

Amaranth Court Has Installation

Visitors Attend Coronation Ceremony Conducted at Masonic Temple Saturday

Friendship Court No. 11 of Amaranth met for a special meeting on Saturday evening, January the eighteenth, in the Masonic auditorium to install the officers of the court for the year of 1941. Flowers and palms provided a colorful setting for the ceremony of installation and coronation.

Mr. William Milne, junior past royal patron, was the installing officer, assisted by Honored Lady Frances Hurlbut. Assisting this officer were Sir Knight William Laurens, Honored Ladies Edith Nachand, Clare Laurens, Margaret Howatson, Gladys Bartness and Bernice Mead.

Among the guests introduced were Mr. George Walton, generalissimo of the grand commandery of the state of Oregon; Mr. Lawrence Phelps, worshipful master of Klamath lodge No. 77, AF and AM; Miss Janice Bubb, honored queen of Daughters of Job; Mrs. Faye Sparks, guardian of Daughters of Job; Mr. Floyd Stanley, advisor of DeMolay; Mr. Jack Meyers, master councillor of DeMolay; Mr. Henry Rahlke, past royal patron.

A degree team of Daughters of Job presented a beautiful floral degree and other symbolic floor work, and Queen Janice was presented with a white Bible, a gift from Friendship Court.

The coronation ceremony was impressively conducted by Mrs. Margaret Howatson of Portland who uncrowned the junior past royal matron, Mrs. Frances Reeves, previous to the crowning of Mrs. E. A. Long beneath a canopy of sabers formed by Mr. William Laurens, Mr. Henry Rahlke, Mr. William Milne and Mr. Willard Ward, surrounded by a floral patrol. During this ceremony Mrs. R. R. Probstel sang "For You" and "The One Rose."

Miss Lois Cassel, with appropriate remarks, presented Mrs. Reeves with her past royal matron's jewel, and Mrs. Reeves made a presentation to Mr. Milne of his past royal patron's jewel. Using a few lines of verse appropriate to the occasion, Mrs. Laura Stephenson presented the retiring royal matron with a gift from her officers, and Mr. Henry Rahlke presented the retiring royal officer with a gift from his officers. Gifts and flowers were received by the newly installed royal matron, including a lovely corsage from the Daughters of Job, and in her acceptance speech she included the following lines:

"Our court is a ship on the ocean of time.

Its cargo is dear to your hearts and mine.

Let love be our lighthouse to show us the way.

To steer clear of temptations day by day.

Let's all pull together as we strive for our goal—I'm only the captain. You are the soul.

The meeting was closed with "The Evening Prayer" sung by Mrs. Betty Swansen and Mrs. Ethel Mathews. Later refreshments were served in the parlors.

Officers installed included the following:

Mrs. Eva Lea Long, royal matron; Mrs. Letta Goehring, associate royal matron; Mr. Willard Ward, associate royal patron; Mrs. Laura Stephenson, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Mathews, treasurer; Mrs. Marian Dickson, conductress; Mrs. Isabelle Milne, associate conductress; Mrs. Alma Cofer, trustee; Mrs. Grace Wells, marshal in the east; Mrs. Blanche Schultze, marshal in the west; Mrs. Nedra Hunt, prelate; Mrs. Eva Smith, Prute; Mrs. Agnes Solsberg, Wisdom; Mrs. Joyce Ward, Charity; Mrs. Lois Cassel, musician; Mrs. Maryellen Gastnor, historian; Mrs. Ann Pearce, warder, and Mrs. Frances Reeves, sentinel.

The following committee appointments were made:

Ways and means, Mrs. Letta Goehring, Mrs. Nieta West and Mrs. Reeves; finance, Mrs. Bernice Mead, Mrs. Freda Jackson and Mrs. Myrtle Reynolds; refreshments, Mrs. Ida Grimes and Mrs. Ruth Stanley; entertainment, Mrs. Edith Cassel, Mrs. Ethel Mathews and Mrs. Blanche Schultze; publicity, Mrs. Alma J. Cofer; decorations, Mrs. Marian Dickson and Miss Isabelle Milne; songbirds, Mrs. Betty Swansen and Mrs. Ethel Mathews.

