

COUNCIL GETS AIRPORT PLAN OFF TO START

The city and in the suburban area. The plan proposed by the council was to obtain gravel, prison labor and equipment from the county on a cost basis, but Commissioner Benner advised the meeting that the county court was not sure of its legal right to allow such expenditure of county funds on any but county roads. A ruling is being sought at the present time on a plan used by the county for some time, similar to the city's proposal.

"Black Rain" Studied
A committee appointed by Mayor Houston will meet with the court to seek further development of the plan.

A committee consisting of the council, the mayor and Fire Chief Keith Ambrose will meet with operators or engineers of various plants in Klamath Falls to study the soot, or "black rain" problem, acting on a suggestion of the planning commission.

Juvenile Officer David Bridge appeared before the council to ask enforcement of a curfew law for Klamath Falls. The present law requires all minors under 16 years of age to remain off the streets after 9 p. m., but it was the feeling of the council that time should be changed to 10 p. m. to allow for legitimate entertainment at theatres, skating rinks and the like. A report was asked for the next council meeting.

Two other problems were assigned to committees for closing action. Petition signers and interested persons were ordered invited to a meeting to discuss improvement of the center strip on Pacific Terrace, and a study was ordered to see if an agreement could be inserted in the Kennel club franchise to handle the job of disposing of dead animals.

Besides accepting reports of the city treasurer and city meat and dairy inspector, the council approved the bid of Winnie Hoak for providing meals for city prisoners, but rejected a California Oregon Power company bill for changing wiring for the fire alarm system, pending reconciliation of the $580 bill and the $250 estimate given the city previously.

FEDERAL EXPENSES FOR OREGON LISTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Federal emergency relief expenditures in Oregon for the 1941 fiscal year so far total $3,610,871.97, according to a report recently submitted by the president to congress.

The expenditures for the 1940 fiscal year aggregated $12,661,850.78.

The money was spent in Oregon in federal employe compensation commission allocations, in federal emergency relief administration grants, by the federal security agency, CCC, NYA, national education administration, in road construction, PWA loans and grants, WPA projects and veterans administration construction and improvements.

Butchers wore semi-formal dress, including top hats, while serving the trade in the England of 1840.

Trinitrotoluene, or TNT, was discovered in 1863, and still is considered the world's most effective high explosive.

Sales Meeting
W. A. Newhoff (above), sales executive for Union Oil company, was to participate in the company's annual advertising and sales meeting scheduled Tuesday night at the Willard Hotel.

PLAYS SLATED FOR EXTENSION SCHOOL

Izola Jensen, extension specialist in community social organization, Oregon State college, arrived in Klamath Falls Tuesday noon. She was to speak at the Fairview PTA at 3:30 and conduct a skit school at the Fremont school auditorium for recreation leaders of various organizations at 7:30.

Two skits and a pantomime were prepared by local groups to be presented at the skit school as demonstrations. Camp Fire leaders prepared a dramatic skit, "What All Housewives Know." The skit was directed by Mrs. Lawrence French, and the characters are as follows: consumer, Mrs. Jack Gallagher; magazine salesman, Marguerite Grove; Fuller brush man, Mrs. George Britt; chipso distributor, Al Ellis; vacuum cleaner man, Mrs. Andrew Shanks; electric refrigerator salesman, Mrs. George Doran; woman book agent, Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr., and Western Union man, Miss Phyllis Smith.

The pantomime, "The Lighthouse Keepers Daughter," will be presented by a group from Keno, directed by Mrs. Ross Putnam. Characters are as follows: lighthouse keeper, Darlene Parsons; lighthouse keeper's wife, Mrs. G. L. Moore; lighthouse keeper's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Johnston; the villain, Mrs. Ray Harris; doctor, Anastasia Zorosinski; reader, Mrs. C. C. Chase; director, Mrs. Ross Putnam.

The Midland YGA will present "We Have No Trains Today," directed by Harry Boyd. The characters are: Mirandy, Mrs. Leon Andrieu; Hiriam, Harry Boyd; and station agent, Louie Johns.

BIDS TO OPEN FOR REDDING-DELTA JOB

DENVER, Jan. 28 (AP)—Bids on a centralized traffic-control system for relocated tracks of the Southern Pacific railroad between Redding and Delta, Calif., will be opened Feb. 26 at Sacramento, Calif., by the federal reclamation bureau.

The tracks were relocated in developing the Kennett division of the central valley project.

The bureau also will open bids for clearing about 2150 acres on the Shasta reservoir site in the Kennett division at Sacramento Feb. 24.

Strong opposition to house bill No. 94, which would provide for distribution of highway revenues to counties on a basis of assessed valuation rather than motor car registration, was voiced by County Judge U. E. Reeder Tuesday following receipt of a letter from F. L. Phipps, executive secretary of the Association of Oregon Counties.

OREGON PIONEER DIES MONDAY

PORTLAND, Jan. 28 (AP)—Oregon's pioneer ranks thinned yesterday with the death of Mrs. Carrie Caples Saylor, 84, who came here with her parents in 1856.

