

Nile Temple Officers Honored During Visit

Large Attendance Hears Report of Supreme Session at October Meeting

Three officers of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, were honored guests at the meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile club held Tuesday afternoon, October the first, at the Elk hotel with Mrs. J. H. Carter, Mrs. George H. Adler and Mrs. Charlotte Martin presiding as hostesses over the bridge hour that followed luncheon for which covers were laid for one of the largest attendance of members.

Mrs. Ruth Newberry of Ashland, honored queen of Zuleima temple, Princess Royal Ethel Brownell and Recorder Ethel Williams, both of Grants Pass, were complimented on this occasion when Queen Ruth presented an interesting report of the supreme session of Daughters of the Nile held at Terre Haute, Indiana.

A request has been made by the temple officers for the Klamath Falls club to furnish the chorus for the ceremonials, the first of which will be held in Ashland on Saturday, October the twelfth, and will be attended by a number of Klamath members.

The luncheon tables were beautifully arranged in the hallways in shades of peach and orange used in the clever centerpieces. The verses of "God Bless America" were sung by Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold and Mrs. M. E. Cooper, accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Epperson, with the entire group joining in the chorus.

At the close of the afternoon award for high in bridge went to Mrs. Gus Anderson. Mrs. Harry Wayne whose birthday was observed received the guest prize.

NOBLE GRANDS PLAN LUNCHEON FOR DISTRICT MEET

About twenty members were in attendance at the meeting of the Past Noble Grands club held Tuesday afternoon at the IOOF hall when plans were discussed for serving the luncheon at the district convention of the Rebekah lodge to be held in Klamath Falls Saturday, October the twenty-sixth, when visitors are expected from a number of Southern Oregon cities.

Mrs. Mary Ginsbach and Mrs. Lee Bean were appointed to take charge of the luncheon and dining rooms for this occasion, and all members of the club are asked to assist with arrangements and serving.

The next meeting of Past Noble Grands has been announced by the president, Mrs. Martha Baker, for the first Monday in November instead of the regular date in order that it will not conflict with election day. Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby and Mrs. Lee Bean will preside as hostesses.

BOWLERS FETED AT SUPPER PARTY

Mrs. Howard Hanville and Mrs. Ben Pernigotti entertained at the home of the former on Lavey street for a group of the Ladybug Bowling league members Thursday evening. Dinner was served and later the guests met for the league tournament.

Clever league decorations carried out the theme of the party. On the mantle was an arrangement of pins and balls, and candles were miniature bowling pins.

Guests included Opal Kilgore, Esther Lawler, Martha McCollum, Dena Backes, Leda Gardner, Eleanor Weatherford, Ellen Upp, Bernice Britt, Florence Henriot, Fern Sullivan, Sally Sawtelle, Vera Chase, Clara Gates, Emma Carter, Flo Ann Eaton, Edna Haupt, Ingar Frieman, Edna Turnbull, and the hostesses.

MODOC POINT HOME SETTING FOR LUNCHEON

As a courtesy to Mrs. W. W. Richardson of Manhattan Beach, California, a guest at the A. E. Stonehouse home, and to Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard of Portland, a guest of the William Spangler at Modoc Point, Mrs. A. J. Kehoe presided at a prettily appointed bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon, October the first, at her Modoc Point home.

Gorgeous fall blooms from Mrs. Kehoe's outstanding garden were used on the luncheon table and about the rooms. Lovely guest prizes were presented to Mrs. Stoddard and Mrs. Richardson, and the awards in bridge went to Mrs. O. R. Holloway and Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse. Others enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. William Spangler, Mrs. Bickers, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, Mrs. Jerry Rieker and the hostess.

Young Artist In Orchestra

Norman Lamb Now Playing in Philadelphia Symphony

Mr. Norman Lamb, violinist, who was presented before the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club last April in an afternoon concert given by faculty members and students of the conservatory of music, College of the Pacific, Stockton, California, is now playing with the Philadelphia symphony orchestra conducted by Stokowski.

This information was received here with a great deal of interest as young Mr. Lamb's playing was so thoroughly enjoyed here that it was hoped to have a return engagement made with the College of the Pacific.

