000,000 people voted for me I feel an obligation to state my position.

Latest tabulations of the election results meanwhile gave this picture of the standing of the two candidates with 120,444 voting units already counted out of 127,245:

President Roosevelt — Carried 38 states with a total electoral vote of 449. His popular vote stood at 26,265,134.

Wendell L. Willkie — Carried 10 states with a total electoral vote of 82. His popular vote stood at 21,787,102.

Martin Sums Up

The republican reaction to this total, the highest ever won by a republican candidate, was summed up yesterday by Joseph W. Martin Jr., chairman of the party's national committee.

Announcing for "national unity" and for a "strong defense," he said "it is our purpose to take full advantage of the new and progressive leadership and support that has come to us in this campaign."

"We shall support the president," he added, "when not in conflict with the great principles for which we fought in this crusade."

To this he added the prediction that "in 1942 we will elect a republican congress and prepare the way for a greater victory in 1944."