A large group of officers and members of Amaranth met at the Bateau Sunday morning for a nine o'clock breakfast, honoring visiting members from Portland and Prineville when an hour of informal talks and music was enjoyed, the visitors leaving later in the day for their homes.

Gilchrists Honored

Housewarming Event Of Wednesday Evening

A surprise housewarming was given Wednesday evening at seven o'clock for Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Gilchrist at their new home in St. Francis park by members of the district committee of Boy Scouts and their wives.

Potluck supper was enjoyed with games and cards following. A chair was presented to the Gilchrists by the committee members including Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Norland, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene V. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks, Miss Beth G. Klahn, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendricks, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Constans, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ivory, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Dr. and Mrs. Boyd Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scharfstein, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. B. Anthony Manno.

MRS. MCKENDREE HOSTESS WITH SPRING PARTY

MERRILL—Mrs. Scott McKendree was a gracious hostess on Monday to a number of friends at a delightfully arranged afternoon of bridge and pinocle following a half past one o'clock luncheon. Yellow and bronze marigolds about the rooms and clever patriotic table appointments added to the enjoyment of the guests. At bridge high honors went to Mrs. Homer Heaton and low to Mrs. Dan Cashman while at pinocle Mrs. Lewis Kandra took high honors and the consolation award went to Mrs. Dan Barry.

The guest list included Mrs. Dan Cashman, Mrs. J. R. Steele, Mrs. R. W. Steele, Mrs. Elmer Stukel, Mrs. C. E. Sharp, Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, Mrs. Homer Heaton, Mrs. A. J. King, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Mrs. Dan Barry and Mrs. O. T. McKendree.

LAKEVIEW AAUW MEMBERS ARRANGE MEET

LAKEVIEW—Thirty-two of the thirty-seven members of the Lakeview branch of the American Association of University Women were present at the first 1941 meeting of the branch January the eighteenth. Legislation to come before this year's session of the Oregon legislature was the theme of the program arranged by Mrs. Ernest Lund, legislative chairman. Speakers were Miss Marjorie Johnston, Miss Kathryn Koppedge, and Mrs. William Halloway. A rather provocative feature of the meeting was a questionaire entitled "What do you know about your state government?" "One Alone," a vocal solo by Mrs. Max Gilinsky, was accompanied by Mrs. Carl Williams at the piano.

Further plans were made at the meeting for the formal musicale and tea January the twenty-fourth at the high school auditorium. Mrs. Richard Corbett is in charge of the music and Mrs. Forrest Cooper of the tea to follow. Time is eight o'clock in the evening.

Special Meeting Of Club Held

The Rebekah Social club met in the tea room of the Willard hotel Thursday, January the twenty-third. A luncheon was served and a lecture given by Wanda Dean. Forty-eight were present. Following the lecture contract bridge and pinocle were played.

Mrs. Mildred Moses was high at bridge and Mrs. Price high in pinocle. The door prize was given to Mrs. Anna Bean.

OFFICERS

Mrs. Frances Reeves, retiring royal matron of Friendship court, Order of the Amaranth, (above), received a jewel from members of her court. Mrs. Eva Lea Long, (below), took office as royal matron of the court in impressive ceremonies Saturday evening in the Masonic temple hall.

—Pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News

MRS. SHAW TO RETURN HOME FROM SOUTH

Friends of Mrs. Clara Shaw will be interested to learn she is expected to return to Klamath Falls this weekend by train after having spent the past few months in San Bernardino, and Stockton, California, recovering from a serious illness of last fall.

Mrs. Shaw has been with her granddaughter, Mrs. Allan F. Priest.

New Officers Installed

Estel Bright Becomes Oracle of Lodge at Ceremony

The Royal Neighbors of America met at the IOOF hall Wednesday, January the fifteenth for installation of officers for the new year. Two distinguished visitors, Neighbor Lenore Broll of Ashland, state supervisor, and Neighbor Marjorie Pearson of Medford, district deputy, were introduced, welcomed and presented with corsages.