MRS. FERRELL HONORED WITH PARTY TUESDAY

Mrs. John Ferrell, who leaves next week for Sioux City, Iowa, where she will make her home, was complimented with a handkerchief shower Tuesday evening when Mrs. R. L. Cotter and Mrs. J. A. McDonald were hostesses at the home of the latter on Lakeshore Drive.

Both bridge and pinocle were played with honors in bridge going to Mrs. Ferrell, and in pinocle to Mrs. Todd Knapp.

Guests honoring Mrs. Ferrell included Mrs. Howard Parnell, Mrs. Donald Divens, Mrs. Frank Pearce, Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., Mrs. Charles Burns, Mrs. Todd Knapp, Miss Alice Hall, Miss Doris Hunter, and the hostesses.

MRS. CRAPO HONORED WITH DINNER PARTY

Honoring Mrs. James Crapo who has been employed for a number of years in the office of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, a dinner party was given at the Pelican cafe Tuesday evening, October the first, by a group of friends also of the same office.

Mrs. Crapo was presented with a coffee table by the group including Mrs. Glen Scott, Mrs. Harold Houck, Mrs. H. T. Amoureux, Mrs. Calvin Raney, Mrs. W. M. Newton, Mrs. Rufus Quillen, Mrs. Warren Poole, Miss Evelyn Zumwalt, Miss Roberta Alexander, Miss Marjorie Jensen, Miss Delphine Olson, Miss Vienna Walker, Miss Della Stark, and Miss Lois Bethune.

VENTURISTS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER PARTY

The delightful dinner given by Mrs. Sophia Kenoff and Miss Ruth Kenoff at the attractive home of the Kenoffs on Eldorado street, honoring members of the Venture club, was an outstanding event of the past week.

Roses and other flowers decorated the rooms and the guests were served at individual tables.

Covers were laid for Miss Esther Rovers, a visitor at the Kenoff home, Miss Dorothy O'Sullivan, Miss Martha Robinson, Miss Dora Foster, Miss Peggy Johnson, Miss Emma Howard, Miss Dorothy Teed, Miss Ienbella Griffith, Mrs. Rita Whisenand, Mrs. Beverly Reed Sanders and the hostesses.

NEEDLE WORK CLUB FETED BY MRS. JONES

Sixteen members of the Art Needle Work club were present Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones entertained the group. Mrs. Rufus Moore and Mrs. J. J. Wirtz, who are visiting in San Francisco, were the only absent members.

Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt will be hostess to the members Wednesday afternoon, October the sixteenth, at her home at 74 Pine street.

CHARMING EASTERN VISITORS

Mrs. Neal A. Butterfield and her two children, Earl Carver and Annie May, were visitors in Klamath Falls this past week from Washington, D. C. They were house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Bullis, 133 Hillside avenue. Mrs. Butterfield and her children were recent visitors at her former home in Woodburn, Oregon.

Tea Honors Guest in City

Lovely Affair Given Sunday Afternoon at Provost Home

Mrs. Zella Dalby of Salt Lake City, Utah, who is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Provost of 2348 Garden avenue, was honored with a tea by Mrs. Provost and Mrs. R. L. Pence who entertained in her honor Sunday afternoon at their home on Garden avenue when forty friends called to greet Mrs. Dalby.

Mrs. Gomer Caseman assisted in receiving the guests and Mrs. Paul Skeen was in charge of the dining room. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Mabel Behnke and Mrs. Eudora Morris. Mrs. Sam Robinson served.

Purple tapers in crystal holders and a bowl of purple asters centered the lace-covered table and colorful bowls of autumn flowers were used in the rooms. Musical numbers were presented by Mrs. L. M. Moore; Mrs. William Hanson Jr. and Mrs. Katherine Smith sang a duet and Mr. Anker Schade entertained with violin selections.

LIONESS CLUB PLANS MEETING IN OCTOBER

There will be a board meeting of the Lioness club next week to make final plans for the fall benefit tea which will be given in the Willard hotel the afternoon of Saturday, November the second. Exact date of the luncheon meeting will be announced later.

The regular meeting of the Lioness club will be held October the fourteenth with Mrs. D. J. Rees as chairman.

MRS. PEYTON ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS

Among the affairs given during the past week for Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard of Portland and Mrs. W. W. Richardson of Manhattan Beach, California was the bridge afternoon on Monday, September the thirtieth, when Mrs. Oscar Peyton presided over two tables at her home on North Ninth street.

