POLITICS HITS

'BIG PUSH' TO ELECTION DAY

By The Associated Press The history-making 1940 campaign hit the "big push" stage Monday, with both major parties ready for a concentrated drive that will carry through the last two pre-election weeks and up to the eve of voting day. For the democrats, the current week will see President Roosevelt in an avowed "political" role, as he delivers the first five addresses intended, so his own announcement said, to "correct . . . deliberate falsification of fact" by campaign foes and to "give the true facts to the public."

On the republican side, Wendell L. Willkie embarked on another closely filled itinerary of many speeches and much mileage. The republican presidential nominee's schedule will take him from Wisconsin, where he makes a major address tonight at Milwaukee, eastward through Illinois and Pennsylvania to New York.

To back up the personal campaign of its standard bearer, each party marshaled a supporting array of notables. Former President Hoover is scheduled to urge Willkie's cause in a Thursday night speech at Columbus, O. Frank Lowden, former governor of Illinois, is on the program for a broadcast address (NBC) on Friday night. Numerous other party prominent are also down for talks.

In the democratic camp, Henry A. Wallace, vice presidential nominee, has the most active week with a schedule which will take him into Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and adjacent territory. William C. Bullitt, ambassador to France, was to speak in Chicago Monday night, and Attorney General Jackson is listed for a radio address (NBC) Wednesday.

FIRE LOSSES LOW FOR '40 IN STATE

SALEM, Oct. 21 (P)—Forest fires on state and private lands in Oregon burned over only 19,134 acres during the 1940 fire season, which was one of the most favorable in the history of the state forestry department. Western Oregon fires burned over 12,258 acres, compared with 6876 acres in eastern Oregon.

The largest fire was that in the Sunset district in northwest Oregon, which destroyed 6000 acres.

Of the 915 fires, 276 were caused by lightning, 185 by careless smokers, 11 by incendiaries, 89 by campers, 74 by debris burning, 48 by logging operators, and 12 by railroads.

The total loss will be announced January 1.

NATIONAL PARK VISITORS SET NEW RECORD IN 1940

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (P) Visitors to the national parks and monuments during the 1940 travel year ended September 30 totaled 16,741,855, a new record, Newton B. Drury announced today.

The director of the national park service reported to Secretary Ickes that one of every eight persons visited some unit of the federal park system. Attendance was more than 1,000,000 greater than in 1939.

Visitors to Oregon groups of the park system and the figures for the preceding year were:

Crater Lake national park, 252,482 for 1940 and 225,101 for 1939; Oregon Caves, 57,195 for 1940 and 56,218 for 1939.

MAN KILLED WHEN TOW CAR WRECKED AT GRANTS PASS

GRANTS PASS, Oct. 21 (P) Emmitt Jack Dix, about 32, of Grants Pass, was fatally crushed in the pile up of a tow car and his wrecked automobile yesterday, Coroner Virgil Hull reported.

Dix' automobile was being towed after striking a deer on the Redwood highway four miles southwest of here. On a downhill grade the damaged car weaved, overran the tow chain and piled into the tow car, in which Dix and his wife were riding. State Patrolman Lyle Harrell said. Donald H. Howell was driver of the tow car.

Mrs. Dix suffered probable rib fractures.

SURVEY DISCLOSES UNUSUAL POSITIONS

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 21 (P) The American Institute of Meat Packers, compiling a list of Kansas Citians who have been in the business 50 years, discovered these startling assignments:

Alfred Gagel and Daniel Creedan, opening and shutting doors for employes. Richard Beggs, skinning the front feet of steers. Steve Stocosky, carrying beer to employes.
