

Club Entertains At Holiday Party

Members of Nile Hostesses to Husbands at Gay Affair Held at Elk Friday

One of the customary affairs that precedes the year-end holidays, the Christmas dinner and party of the Klamath Falls Nile club, was held last Friday evening, December the thirteenth, at the Elk hotel when members entertained their husbands. A steak dinner was served at seven o'clock, followed by a program and cards.

The guests were seated about eight long tables that were decorated gaily in red and green and lighted by tall red tapers. Cones, holly, paracantha berries and mistletoes formed attractive centerpieces. Mrs. Gus Anderson, the vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. H. Poppy.

The evening's festivities were opened by the assembly singing of "God Bless America," followed by the introduction of guests. During the entertainment hour Mrs. George W. Hillis sang "Musette's Waltz Song" from "La Boheme" and "Mr. Robin"; Mr. Charles Stanfield presented the high school's a capella choir of sixteen voices in three numbers that were received with much appreciation. Mr. R. D. Eller, illustrious potentate of Hillah temple, Mystic Order of the Shrine, gave a short informal talk.

Santa Claus (Mr. Wilbur Arnold) appeared after the dinner hour and provided a great deal of fun by reading humorous letters to Santa as he distributed gifts from the Christmas tree.

Later, bridge and pinochle were in play with the awards in bridge going to Mrs. Charles Gilbert and Mr. Arnold, high; Mrs. George Massey and Dr. Massey, consolation. Mr. Gus Anderson and Mr. Carl Steinseifer received the prizes in pinochle. The evening's guest prizes were received by Mrs. J. H. Carter and Mr. R. P. Ellingson. Mrs. M. C. Cassel was in charge of the entertainment.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. ## ANW Social Club Meets

Mrs. J. F. Goeller Entertains With Christmas Party

The home of Mrs. J. F. Goeller at 234 South Riverside avenue in this city is one of the delightfully homely early day dwellings. The house and premises have been kept up by the Goellers during their nearly forty years residence there.

The spacious living-dining room, finished in birch-paneled walls with china closet doors of leaded glass, and stained glass windows, was the gathering spot for members of the Art Needle Work club, Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Goeller entertained for their pleasure.

A cheery fire sparkled in the fireplace, a lovely silver fir Christmas tree, cut from an altitude of 6000 feet in the nearby Cascade mountains, perfect in shape, stood in one corner of the spacious room, while pine cones decorated the mantle and a miniature tree centered the tea table, all contributing to the Christmas season atmosphere.

Mrs. George Hurn, one of the members, proudly displayed a story published in the December the twenty-first 1940 issue of "Christian Youth," published by "The Sunday School Times Company" of Philadelphia. The story is entitled "The Modoc Knife," and is written by Gretta M. Van Duker, Klamath Falls, Oregon, granddaughter of Mrs. Hurn.

According to Mrs. Hurn the story of her granddaughter is based partly on fact. The locale is the Spencer creek district near Keno. The characters are members of the Spencer family, Modoc and Klamath Indians, and the time around the 1870's.

Mrs. Goeller was assisted during the tea hour by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Goeller Jr. Mrs. Harry Richardson was a special guest.

Mrs. Z. J. Powell will be hostess to the club Wednesday afternoon, January the fifteenth, 1941.

Spending a week of the holiday season at the W. T. Compton home on Melrose street is Mrs. Elton Jackson and two children of Tiller, Oregon. Mrs. Jackson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Compton and formerly resided here where she has many friends. Mr. Jackson will arrive Tuesday evening to spend Christmas with his family.

The dining room table was centered with a miniature Christmas tree with gum drops used for color.

Mrs. Dick Reeder will entertain the group the middle of January.

If It Be Glamour for Gifts Then Let It Be Crystal

Genuine crystal is sparkling and luxurious to look at, but it isn't expensive to buy.

For your own table, or for those of your friends, Fostoria American is the final word in good tableware. It is so durable and solid you can use it every day—it is so good looking you can use it on your "company" table and feel proud of it, and the price is best of all—$5.40 a dozen for stemware, 45c to $3.95 for odd pieces to match and art ware.
