AUXILIARY WARNS 'LEST-WE-FORGET'

"While America is making itself strong against today's dangers, it must not forget the men who gave their strength in the country's service 23 years ago," Mrs. S. F. Konnie, president, Klamath Falls unit of the American Legion auxiliary, said today as she aided the auxiliary campaign for 1941 members.

"A country which forgets its defenders of the past is not likely to have men eager to risk their lives in its defense in the future," she continued. "America has not forgotten or been ungrateful to the disabled veterans of the World war, for it is a great continuing work of the American Legion and auxiliary to make sure that their needs are supplied."

After describing the benefits gained from the government for the disabled men and their families through Legion and auxiliary action, Mrs. Konnie pointed out that the need for effort in their behalf is now greater than ever.

"With the country's attention focused upon defense preparations, the auxiliary must work harder than ever to hold the benefits gained for the disabled, for wives and children, for the widows and orphans of the dead, and for the aged parents. We must not permit the idea to spring up in American minds that service to country is rewarded only by suffering and hardships for the men who serve and those dependent upon them."

"The auxiliary's activities for the disabled veterans and dependents are interesting and varied. There is deep satisfaction in doing things to help these men who have done so much for the country. The auxiliary needs fullest strength for this work this year. It needs the influence of every available woman behind its plea for generous treatment of the disabled. We are hoping that all the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of veterans in Klamath Falls will be with us this year as we strive on for 'those who have borne the battle'."

Frank H. Schmidt, 2333 White avenue, for 10 years an employee of the Oregon state highway department, and recently a WPA employee, died late Friday afternoon a short time after he was admitted to Hillside hospital.

Mr. Schmidt became ill on the street and city police were called to give aid. A cleaning wagon carried the man to the hospital. Death was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Earl Whitlock Funeral home.
