HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

by June Michelson

During the football and basketball seasons there is an office downtown which contributes much to the success of our athletics. We students should not overlook the fact that Earl Reynolds and his staff at the chamber of commerce have maintained a box office for all athletic ticket sales. Very few schools are fortunate enough to have a service of this kind.

Season tickets, reserve tickets, and general admission by the thousands have been sold by this downtown office.

Advertising the Boys' alliance carnival which was held Friday night, an eight-piece "German band" with Ben Arndt as the leader, paraded the halls Friday noon.

In the band are: Bob Holmes, Floyd Hunziker, Bud Boyer, Victor Vasak, Fred Floetke, Stanley McGehey, Bruce Beane and Ben Arndt.

On the first Wednesday evening of each month, faculty members of the English department meet at the home of Mrs. Lucille O'Neill, head of the English department.

The group discusses problems of the department and particular phases of teaching English. Refreshments are served after every meeting.

A different leader is chosen each time. Clifford Rowe conducted one meeting and discussed theme work and teaching students to write.

Miss Virginia Fick lead the group in a discussion at another meeting, of reading and making students read more.

Wendell Smith lead the last meeting when different phases of teaching literature, particularly poetry, were discussed.

Mrs. Lynn Roycroft will be the leader of the next meeting, and the subject will be "Modern Teaching of Grammar."

Mrs. Lucille O'Neill's freshman home room has begun organization of their Christmas party already.

Delbert Lyman, president of the class, has chosen committees which include, tree committee, decorations, room decorations, guest list for presents, refreshments.

The group has $5 which has been accumulated from their ten

TULELAKE WOMAN OPENS NEW STORE

TULELAKE.—Marty's Food store, operated by Mrs. E. L. Booth, was opened early this week to the public in its attractive new building of pumice tile. The store, bearing a red and white sign above the marquee is one of the most attractive groceries on Main street.

The building with full glass front has a modern interior color scheme of red and white, illuminated with fluorescent lights. Cooler equipment with mirror background preserves fruits and vegetables and the new business includes also a meat department presided over by Al Porter, formerly with Safeway.

A number of floral offerings were received on the opening day. Mrs. Booth has been in the grocery business here since last July.

Tullake

Earl Ager has opened a new magazine and paper stand near the fountain in his grocery store and will offer to folks who like to read all of the best nationally known periodicals and daily papers of Klamath Falls, Portland, Sacramento and the bay region.

Tullake chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will install officers in the annex of the Tullake Community Presbyterian church Tuesday night, December 10, with Mrs. Alida Macken, Tullake, first worthy matron of Malin Prosperity chapter as installing officer, Mrs. Ival Wolfe, installing chaplain and Mrs. Ray Rowan, installing marshal. The installation will be open to the public.

The Octave Bridge club will meet next Friday, December 13 at the home of Mrs. L. J. Horton in Poe valley.

cents a month per person dues. They will use this money for refreshments.

As their special guest, the class will invite Bill Martinez and possibly several teachers.

In the near future, on Tuesday, December 10, there will be an assembly advertising the student body play. Next day, the 11th, the K club initiation will be held. Thursday, the much anticipated play, "The Black Flamingo," will be presented.

Students whose parents joined the Parents and Patrons club will attend a free movie, Friday. Pep Peppers will attend a roller-skating party at the Rollerdomes, Friday night.

Some folks still can't believe their eyes

GOING over Buick dealers' reports on your 1941 models, we find an unusual thing happening.

Time and again cars come in for the usual inspections with an extra note of instructions—"Please check the gas gauge needle."

Even after hundreds of miles, people mistrust their eyes when they see its snail-like pace from the Full mark toward Empty—they don't see how it's possible for a car as big as Buick to go so far on so little.

But it does—and for good reasons.

The whole FIREBALL engine was designed and built to get the most good out of modern gasolines.

And the simple secret of Compound Carburetion is that it keeps your engine running on its most frugal diet for all normal driving—and provides full feed only when you need, want and call for the lift of extra wallop.

Meantime even the gears are helping save money—for the regular high gear in a Buick gives you the economy of the so-called "gas-saving" top speeds you hear about.

The big thing is, of course, that this is no small car that's setting these economy figures. There are all the room, size, impressiveness, comfort and downright thrilling performance you expect from a Buick.

So it isn't because the needle's out of kilter that it goes down so slowly. It's simply because it's in a FIREBALL Buick.
