

TRIO BATTLES FOR TOP OAKLAND GOLF PURSE

Missed Putt Costly For Harrison

Hogan, Dodson Tied for Lead With Arkansas Traveler; $1200 First Prize

By RUSS NEWLAND
OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 13 (AP)—Oakland's fifth annual $5000 open golf tournament was finished for most of the boys Monday but three musketeers were still shooting for what amounted to half the original purse.

Tied with 72-hole totals of 276 and prepared to battle it out at 18 holes, E. J. "Dutch" Harrison, Ben Hogan and Leonard Dodson had an early afternoon date to settle ownership of $1200 first prize, $750 second and $550 consolation.

A couple of "broken arm" missed putts changed the tournament from a regulation finish into a play-off. Harrison, the Little Rock, Ark., traveler of the winter divot digging circuit, was guilty of one. Hogan, the little Texan, who switched golfing headquarters to White Plains, N. Y., and became the leading money winner of 1940, was charged with the other.

Harrison, leader for the second and third rounds, had top money virtually in his pocket when he stepped up to a four-foot putt on the 18th green. He missed it. It cost him a 275.

In the same threesome was Dodson, now a pro at Kansas City but a true son of the Ozarks—Springfield, Mo. Dodson knocked in his last putt for a par 79 and a tie with Harrison.

Fourth place money of $450 went to Harry Cooper of Chichester, Mass., with a 279. Other cash was distributed as follows: 280—Mark Fry, Oakland, and Jimmy Hines, Great Neck, L. I., $250 each.

282—Defending Champion Jimmy Demaret, Houston, Texas; Fred Wood, Vancouver, B. C.; and Harold McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., $230 each.

283—Claude Harmon, Orlando, Fla.; Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y.; Herman Keiser, Akron, Ohio; and Denny Shute, West Newton, Mass., $185 each.

284—George Schneider, Ogden, Utah, and Jim Walkup, Odessa, Texas, $85 each.

Huskies and Beavers Nab Early Hoop Lead

Washington Plays Kings-ex Contest This Week; OSC Clashes With Twice Defeated Ducks

By The Associated Press
The University of Washington, with two straight victories behind it, was in what might be termed a super-strategic position in the northern division of the Pacific coast conference basketball race this week.

As of Monday, Washington and Oregon State—the latter defending champion—are tied for leadership of the division with perfect records.

Washington, however, plays only kings-ex games with Montana this week, while Oregon State faces its inter-mural enemy, the University of Oregon in a game that can't be anything but a donnybrook, no matter who wins. Should OSC lose—and anything can happen when those neighbors down in the Willamette valley get together—Washington will have the leadership roll to itself next Sunday; and even if the Beavers win, Washington's record will still be perfect in so far as the division is concerned. The Huskies meet Montana twice, but it's all in fun.

The only other game on the week's program pits Washington State, with two wins and two losses on its record, against Idaho at Pullman.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 13 (UP)—The Washington State college basketball team built up an 11 point first half advantage over the University of Oregon and maintained it to win, 55-40, before 5000 spectators Saturday night.

Washington State led at half time, 28-17. Paul Lindeman led the Staters' attack with excellent shooting and floor work.

SEATTLE, Jan. 13 (UP)—University of Washington's sharpshooting basketball team came from behind to win 39-37 overtime triumph over the University of Idaho Saturday night.

It was the second consecutive triumph for the Huskies in the opening series of their northern division, Pacific Coast conference campaign. Idaho led at halftime, 17 to 15, but at the end of regular playing time the score was tied, 36-all.

Washington won Friday night 45 to 43.

DAVIS, Cal., Jan. 13 (UP)—San Francisco State college defeated California Aggies 40-32 Saturday in a basketball game. It was San Francisco's second consecutive victory.

San Francisco led at halftime 30-11. Bob Fordes of the Aggies, and Tom McCarty of San Francisco were tied for high point honors with 12 each.

KUHS Drops Opener to Frosh Quint

Free Tosses by Olson Win for Klamathites; Pelicans Lose 24 to 28

By BILL CUMMINGS
Two free throws in the last minute of play, tossed by Don Olson, gave an inspired combination of Klamath Commercial league all-stars a 37-36 victory over the Southern Oregon College of Education varsity Saturday night on the KUHS floor.

In a preliminary the Klamath high Pelicans, after keeping pace with their taller opponents most of the game, dropped behind in the final minutes to lose to the SOCE frosh 24-28.

With four minutes to go in the nightcap, the all-stars forged into a 35-35 deadlock when Paul Crapo swished in two howitzers from far out on the floor. George Bassman, huge Sons center, caged a free throw soon after, but that was the last tally hung up by the Ashland outfit.

Olson, who plays for Ricky's Jewelers in the commercial loop, was fouled by Chuck DeAutrement, Sons guard, with 60 seconds left in the ballgame. He stepped to the free throw line and sent No. 1 spinning around the rim before it finally fell in to tie the score. His second toss furnished the locals their one-point victory margin.

With only seconds left, Olson fouled Bobby Hoefs but the Ashlander missed the single try—a point that would have deadlocked the contest.

The All-Stars took a 7-5 lead in the first half, before the Sons, smoother ball-handlers than the Klamathites, began to find the range. SOCE led 16-15 at the rest period.

