

Iran Guardsmen Kidnap Briton

BUCHAREST, Oct. 3 (AP)—The British legation declared today that a band of youths, described as apparently members of the iron guard, had kidnaped the director of the British-controlled Astra Romana, largest oil company in Rumania. Up to noon Wednesday, the legation said it had been unable to ascertain the whereabouts of the director, A. Miller. Rumanian secret police declared they had no knowledge of the matter. The legation asserted it had eye-witnesses to prove that Miller, one of the most highly-placed Britishers left in the country, had been kidnaped from the summer resort of Snagov on the outskirts of the capital by four young men in plain clothes.

EARLY WINTER IN PROSPECT FOR LAKE O' WOODS

An early winter has been forecast by various and sundry signs and summer home owners at Lake o' the Woods were surprised to receive a report of snow and hail which fell at the resort at noon Wednesday.

According to the Medford Mail-Tribune, "the wintry blast is regarded as unusual for this time of the year. The forest service reports this is the earliest snow recorded for the Lake o' the Woods section."

We don't have enough babies and we are not building up with immigration from abroad.—William Lane Austin, director of U. S. census, explaining decline in rate of population growth.
