

City Briefs

Meet Scheduled—Mrs. E. D. Lamb and Mrs. G. A. Krause will attend the meeting of the Medford Garden club Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 340 South Riverside avenue. Mrs. Lamb will show many interesting pictures which she has taken of flowers in their natural habitat, and both she and Mrs. Krause have spent a great deal of time photographing the rare and unusual flowers of Oregon. The two plan to motor to the valley by way of Annie Springs and enjoy the autumn foliage along the journey.

Visitors—Mrs. N. E. Butterfield of Washington D. C., accompanied by her two children, Earl Carver and Annie May, are visitors in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Bullis, 133 Hillside avenue. Mrs. Butterfield and family will remain here until Thursday. They have spent two months in Oregon, visiting most of that time with Mrs. Butterfield's family in Woodburn.

Boys Born—The one-legged bird swooped down on Klamath Valley hospital's nursery the last few days and left four parcels—each containing a boy baby. Not a girl in the lot, the stork observed. Sons were born to the S. H. Thompsons, route 3, box 517, city, and the Walter P. Dalrys of 914 Grant street, both on October 1, and to Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Cater, 2061 Wantland avenue, September 30, and to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lee Cooper of 825 Lincoln street.

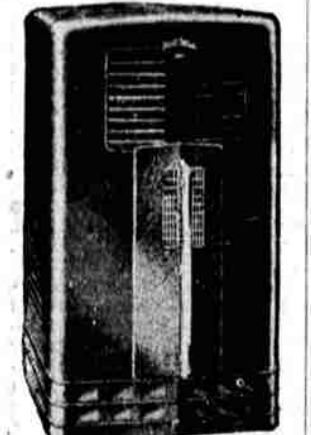

Leaves Hospital—James Shelton, 41, employed by Dalton and Evans, is reported greatly improved at Hillside hospital and was to be discharged some time Tuesday. Shelton suffered a gunshot wound through the chest while hunting Sunday afternoon with his wife in the Bryant mountain district.

Improving—Friends of Mrs. Jack Campbell, supervisor of the second floor at Hillside hospital, are interested to learn she is recovering nicely from a major operation to which she submitted recently.

EASY-CHAIR HOME HEATING SWEEPS NATION

AMAZING ESTATE OIL HEATROLA brings comfort and convenience of oil heat to tens of thousands

• Made by the originator of the cabinet home heater. Simple. Beautiful. Economical. Requires minimum of care and attention. Circulates clean, odorless warmth throughout the rooms. Come in. Learn how easily you can own a genuine Estate Oil Heatrola.

KLAMATH FURNITURE COMPANY
721 Main

In Washington—Mrs. Carl K. Cook, who spent the summer in Dunsmuir, Calif., where Cook was located with the U. S. forest service, is visiting for several months in Washington, D. C., at the home of her brother, Bruce Kerman, employed with the federal government as an engineer. Mrs. Cook hopes to return here before the Christmas holidays. Cook is making his home during her absence with R. M. Elder.

From the South—Betty Thomas, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas of Berkeley, Calif., is visiting at the William Dyche home. Miss Thomas is now working in the Triple A offices in San Francisco and is on a two weeks vacation. Also at the Dyche home is Mrs. B. F. DuFreane, (Margaret Dyche), visiting her parents from her home in Portland.

Gilchrist Accident—James McDonald, Cassel, Calif., orchestra leader, reported Monday he was involved in an accident one-half mile south of Gilchrist Sunday afternoon in which a car driven by Ben Harrington, Noti, Ore., figured. McDonald said Harrington's car came to a sudden stop in the center of the highway and his machine crashed into the rear end. McDonald's wife was slightly injured.

For Kansas City—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gardner, 629 Division street, are leaving this week for a trip to Kansas City, Kan., where they will visit Gardner's relatives. They also plan on stopping in New Mexico. They expect to be home around November 1.

Patrolman in Accident—Todd Knapp, 1738 Arthur street, a state policeman, reported that while patrolling on highway 66 Sunday morning a car ahead made a sudden left turn as he was about to pass, causing him to swerve suddenly to the right and into a ditch. He was not injured.

Hits Pedestrian—Dean E. McKay, route 1, box 984, reported to the sheriff's office Saturday that his car hit Mrs. Ann Hagador, 81, on South Sixth street Friday evening. McKay said the elderly woman stepped in front of his car near Idella's store.