Mrs. Richardson, who has been visiting for the past several weeks with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse, at their Algonia home, is leaving within a short time to return to California. Mrs. Stoddard, formerly of Modoc Point, a well known in this city, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Spangler.

SHOWER GIVEN WEDNESDAY NIGHT FOR MRS. DAVIES

In honor of Mrs. O. C. Davies, a shower was given by Mrs. D. W. Jackson and Mrs. Lyle Durrell Wednesday evening, October the second, at the Jackson residence on North Eleventh street.

The dining room was cleverly decorated in pink and blue streamers for the occasion and centering the table was a large stork surrounded by a mound of gifts. Pinocle was in play as entertainment with high score going to Miss Lorraine McNulty and low to Mrs. Loren Calhoun. Mrs. Beryl Milne received the guest prize.

Those honoring Mrs. Davies were Mrs. Loren Calhoun, Mrs. D. H. Jackson, Mrs. Everett Linville, Mrs. Joe Ward, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Miss Lorraine McNulty, Mrs. Dan Caldwell, Mrs. Beryl Milne and Mrs. Thomas Holmes and the hostesses.

BPW CLUB TO ENJOY DINNER MEET MONDAY

Combining national Business Women's week with another important annual event, Klamath's Business and Professional Women's club will devote their dinner meeting, Monday, October the seventh to a discussion of fire and accident prevention.

Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Grossman, education committee chairman, the local club will give over its meeting to two out of town speakers.

Chief guest of the evening will be Mr. H. B. Larsen from the agents bureau of Portland, who will speak on fire prevention.

Dr. Frank E. Hull, of the American Red Cross staff, specializing in fire and accident prevention, will give a brief account of the manner in which his work here will be conducted this next week.

Keith Ambrose, local fire chief, will introduce the speakers.

Musical selections, a questionnaire and a short playlet will provide additional entertainment.

Name Given Master Lockwood

Samuel P. Lockwood Jr. is the name of the new resident at the Sam Lockwood home on Portland street. The young man was born at Wilcox Memorial hospital, Portland, September the twenty-fifth. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Champlin Spencer of Omaha, Nebraska, and Mrs. Samuel P. Lockwood of Portland.

Mrs. Lockwood is the former Margaret Spencer of Portland. Congratulations were going north to the proud parents by their many friends here.

"Family Portrait" Is Selected Play

Everett Glass of University of California To Read Interesting Drama Before Library Club

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club are anticipating the first program of the year which is scheduled for Monday afternoon, October the fourteenth, in the main auditorium of the public library at two o'clock sharp. At this time Everett Glass, actor and director of the Little Theatre, University of California, will read, "Family Portrait," by L. and Cowen Coffee.

The three-act play is, according to one review, "A story from the Gospel, but as one comment said, the dialogue is colloquial and the arguments are as close to the modern social trends as they could be made consistently—thus giving the play timeliness and bringing it into convincing focus as a family portrait."

Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, contralto, will be presented in two numbers by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music program chairman, who will also accompany her. She will sing, "None But the Lonely Heart," by Tchaikovsky, and "I Am Thy Harp," by R. Huntington Woodman.

All women of the city are invited to attend Library club programs. Admission will be by presentation of a membership card, or payment of a small fee at the door. Memberships will be taken before and after the program.

OCTOBER BRIDE COMPLIMENTED MONDAY EVENING

A bridal shower complimenting Miss Mary Schouboe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Schouboe of 627 North Fifth street, was given Monday evening at the Alvin Picard home when Mrs. Picard entertained a number of the bride-elect's friends.

Those honoring Miss Schouboe on this occasion were Mrs. Clarence Crapo, Mrs. Edward Bard, Mrs. Tom Manning, Mrs. F. C. Harris, Mrs. J. H. Poppy, Mrs. L. R. Stringfellow, Mrs. R. K. Schouboe, Mrs. Gino Carnini, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Schouboe Jr., Mrs. Dwight Cottingham, Miss Kay Dugan, Miss Dorothy O'Keefe and the hostess.

The marriage of Miss Schouboe and Mr. Alfred Cottingham, popular members of the city's younger set, was solemnized on Friday afternoon, October the fourth, at the bride's home.