She was the daughter of the late John F. Caples, prominent attorney and legislator in Oregon's early statehood and later US consul at Valparaiso, Chile. She was the widow of Dr. William H. Saylor, Portland physician. Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Returns—Mrs. W. J. Dinsmore returned to Klamath Falls Monday night after a two weeks' stay in San Francisco.

Lesson No. 22 SPOT LANDINGS
A description of progress made by one of the 10 students enrolled in the Klamath Falls civilian pilot training program.

Spot lessons were the order of the day as we entered Stage C-1, another phase of the flight program just having been completed. These landings are taken up first with the 180 degree approach, with the glide and turns regulated to bring the ship down between flags which have been spotted along the runway. I found that the most careful regulation of the glide is necessary to hit the desired point.

My first landing was good, but a hundred yards short of the mark. The second time, I hit the mark. As I practised I learned that I had a tendency to undershoot the mark, stretching out my rectangular gliding course too far. Only two out of six landings were within the flags, while combatting a strong wind drift, completed the lesson.

COUNTY JUDGE HITS HOUSE ROAD BILL

The house bill is not in accord with the resolution adopted by our convention, and would result in a decrease of revenue to 17 counties," Phipps stated in the letter. "Under the plan the allocation to Klamath county would be decreased about $3400."

Judge Reeder said the matter would be taken up before other members of the court Wednesday. The bill was introduced by Representatives French and Miller and Senator Steiwer.

LOCAL SEARCH FOR MISSING PLANE FAILS

(Continued From Page One) search there were made here and in Medford last night after A. J. Vollman, a trapper, came to the News and Herald offices with reports of having seen a large airplane flying low up Varney creek canyon Thursday afternoon, January 16, at 2:30 o'clock.

Three Sea Plane Vollman said the plane was headed south, flying in a blinding snowstorm with visibility of about 400 feet. It had continued in that direction and at that altitude, he said, it would have crashed into a sheer ridge which rises at the head of the canyon.

Vollman said three men told him they had seen the plane, one of them John Coumans, who previously telephoned the report to state police here. The head of the canyon lies a mile and a half north of Lake Harriet, six miles due east of Lake O' The Woods and a half mile west of Mt. Harriman.

This information was telephoned last night to Tom Culbertson, manager of the Medford airport, who said he would notify officers of the detachment of nine army bombers now located at the Medford port, and that one or more planes would be dispatched to search the area Tuesday.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 28 (UP)—Col. William H. Crom, commanding officer at McChord Field, last night announced that relatives and insurance beneficiaries of four officers aboard the twin-motored bomber missing since Jan. 16 had offered a $1000 reward for discovery of the plane.

KANSAS PREFERRED SEATTLE (AP)—Eugene V. Riley, 28, testified his wife left him and returned to Kansas "because she didn't like the weather here and wanted to be with her mother."

"She preferred the climate of Kansas to that of Puget Sound?" asked the judge. "Yes, sir," replied Riley. He was granted an interlocutory divorce.

HEALTH BOARD TO MEET TONIGHT

Two new members of the Klamath county board of health, William Ganong and Vance Vaupel, will attend a meeting tonight (Tuesday), in the Klamath health unit at Eighth and Pine streets.

Dr. Peter H. Rozendal said a number of important topics are to be brought up for discussion including new policies of the board. The health unit program will also be explained in detail to the board.

CARE URGED IN SNAPPING DEER

Persons who wish to take pictures of the many deer in Lava Beds national monument, should exercise caution in their approach according to Ranger Lawson Brainerd who was in Klamath Falls Tuesday on park business.

Brainerd said there were 331 persons visiting the monument Sunday and many came to take pictures of the deer. The amateur camera fans jump from their cars and chase the deer, Brainerd said, and the frightened animals run away. They will not run if cars simply stop and pictures are taken by persons from the cars or standing beside their machines.

There is very little snow in the monument but the Medicine lake highlands are covered.

HALL NAMED FOR WELFARE BOARD

E. B. Hall, proprietor of the Hall hotel, has been notified by Governor Charles A. Sprague that he has been appointed a member of the Klamath county public welfare commission. He will fill the unexpired term of John Reber, newly elected county commissioner.

The appointment will fill a vacancy which was brought about by Reber's election. Reber, previously a member of the welfare commission, automatically occupies one of the commission posts by virtue of his election, creating a vacancy in the welfare group. Reber replaced W. F. B. Chase as county commissioner.

The term will extend until June 30, 1942.

Hall has been notified that his commission is being forwarded by the governor.

SENATE APPROVES OWN PAY INCREASE

(Continued From Page One) cil's bill to promote sale of Oregon agricultural products by bringing about uniform grades and standards and authorizing "seals of quality" for premium products was introduced in the house today, as were bills to give employers the right to request unemployment compensation hearings and to prevent payment of jobless benefits to women who quit work to get married or to have babies.

A move to repeal all property tax exemptions was brewing in the house assessment and taxation committee, which held up approval of a measure extending exemption to parsonages.

Rep. Giles French (R-Sherman) said he objected to further tax exemptions, and favored cancelling all exemptions except those affecting federal property. The house passed three bills and sent them to the senate. One would provide that courts shall assume that in cases where a man and wife died in an accident, they shall be presumed to have died at the same time. Under existing law, the man is presumed to have died last, hence the man's descendants obtain the estate.