The installing officer, Neighbor Anna Woolver, and her ceremonial marshal, Edna Stein, were introduced by the marshal and presented with corsages. The following officers were installed: Estel Bright, oracle; Lucille Helfer, past oracle; Melissa Hammel, vice oracle; Maud Shuey, recorder; Kate Hogue, secretary; Francis Killian, chancellor; Edna Stein, in-door sentinel; Anna Blewer, outer sentinel; Amanda Farris, manager; Lola Myers, degree staff captain; Dr. Sarah Smith, physician; Mildred Wilkinson, musician; Sarah Chilcote, flag bearer; Myrtle Hart, Faith; Avanel Hart, Courage; Vesta Spetz, Modesty; Marcella Thorn, Unselfishness; Martha Baker, Endurance.

Lucille Helfer, past oracle, was presented a past oracle pin from the lodge, her daughter, Ninon Nyback making the presentation. A basket of flowers was also given her by the Past Oracles club by their president, Jennie Arnold.

After installation a program was held. Mrs. McCowan presented Mr. McCowan and Jacqueline McKee in an Argentine tango. Mr. McCowan in a waltz clog and little Alice Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson in a ballet dance. Mrs. Bridge and Mrs. Terwilliger sang two songs accompanied by Mrs. Alma Cofer on the piano. Neighbor Elsie Larson's small daughter gave a couple of numbers accompanied by her mother.

Following the entertainment refreshments were served followed by dancing with music by Shorty Wilkerson's orchestra. The next meeting will be Wednesday, February fifth at the IOOF hall at half past seven o'clock.

MRS. PELTZ HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peltz entertained Tuesday evening with a theatre party and supper on the occasion of Mrs. Peltz' birthday anniversary. Following the movie at the Pine Tree, supper was served at the Peltz home to Mr. and Mrs. George Walton and daughter, Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mr. and Mrs. Walter West, and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Tingley.

MRS. CASSEL HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. M. C. Cassel entertained at her home on Auburn street Wednesday at one o'clock luncheon for members of her bridge club. Guests were Mrs. B. A. Purcell, and Mrs. Ted Shoop. Members present were Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. Arthur Schupp, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, and Mrs. Lillian Hagman.

Friends regret the departure of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Cassel who will leave soon for Seattle to make their home. Dr. Cassel will go north the first of February, Mrs. Cassel to follow later.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS STUDY GROUP TO MEET MONDAY

"Problems Underlying Western Hemisphere Defense" is the subject to be discussed by the Foreign Affairs study group of the League of Women Voters Monday afternoon, January the twenty-seventh, at the chamber of commerce at two o'clock.

What are the economic problems facing hemispheric solidarity? Can they be met? What measures should come within a program for the defense of the Western Hemisphere? Can such a program be carried out without the United States resorting to imperialism and without changing its economic system?

Every woman in the Klamath Basin whether a member of the league or not who is interested in finding an answer to these questions and similar ones is invited to attend this meeting.

Date Changed For Concert

Albert Spaulding to Appear Here April the First

Announcement was made Saturday by George Myers, president of the Klamath Basin Cooperative Concert association, of the change in the date of the Albert Spaulding violin concert. The date now will be Tuesday, April the first, at eight o'clock in the Pelican theatre.

The change was made necessary by a radio contract, but is highly beneficial to Klamath Falls people as the original date was set for spring vacation in the schools when many parents, teachers, and students would have been absent from the city.

MERRILL GIRL BECOMES BRIDE IN ARIZONA

MERRILL—Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Merrill, announce the marriage on Friday, January the seventeenth at Phoenix, Arizona, of their daughter Marjorie to Mr. Len Stallard, son of Mrs. Charles Card, also of Merrill.

The young couple, both well known here, were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beall, Miss Hazel Vancent and Mr. Ray Huntziger, all of Exeter, California where Mr. and Mrs. Stallard will make their home.

