Camp Fire News

Plans for the Camp Fire-Blue Bird fiesta party are almost completed. Groups who have not reported their princess and program numbers to Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr., or Mrs. J. C. Grove, please do so this week in order that your candidate may appear in a princess picture.

Dorothy Howerly is representing the Winema group, Phillis Smith was elected by the Wako, Helen Lesmiester by the Kostents and the Blue Birds have chosen Peggy McAndrews for the Snowdrops, Eleanor Emery for the Chestnuts, Beverly Kohn for the Rainbows and Gloria Croup will represent the Sunshine group.

Some of the numbers to appear on the program of the evening's gala celebration will be a dance by Marion Mathews, song by the Snowdrops, skits by the Waksos and the Kostents, dance by Catherine Blanas and a song by Donna Lee Foster.

The crowns and mantillas are completed and are indeed lovely affairs of gold and red for the Camp Fire queen and gold and blue for the Blue Bird. What are the names of the girls who will wear them at the fiesta? Who will be chosen to rule for a night at this festival of fun? Elect your candidate and help make her the winner by being present at the Fremont school auditorium, November 1, at 7:30 p. m.—Buenos Noches, Muchachos.

From a Typical American Mother

"What Do I Want for Christmas?"

I suppose I should say that anything you want to send would be fine, but instead I'm going to be selfish and ask for exactly what I want—a good photograph of you. And be sure to have it taken at Kennell-Ellis Studios, U. S. National Bank Bldg. You don't have to make an appointment so why don't you stop at the studio today and have your picture taken?
