

MRS. WILLARD BEVERLY THOMAS, the former Starla Parvin, is one of Klamath Falls' most attractive mid-winter brides. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were married January the eighteenth in Reno, Nevada. At the close of the school year in Medford, Mrs. Thomas will return here to reside.

SOCIETY

LOIS STEWART

HOSTESSES AT ONE OF THE YEAR'S most interesting parties were Mrs. Ted Shoop, left, and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, both standing with their guests. Back to the camera is Mrs. John Cusick, and around the table are Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. George Erickson, and Mrs. Lloyd Porter.

Colonial Ball Set

Gay hats, all sorts of noise makers, bright confetti, and streamers made the mid-winter carnival party given by the Winter Dancing club at the Willard hotel one of the outstanding parties of the season. The affair was an event of Saturday evening with dancing starting at ten o'clock until after midnight.

A colonial ball is the next affair scheduled by the Winter Dancing club and slated for February the twenty-second. The fourth and last party of the series will be held on March the twenty-second, and appropriately called, "March-Hop."

Hosts Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleet, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis.

GUESTS AT THE PARTY MONDAY, given by Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, included Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook, extreme right, Mrs. Carl Steinseifer, back to the camera, Mrs. Edward B. Brosterhous, and Mrs. A. P. Heup.

Mid-Winter Party

One of the most delightful mid-winter parties which had a definite feeling of spring in the atmosphere, was that given Monday at one o'clock at the Willard hotel when Mrs. Roy Rakestraw and Mrs. Ted Shoop entertained at luncheon followed by bridge in the hotel ballroom.

Daffodils centered each small table and were used about the room. At cards honors went to Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook, high, and Mrs. George Adler, second high. Prizes were lovely cyclamen plants, again stressing the spring theme. Low score holders at each table were presented with daffodils.

More than eighty guests were invited to the affair.

SNAPPED AT THE WINTER DANCING CLUB party Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Gilchrist, (left) and Mrs. John Coppage as they entered the Willard hotel ballroom.

AT THE MID-WINTER CARNIVAL dance of the Winter Dancing club this group of dancers was photographed as they gathered about their table. Left to right, Mr. Earl Gardner, Mrs. Henri Conradi, Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mr. Noel Becar, Miss Marian Roberts, and Mr. Henri Conradi.

—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.