Mr. Stallard, employed by the government at Exeter, is a graduate of St. Patrick's academy, Portland. Mrs. Stallard who recently has been associated with the Merrill Mills in a secretarial capacity is a graduate of the Merrill high school with the class of 1940.

AUXILIARY MAKES PLANS FOR SPRING TEA

An event of interest is planned for Wednesday afternoon, February the nineteenth, when members of the auxiliary to the Klamath Medical society entertain at tea honoring wives of new doctors who have come to Klamath Falls to make their homes.

The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns and tea hours will be from three o'clock until five o'clock.

Miss Whitlatch Weds On Sunday

Well-Known Girl Becomes Bride of Mr. Thome At Quiet Home Ceremony

Miss Joyce Whitlatch, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Whitlatch, became the bride of Mr. Van Ramon Thome of this city, son of Mrs. L. V. Thome of Seattle, Washington, at a simple but lovely home ceremony performed Sunday morning, January the nineteenth, at half past nine o'clock at the bride's home on Crescent avenue.

Preceding the service, Mrs. L. K. Johnson sang, "O Promise Me," followed by Mendelssohn's wedding march. The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Victor Phillips in an archway formed of palms and pink and yellow roses blossoming in pastel spring.

The bride who was unattended wore for the occasion a nutria brown ensemble of wool crepe, trimmed with fur of a darker shade, with matching accessories. A single orchid formed her corsage and her only jewelry was an antique bracelet of her mother's.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party, and the few relatives and close friends in attendance, including Mrs. Thome who was here from Seattle, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Van Steenberg of Lake Stevens, Washington, an uncle and aunt of the groom. A three-tiered wedding cake of gleaming white was cut by the bride and served to the guests. Assisting about the rooms during the breakfast hour were Mrs. Vern Whitlatch and Mrs. R. W. Brown.

Others present besides the out-of-town guests and parents of the bride were the Rev. Phillips, Mrs. L. K. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Whitlatch. Following a short wedding trip, the young couple will make their home at 514 Eldorado street.

Mrs. Thome was reared in Klamath county and graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1936, being a popular member of the younger group. The groom, formerly of Pierre, South Dakota, holds a position with the Great Northern railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peltz will leave for San Francisco to spend a week or ten days.

Twenty Present At Meeting Of Rebekah Club

The Rebekah Social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday afternoon, January the twenty-second at two o'clock with twenty members present. Pinocle was played after a short business meeting, and following this, refreshments were served by Mrs. Nina Beck, Mrs. Anna Bean and Mrs. Louise Biehn.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, February the fifth at two o'clock in the IOOF hall. The entertainment committee includes Mrs. Devree Barker, Mrs. Margaret Biven, Mrs. R. V. Ess and Miss Katherine Ess.

Again Max Factor Hollywood announces a new and original idea in Make-Up... it's TRU-COLOR LIPSTICK... the one lipstick that incorporates the four most wanted lip make-up features.

Four Amazing Features...

1. The lifelike red of your lips.
2. Non-drying, but indelible.
3. Safe for sensitive lips.
4. Eliminates lipstick line.

Rita Whisenant

Our Beauty Aid Specialist

will be pleased to give free consultation on selecting the proper make-up to harmonize with, and bring out, the VITAL COLORING of your own particular skin type.

Everbody's CUT RATE DRUGS 808 MAIN

HEAR! HEAR!
"BIBLICAL BACKGROUND"
 What Archeology Unfolds - Historical - Non Doctrinal
Edyth Sage Armstrong of Columbia University, Teacher, lecturer on Biblical literature, history and ethnology
MONDAY, JANUARY 27
Elk Hotel
Banquet Room
 8 P. M. Admission $1

ONE WEEK ONLY
 WITHOUT CHARGE
 a full 100 box of
Charles of the Ritz individually blended face powder included with your purchase of other Ritz preparations
Eula Hamer
 SPECIAL SAISON CONSULTANT—will color-blend your face powder to match your skin. Replenish your beauty needs and obtain your powder without charge. One box to a customer.
McE'S