

Library Club Show Interest to Many

Wide Variety of Exhibits Makes Monday Program Of Women's Organization Outstanding

Collections from a dozen cupboards, the display of as many specialties, and the showing of hobbies resulted in one of the most interesting programs presented this year by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. Mrs. E. P. Livingston spoke and gave a demonstration on the subject of puppetry, followed by a discussion of Indian baskets which were also shown by Mrs. Don C. Fisher from her own collection. "Women and Wood Working" was discussed by Mrs. Louise Steinerson who had arranged a display for the benefit of those interested.

Music was under the direction of Miss Lillie Darby, music supervisor of the city schools. George Long and Mary Griffiths were presented in a flute duet, and Harry Tindall, Stephen Stone, Meade Badger, and Cowell Barnstable, made up a brass quartet. All numbers were received with enthusiasm.

Officers Installed

Degree of Honor Entertains for Families On Monday

Families and friends of members of the Degree of Honor attended an open meeting and installation of officers in the KC hall Monday evening, January the thirteenth.

Installing officer was State President Cressa Grubb, assisted by Installing Past President, Grace Buck, who gave the obligations, and Installing Usher, Eliza McDonald.

Newly installed officers are Estella Smith, president; Marie Tillman, past president; Esther Adkisson, vice president; Freda Ustick, second vice president and juvenile director; Lillie Melas, financial secretary; Jennie Hurn, treasurer; Bonnie Lepley, usher; Alma Foster, assistant usher; Dorothy Derrah, inner watch; Zola Lepley, outer watch; Flora Olson, pianist.

At close of the installation ceremony, guests were entertained by Mr. Parkhurst, vocal soloist, Ruth Matthews, tap dancer, Marie Jones, guitar soloist, and little Jerry Giesler, vocal soloist. The initial public performance of the drill team attired in lovely peach taffeta formal, followed. Refreshments were then served.

ART NEEDLE WORK CLUB HAS MEETING

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, president of the Art Needle Work club, presented an impromptu program at the meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Z. J. Powell, on Walnut street. Mrs. Martin has become an enthusiastic philatelist, and had her album there to prove it. While she does not expect to surpass F. D. R.'s collection, she does have an interesting collection of stamps, and enjoys this hobby.

Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall brought to club a December, 1888, issue of Godey's Lady's Book, which she recently picked up at a sale in Crescent City, California. The magazine carries several colored plates showing the exaggerated bustles, slim waists, and other features of the styles of that period.

Mrs. Powell produced an old family album, one which Mr. Powell found at his old home on Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota, during a visit there a few years ago. Some of the old pictures were lovely to see; some of the young beaux in their curled mustaches, short, tight coats and low derby hats looked funny, as we will, no doubt, look funny to those who look at our pictures fifty years from now.

Mrs. Harold M. Brown brought to club a newspaper clipping from the December 15, 1940, Southtown (Chicago) Economist, which told about a letter written by Mrs. Brown's niece who is in England with her husband, a surgeon in the English army. At Mrs. Brown's request, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones read the story to the members. Many details of the suffering, economies, nerve strain and courage of the English women during this present siege are pictured in the article.

Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard of Portland, for many years a resident of Modoc Point, was a special guest, as also were Mrs. C. W. Murdoch and Mrs. E. M. Bourquin.

Mrs. Marion Hanks will entertain for the pleasure of the club Wednesday, February the fifth, at her home on Pine street.