Accident Near Bly—Archie Gordon, 425 Martin street, reported to the sheriff's office Monday that he was involved in a slight accident a mile and one-half west of Bly Saturday morning, in which George Gibson, 30, incurred minor injuries. Three cars were involved in the scrape.

Enjoy Trip—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl and son, Teddy, accompanied by their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haas of Minneapolis, Minn., returned Monday from a motor trip which took them to Eugene where they visited Dick Igl, student at the University of Oregon, and later the Oregon and northern California coast points.

From Bly—Harry Obenchain, Bly rancher, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Do You Wish To Know How:
To Get Rid of Self Consciousness?
To Talk Freely and Forcefully When Called Upon?
To Think Of The Right Word At The Right Time?
To Preside As Hostess With Ease and Grace?
To Develop Self-Confidence Under All Conditions?
To Eliminate From Your Speech Such Words as "awfully," "gorgeous," "swell," etc.
OTHERS HAVE DONE IT! THE ART OF PUBLIC SPEAKING IS NOT A 'GIFT'

It is acquired through: A knowledge of the correct organization of a talk, clear concise enunciation, voice control, vocabulary drill and practice before class groups.
YOU WILL GAIN
A sense of freedom and well-being.
Success in sales work.
Success in personal and social activities.
OPPORTUNITIES will unfold for you.
THROUGH:
A Course In Public Speaking and Personal Development
Beginning Thurs., Oct. 3, at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce
323 Main
At this time the Method of Instruction will be explained and a brief outline of each lesson presented.
First Lesson FREE to the Public.
MYRTLE HIBBARD
Instructor Phone 4254

New Citizens Take Oath

Picture taken in circuit courtroom as 29 new citizens took the oath Monday after successfully passing final examinations. Lewis P. Crosby, deputy county clerk, in foreground, is administering the oath. Circuit Judge E. B. Ashurst at upper right.

Clendenings Visit—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clendenings, former residents of Klamath Falls who now reside at Los Molinas, Calif., were recent visitors in the city and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hamilton on North Ninth street.

Returns South—Jack Hart left Sunday for Sacramento to resume his position in a bank of the California city after spending a ten-day vacation visiting here with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hamilton.

Guest in City—Mrs. Linnie Brennehan of Oakland, Calif., a former resident of this city who left here 23 years ago, is visiting here this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hamilton, and is greeting many of her old friends whom she hasn't seen for a number of years.

Klamath Sub-Debs—There will be a meeting of the Klamath Sub-Debs Wednesday night at 7:30 at the home of Patty Croup, 435 Jefferson. Every member is requested to be present.

Improving—The condition of Kenneth Stuart, Claremont hotel, was reported improved at Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday. Stuart was injured in an automobile crash which resulted in the death of Phillip Blackman of the Henley district early Sunday morning.

Doing Nicely—Mrs. Henry Hagedorn, 81, 2829 Kane street, was reported doing nicely at Hillside hospital where the elderly woman is a patient. Mrs. Hagedorn suffered a fractured arm and severe bruises Friday night when she was struck by a car while walking near Idella's store on South Sixth street.

On Vacation—"Red" Milhorn, member of the city police department, started his fortnight's vacation from duties Tuesday morning. Milhorn will hunt in the Lake country mountains.

Goes South—Mrs. Katherine G. Nelson, former district census supervisor, left Tuesday morning for San Francisco where she will visit with her mother for several weeks before returning here.

Return From Coast—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones have returned home after spending last week vacationing at the coast. Mrs. Jones also visited with her parents at Grants Pass for several days.

Improving—George Gibson, 133 Mortimer street, accident victim of Saturday morning, was reported improved Tuesday. Gibson has back injuries.

In Valley—Genevieve McGee of this city was the weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGee of Ashland.

Returns Home—M. W. Cosboom of Jefferson street, returned this weekend from Altadena, Calif., where he was the guest of his son, Claude. The latter spent a short time here hunting and fishing and was accompanied south by his father.

Visit Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jungwirth of Klamath Falls spent the past weekend in Ashland visiting friends and relatives.

In Ashland—Nan Goeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller, spent the weekend in Ashland with friends. Miss Goeller is a former student of Southern Oregon College of Education.

Attend Meeting—Mrs. George Icenhower, Mrs. A. J. Delisle, Miss Edna Kennedy and Orlo and Leona Rowe, all Ashland residents, attended a Full Gospel church meeting here Sunday.

