Snowball Dance On December Program

Order of DeMolay To Crown Sweetheart at Party Planned in Willard Hotel Ballroom Friday

Members of the younger set are anticipating the annual Snowball dance which will be given Friday evening, December the twenty-seventh, in the ballroom of the Willard hotel by the Order of DeMolay.

Miss Virginia Howard will be crowned Sweetheart of DeMolay during the evening, the wreath of flowers placed on her head by Master Councillor Jack Myers. Princesses will be Miss June Van, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Miss Bonnie Robin, and Miss Suzanne Michelson.

Patrons for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thomas, Mr. Floyd Stanley, and Mr. William Milne.

More than one hundred and twenty-five couples are expected at the Snowball dance which is given each year during Christmas and New Year's by DeMolay. A special invitation has been issued to members of the college set, home for the holidays.

Mrs. C. H. Dagggett and daughters, Miss Marijane and Carolyn, left Friday by motor for San Francisco for the holidays. Later the girls will study at Armstrong's business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drew plan to spend Christmas Day in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moore, parents of Mrs. Drew.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells plan to leave next week for Portland where they will remain during most of the holiday season.

SIGMA KAPPA SORORITY PLANS TEA

Members of Sigma Kappa sorority will be entertained at tea Friday afternoon, December the twenty-seventh, from three o'clock until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Thompson, 531 Pacific Terrace.

All members of the sorority are invited to attend, and those affiliated with Sigma Kappa are asked to contact Mrs. Thompson this week.

Hornibrooks to Visit During Holidays

Friends will be interested to learn that Mrs. H. C. Hornibrook and her daughter, Miss Kathryn, were to arrive Saturday evening from Chico to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Hornibrook of Pacific Terrace. Miss Hornibrook is with the library of the Chico State college in California.

Among the holiday visitors in Klamath Falls is Mrs. Paul Keller of Portland, guest of her mother, Mrs. George Humphrey of Pine street. Mr. Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller of this city, will join his wife for the Christmas holidays.

Final Arrangements Made by Committee

Reames Country Club New Year's Dance To Be One of Gayest Affairs of Holiday Season

"It's going to be grand" is the announcement of the Reames Country club dance committee regarding the traditional New Year's eve party scheduled for Tuesday night a week hence at the clubhouse.

The committee will discuss plans only with such mysterious terms as "pretentious," and "spectacular," with an interesting program of features, coupled with gay favors and decorations, arranged for the party goers.

Dancing for club members and their guests will begin at ten o'clock. An elaborate buffet supper will be served at a late hour. Details of the party were planned by the committee members including Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. Don Drury, co-chairmen, Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, Dr. and Mrs. Denton J. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Erdmann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Peak, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl.

The December meeting of Oregon Mothers was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Morrison on Pacific Terrace with eleven members present.

The January meeting will be held the sixth at the home of Mrs. Warren Hunt, 647 Pacific Terrace, at which time dessert will be served at half past one o'clock.

Miss Helen Lois Winningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Winningham of Painter street, is home from Whitman college at Walla Walla for the holidays.

WASHINGTON VISITORS HERE DURING HOLIDAYS

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. William A. King of Clarkston, Washington, parents of Mrs. John Coppage of Fremont street, Mr. and Mrs. Coppage have issued cards for an informal at home Saturday evening from eight o'clock until ten o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. King arrived this weekend from the north to spend the holidays here.

Holiday Visitors Expected Here

Captain and Mrs. Boyd Yaden of Hamilton Field, California, are expected to spend the holidays here with Captain Yaden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hancock of Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. Paul W. Sharp spent several days in Klamath Falls last week, returning to Fort Lewis, Washington, Saturday evening. Dr. Sharp is now located at Fort Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm and sons will be in Portland for the Christmas holidays where they will be guests of Mrs. Blohm's sister.
