evening, Mrs. Paul Buck, will call upon each member in the program to follow the dinner hour, who will respond with a three-minute talk on her favorite topic. Much interest has been expressed as to inclinations to be revealed by members of the club as they speak on subjects of their own selection.

The meeting night of the Toastmistress club has been changed to the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Women interested in obtaining more information on the club are invited to call the president, Mrs. A. J. Voye.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB ORGANIZES PLANS ACTIVITIES

The Catholic Young People's club was organized Tuesday evening, September the seventeenth, with a large number attending and officers appointed for the year were: Albert Werner, president; Margaret Brochtrup, secretary; Frances Ballin, treasurer.

The meeting date for the club was set as the fourth Thursday of each month. It was announced that no dues will be charged.

ALOHA OES PLANS MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

Templar, worthy matron, and Mr. Lloyd Robinson, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members to attend the regular meeting of Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held Tuesday evening, September the twenty-fourth, at eight o'clock at the Masonic hall.

There will be initiation ceremonies and also a memorial service honoring the memory of the late Mrs. Mary Christy and the late Mrs. Lulu B. Schultz. Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

HAS BIRTHDAY

Little Carol Rae Dingman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dingman of 1812 Worden avenue, observed her fifth birthday on September the nineteenth.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Daughters Have Meet

Catholic Women Will Hear Talk By Red Cross Chairman

The first business meeting of the fall was held by the Catholic Daughters on Monday evening, September the ninth, with an attendance of over fifty. Plans for fall activities were discussed and delicious refreshments were served by the committee. A very special treat has been promised for September the twenty-third by the committee chairman, Lauretta Bryant, who has asked the Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Ann McDonald, to arrange for an interesting talk to be given by Mrs. C. S. Elliot, production chairman of the Red Cross here in the city.

Mrs. Elliot will give an outline of the work being done by the local Red Cross and will explain fully just how the work is laid out for each one to do, how it is handled after being completed and the various steps taken till it reaches its destination. Mrs. Marshall Farmer, sub chairman of the knitting, will show samples of the various methods of knitting. A short program of musical numbers will be given during the evening. The evening promises to be one of the most interesting social events of the year and all members are urged to be in attendance.

After the program, Mrs. Lauretta Bryant and her assistants, Mrs. Bertha Bishop, Mrs. Mildred Buzaid, Mrs. Martha Coffey, Mrs. Ann Van Hoomissen and Miss Margaret Wells, will serve refreshments.
