Kiwanis Party

One of the gayest parties of the year, reminiscent of the holidays now just passed, was the Kiwanis dinner dance Tuesday evening at Reames Golf and Country club, when annual installation of officers was observed.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, and Mr. and Mrs. Keva Hutchinson. Serving as toastmaster for the affair was Mr. Robert Thompson.

Mr. Fred Southwell was formally inducted into office as president of the Klamath Falls Kiwanis club, and other 1941 officers to serve with him are, Mr. Lawrence Slater, vice president; Mr. Keva Hutchinson, secretary; Mr. Bert C. Thomas, treasurer; Mr. George McIntyre, Mr. Ray Bigger, Mr. Don Drury, Mr. Malcolm Epley, Mr. E. M. Igl, Mr. Ernest Marsh, Dr. George Massey, Mr. Willard Ward, and Mr. Ed Ostendorf, members of the board of directors.

Mr. Phillip Hitchcock of Bend, district lieutenant governor of Kiwanis, installed the officers. He was accompanied to Klamath Falls by Mrs. Hitchcock.

A social hour was enjoyed from a quarter past six o'clock until seven o'clock when dinner was served at attractively decorated tables lighted by dozens of tall candles. Dancing followed dinner.

Of special interest during the program was the appearance of the community chorus sponsored by the Kiwanis club which made its initial appearance and received an appreciative round of applause at the close of its numbers. Those who had the good fortune to hear the chorus, directed by Mr. Charles Stanfield, feel that Klamath Falls is indeed fortunate to have such a musical group which promises to do much in the entertainment field here. Mr. Harold Ayres was presented in several interesting piano numbers which he played during the dinner hour.

Fun feature of the evening was a quiz program with Mr. Robert Thompson appearing at the "mike" as Professor Quiz. Mr. Elbert Veatch was named the winner of the contest.

The cameraman walked into Reames Golf and Country club Tuesday evening where the installation party of Kiwanis club was in full swing. Throughout the room he spied a great many of Klamath's leading citizens and citizenesses as they dined at gaily decorated tables. Looking serious over their dessert were Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, caught unawares by the flash from the picture-taking machine!