In the preliminary the Little Sons controlled the backboard by virtue of superior height, and staved off the Pelicans' with a tight zone defense.

The Klamath quint, showing better form than in their victory over Prineville the previous night, led 11-10 at the first quarter and 17-16 at the half.

Eugene Love, guard, tallied 9 points for the Pelicans to lead the scoring for the game. Spade and Peters of the Frosh tied with 7 apiece.

These four wrestlers, who have battled their way into the semi-finals of the Pacific Coast wrestling tournament, will clash Tuesday night at the armory in a card which will narrow the race to two contestants for the coveted junior heavyweight belt. They are Mike Nazarian (upper left) and Dan McShain (upper right), opponents in the top bout of the evening; Ernie Piluso (lower left) and Jesse James, opponents in the other tournament match. Red Lyons will meet Otis Clingman in a non-tournament opener.

Cougars, Vandals Hold Top Scoring Positions

EUGENE, Jan. 13 (AP)—The top four positions in the northern division, Pacific Coast conference individual scoring race are held by Washington State and Idaho basketball players following the first week of league play, unofficial figures revealed today. The statistics revealed that despite the "lowly" positions of the Cougars and Vandals, the two inland empire quintets boast considerable scoring punch.

Paul Lindeman of WSC, the biggest man in the conference at 6-foot-7 and 225 pounds, holds down the top position with 41 points scored in four games while his team was dropping two games to Oregon State and sweeping a two-game series with the University of Oregon. Two teammates, Ray Sundquist and Kirk Gebert, follow the big center with 34 and 27 points, respectively. Tied with Gebert is Otis Hilton, 6-foot-7 Idaho center. The No. 5 spot is held by Norm Dalthrop, sensational sophomore forward for the University of Washington, with 26.

R. Cochran Takes 1941 Track Start

Wolcott, Kane, Munski Win Specialties at Boston Indoor Competition

BOSTON, Jan. 13 (UP)—Greg Rice of South Bend, Ind., voted the 1940 Sullivan award as the nation's outstanding amateur athlete, continued to rule the two-mile ranks when he raced to a thrilling stretch triumph in the Governor Leverett Saltonstall special at the Veterans of Foreign Wars track meet in Boston garden Saturday night.

By TOM NOONAN
BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 13 (UP) Roy Cochran of Indiana jumped ahead at the starter's gun and led all the way to win the George W. Cronin Memorial 600-yard run as the 1941 indoor track season officially opened at the third annual Veterans of Foreign Wars meet before 5000 fans in Boston garden Saturday night.

Cochran, a standout low hurdler, kept a couple of yards in front of the closely-packed field and turned on the heat in the backstretch to defeat Johnny Quigley, Manhattan sophomore, by seven yards in the fast time of 1 minute 12.9 seconds.

Fred Wolcott, Rice institute speedster who flew here to attempt a double triumph, won the Arthur Duffy 50-yard dash special with a sensational closing lift. Wolcott, the nation's top-notch outdoor hurdler, won by one yard over Robert McGlone, Holy Cross athlete.

Wolcott, who recently won the Sugar bowl high hurdles for the third straight year, completed his double by racing to a close triumph over Eddie Dugger, Tufts negro, in the William A. Reilly 45-yard high hurdles. The Rice institute athlete, who played football this past season, equalled the world's indoor record of 5.7 seconds.

Campbell Kane, Indiana junior and national collegiate champion, took the lead on the second lap, lost it but regained command in the backstretch to win the Paul A. Dever half mile.

Kane, second here last season and runner-up in the national AAU championship, churned his powerful legs through the stretch to whip James H. Kehoe Jr., of the Washington AA, by a foot in the slow time of 1:56.

John Munski, Missouri grad and Big Six titlist, continued his climb to the mile throne vocated by Glen Cunningham, when he easily whipped a field of five in the Mayor Maurice J. Tobin one-mile special.

Munski won by 10 yards over Walter Mehl, Wisconsin graduate, who stepped down from the two-mile ranks to gain the title last season. Munski's time of 4:14.4 was considered slow.

Chuck Fenske, bespectacled Wisconsin grad and 1940 indoor champion, was far back in the race and only succeeded in gaining third at the expense of fast-tiring Leslie MacMitchell, New York university junior, who set the pace more than half the route.

750 Ski Fans Visit Lake Over Sunday

A swirling snowstorm failed to daunt approximately 750 skiers—largest number of snow fans yet to turn out at Crater lake this season—Sunday at the ski area near the rim.

Free instruction for beginners was the highlight of a busy day at the ski bowl while on Knob hill record numbers of kanonen used the electric lift.

Chairman Herb Berry and Instructor Al Carlson conducted free lessons for a large number of novices, the school being limited to members of the Crater Lake ski club. It was the first in a series of lessons sponsored by the club.

Those who want to the lake Saturday reported ideal weather and snow conditions, but a heavy overcast settled over the ski area Sunday and a high snow-filled wind made visibility poor. The snow surface, however, was good.

A large number of skiers attended the party Saturday night at the warming hut, sponsored by the Crater Lake Ski Patrol.

Several minor injuries occurred and one skier reportedly received a dislocated knee.