Visits Mother—Betty Grace Robbins of Ashland, student at Southern Oregon College of Education, spent the past weekend here visiting her mother, Mrs. Walter Sears.

Boeing Arrives—A Boeing ship piloted by Fred Kane arrived at the Klamath airport Tuesday to stay here a few days on a barnstorming visit. Alton Walker arrived with the ship.

Teacher Visits—Anita Cooke, who is teaching for the first time in the city schools here, spent the weekend in Ashland visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cooke.

Valley Visitor—Kathleen Silver, teacher in the Klamath Falls schools, spent the weekend visiting in Ashland as the guest of her brother, Oscar Silver.

29 TAKE OATHS OF CITIZENSHIP IN CEREMONIES

Twenty-nine petitioners for naturalization papers were admitted, and one person repatriated, in ceremonies in Circuit Judge E. B. Ashurst's court Monday afternoon.

The oath was administered by Lewis P. Crosby, deputy county clerk. Judge Ashurst questioned petitioners after Thomas Griffing, immigration service official, conducted the formal examinations.

Several representatives of patriotic groups participated in the ceremonies.

Those admitted, and the country of previous citizenship, were: Richard Swanberg, Sweden; Otto Paul Krause, Germany; Fritjof Mathisen, Norway; Christian Severa Knudsen, Norway; Donald Herbert Brudland, Canada; Islay Murtle Pratt, Canada; Tore Torsten Gustafson, Sweden; Tarkel Olavson, Tveit Norway.

Samson Walland, Norway; Karin Carlson, Sweden; Ludmilla Micka, Moravia; Walter Henry Lundsten, Sweden; Benjamin H. Brisco, Canada; Anna Penner, Canada; Marcia Cizek, Czechoslovakia; Eileen Clara Turner, England; James Elmer Friesen, Canada.

Inez Diana Erlandsen, Norway; Jonan Anton Lundberg,

Sweden; Angelo Parisotto, Italy; Thomas J. O'Keefe, Ireland; Joseph Henry Bowden, England; Anna Marie Kurnick, Germany; Emma Alma Dunn, England; Madeline Elizabeth Reginato, Italy; Carl Arvid Larson, Sweden; Gusta Verhard Larson, Sweden; Mabel Beatrice Henry, Canada; Ruth Heriager, Norway. Repatriated was Gustava Irene Foster.

The number of Americans killed in traffic accidents during the last 17 years is greater by far than the number killed in all the wars that the nation ever has been in.

Free Dance Saturday night. Macdoel Tavern. At music.

ONLOOKERS

PORTLAND, Oct. 1 (AP)—A traffic accident might bring 59 policemen to the scene here this week.

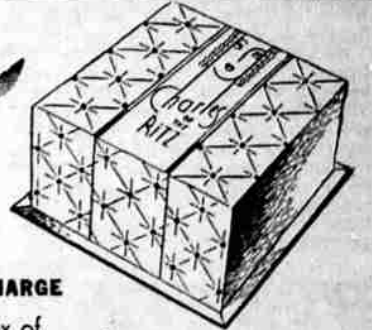

The bluecoats will be "rookies" studying investigation of traffic mishaps.

CONFUCIOUS say: If beer extra delicious, label say W-l-a-n-d!

Brick Size Holes—

A sixteenth-inch play or crack around your window and doors equals a Brick Size Hole. Causes drafts, lets in cold air, heat—and loses easily heat. Chamberlain Weatherstrips and insulation pays for itself. E. O. REED, phone 5115, Cascade—for the estimate.

THIS WEEK ONLY

WITHOUT CHARGE

a full 100 box of Charles of the Ritz individually blended face powder included with your purchase of other Ritz preparations

Individually blended powder brings out the natural beauty of your skin. Replenish your beauty needs. Obtain your face powder... without charge. One box to a customer.

MOE'S

LaPointe's Beautiful Fall MILLINERY

—You are invited to be lovely beyond your most extravagant dreams... our millinery is famous for bringing to you chic, character, and quality... hats of head-turning smartness. Everything that's Fashion Right on New York's Fifth Avenue today!

$1.95 up

La POINTE'S

PEBBLE SPRINGS

STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

4 YEARS OLD
90 PROOF

CLARKE BROS. DISTILLING COMPANY
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND