

CONGRESS ENDS PEAK SESSION, 367 DAYS LONG

(Continued From Page One) Europe. In the house, shortly before adjournment, Rep. Cox, (D-Ga.) asserted that President Roosevelt's Sunday night address on defense and aid to Britain was "in effect a declaration of war."

After its talk of war the senate took up the nomination of J. Warren Madden, former labor board chairman, to be a member of the court of claims.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), urged Senator King (D-Utah), presiding, to rule the nomination out of order, thus killing it for the session.

Taft based his request on the assertion that the judiciary committee approved the nomination without a meeting, members having been polled informally.

Lack of a quorum has prevented earlier consideration of the nomination. Senator Taft (R-O.), who has announced his intention to fight confirmation, said he would discuss the whole administration of the national labor act in connection with his opposition to Madden.

British Give No Sign of Starting Bardia Assault

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 2 (P)—RAF bombers smashed at Bardia during the night, an official communique announced today, but still there was no sign of the all-out land, sea and air assault counted necessary to wrest that eastern Libyan base from the Italian garrison which has held it for 17 days of siege.

In fact, reports from the western desert suggested the British army might not wait to take Bardia before striking at a second big Italian base, Tobruk, west of Bardia and 80 miles inside Libya from the Egyptian frontier.

The RAF dropped explosives on Bardia in virtually a blind attack. "While bombs burst in the objective area," said the communique, "details of the damage were not observed."

Staub, home from Camp Clatsop for the holidays, returned north. Judge Ackerman continued the case.

James O. Anderson, charged with failure to observe a stop sign, posted $5 bail which he forfeited. As the result of too much New Year's cheer, 12 drunks appeared in police court Thursday morning along with one vag and one charged with being disorderly. Seven traffic tickets were paid, first of the new year.
