MRS. FRANCIS ROBERT OLDS, (left), and Mrs. C. G. Reymers, look over the interesting display of old wine glasses shown at the Library club specialty show Monday by Mrs. Olds and Mrs. Harry W. Balthany. The collection was one of the most attractive arranged at the exhibit.

Among the guests at Monday's show were Mrs. Willard Peyton, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, and Mrs. Walter F. Brown, (right), the latter showing an exciting display of oil paintings which has brought favorable comment from over the state.

HANSEL AND GRETEL, a pair of bewitching puppets, are being manipulated by two high school boys. A talk on "Puppetry," was given by Mrs. E. F. Livingston at the Library club show.

The display of wood work at Monday's show catches the interest of Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, one of several hundred women to visit the exhibit on Monday.

Dolls from all over the world were shown by Mrs. J. Fred Flock as the collection of her young daughter, Margaret, caused a great deal of interest. Mrs. Dean Osborn, (left), is hearing about dolls from Mrs. Flock.
