Nova to Get Title Shot In September NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (UP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs announced today that Lou Nova will get a heavyweight title shot in September. "If he beats one or two good boys between now and then," Because of Nova's impressive 10-round victory over young Pat Comiskey Friday night, Jacobs now regards the Californian as the logical opponent to meet the winner of the June bout between Joe Louis and Billy Conn. Despite demands by press and fans that Conn tackle Nova before meeting Louis in June, Jacobs declared that there would be no Conn-Nova bout before June. "I have contracted for Conn to meet Louis in June, and I can't break that contract," he said. CAN YOU BEAT IT? MINNEAPOLIS, (AP)—Never make any bets with Kirsten Fingstad about solitaire. The opera star, while here for a concert, revealed that she plays and keeps books on what she believes are the 14 hardest solitaire games. She started keeping books after someone asked her how many times she won. She guessed one in a hundred, then set out to play 1000 games of each kind. After 14,000 games, she found she averaged 10 wins in a hundred.
