fiere north Atlantic gale was raging.

The other two ships were the Wila, a Polish craft, and the Wila, of British registry.

The Wila, only 20 miles away, reported the weather was so bad that steering difficulties would prevent her from going to the Cambanis' assistance unless the gale moderated. The Wila advised it was able to make only two knots because of the storm.

The reports from the three ships were received about an hour after the Cambanis issued its call for help.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—A snow-laden storm carried along by strong winds whistled through the midwest today.

It moved up in a northeasterly direction from Texas where, forecasters said, the weather was clearing after damaging floods and ice crippled important communication lines.

Early this morning it began snowing in central Kansas and eastern Nebraska and moved rapidly northeastward.

Heavy snow fell in extreme eastern Iowa, southern Wisconsin, many parts of Illinois and northern Missouri.

RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE IN COURT

Thomas Vearyl Miles, 29, charged with reckless driving on a complaint signed by C. A. Bundy, Pleasant view tract, appeared before Police Judge Leigh Ackerman Tuesday morning. He was represented by Hugh Gearin, the city by D. E. Van Vactor, city attorney.

Bundy charged Miles' car struck his machine Thanksgiving eve at South Sixth street and Oak avenue intersection. There were seven persons in the Miles car, it was stated, none of whom were injured by the impact although Bundy said he was rendered unconscious, and a passenger, Mrs. Maxwell of 321 South Seventh street, suffered injuries to her hand, face and side.

Decision of the judge was withheld pending further study of the testimony. Judge Ackerman said he had not fully decided which car had the right-of-way as Bundy alleges he was struck approximately five feet from the center of the intersection.

BERLIN SAYS NO HELP FOR ITALY LOOMS

the Adriatic sea in their retreat.

New Troops Retreat

Winter gripped the battle areas. Cold rain drenched the valleys and lowlands, and snow fell in the mountains, impeding operations on most fronts.

Dispatches from Athens said two Greek infantry regiments drove back the 42nd regiment, newly arrived from Rome.

Authoritative military circles in London said Greek troops had landed on the Adriatic shore in Albanian Epirus and cut behind the Italian flank, in a movement to "bottle up" fascist columns still fighting in Greek territory on the southern front.

Britain's royal air force struck widespread blows in its drive to smash weapons of the Nazi sea blockade, the London air ministry reported today.

The British said RAF warplanes, flying through dense night fog, bombed the big German naval bases at Kiel, Wilhelmshaven and Hamburg, and attacked the De Mok seaplane base and other Nazi airdromes.

Simultaneously, the London admiralty noted evidence that the counter-campaign against crippling attacks on British shipping is proving successful. A communiqué said that during the week ended Nov. 17, only 17 British, allied and neutral merchant ships totaling 59,534 tons were lost through "enemy action"—approximately two-thirds of the weekly average since the German blockade was intensified last May.

E. C. KOPPEN, FORMER USRS CHIEF, DIES

A heart ailment caused the death Monday in Phoenix, Ariz., of Edward C. Koppen, 61, for a number of years supervising engineer of the Klamath reclamation project, USRS, and also of the construction of several reclamation service projects in the west. At the time of his death he was in charge of construction of a power plant at Parker dam.

Before leaving government service in 1925, while still a resident of Klamath, Mr. Koppen was engaged in projects at Boise, Ida., and other points. Later he took charge of power site investigations for the California Oregon Power company with headquarters in Medford.

During his residence here Mr. Koppen was active in affairs of the First Methodist church and served as financial treasurer.

During his work with the California Oregon Power company, Mr. Koppen made many scientific investigations for the concern. Old time residents of this city learn of his passing with sincere regret.

BRITAIN LOOKS TO U. S. FOR CHANCE

therefore unencumbered—but the opinion of a man who has spent a great deal of time with the army, navy and air force and—more important—with the people themselves, not civil servants and cabinet underlings.

First, there probably is no answer to night bombings, outside of mastery of the air, and for this Britain frankly is looking to America although in earlier and better days the newspapers of Lord Beaverbrook, minister for aircraft production, belittled United States planes.

German night raiders have dropped tens of thousands of tons of bombs from thousands of planes, yet one is asked to believe there is no military damage; that only churches, hospitals, schools and tenements are hit, plus of course "slight damage" to utilities.

(They dropped a bomb next to the Associated Press building before Sept. 24. The crater still is yawning.)

Bombers that hit Buckingham palace unable to hit the sprawling factories of the Midlands? Believe it if you can.

The Germans have killed thousands of civilian men, women and children without really damaging morale. They've also done damage to shipping and railroads without demoralizing the war effort.

Second, Britannia still rules the waves, but needs more American help to do it. Much of the recent staggering shipping losses can be traced to deficiencies in escort vessels.

Unless Britain can get more

United States destroyers, shipping losses likely will continue at a high level because of U-boats, bombers and surface raiders.

The need for merchant vessels goes hand in hand with the need for destroyers. Britain's need will increase as spring brings an increase in U-boat violence.

Taranto (the British raid on Italy's naval base) was a great British victory, but not for the navy, although the fleet air arm accomplished this task (reporting the crippling of three Italian battleships), because every battleship similarly is vulnerable to torpedo-carrying planes while in harbor, where they all must go sooner or later.

Third, the army is as good as the best—if properly equipped. In fighting spirit and leadership, I can testify, it is able to stand up to the Germans.

At first it was said a British offensive could be expected in 1941. Now government leaders talk of 1943 and 1944.

Fourth, Britain, the greatest financial power in history, is reaching the end of her financial tether. If she is to buy in the United States—and German bombing of industries will force her to buy in increasing quantities—the United States will have to put it on the cuff.

Fifth, British industry which started the war on an eight-hour day, still has not expanded to the totalitarian level; there still are tens of thousands of unemployed and unemployment, even is increasing.

Railroads still charge service men for transport, which is like having a toll bridge in a communications trench.

Finally, the people of London are cheerful, stubborn and tired. Shelter conditions still are abominable; the menace to health is more dangerous potentially than nazi bombs.
