

U-BOATS WILL SINK VESSELS WITHIN ZONE

Germany has no quarrel with the American people. . . . This time you do not find a weakened Germany, but one that is highly mobilized and full of fight.

"As regards Italy, let no one invent revolutions in Milan, but let them rather look out so there will not be revolutions in their own countries.

"Whenever we can strike at England we shall strike. Neither here nor in Italy can anybody scare anybody with his inventions.

"We will settle scores, square mile for square mile, the Duce and I are neither Jews nor monsters."

Ready for All
"Whenever England puts in an appearance, we will attack her and we are strong enough to do so.

"Perhaps they are hoping for other states they can drag in. I do not know, but you who know me will realize that every contingency has, in a matter-of-fact manner, been calculated.

"Perhaps they (the British) are counting on hunger. We have organized our life rationally. There never will be hunger and no lack of raw materials.

"They undertook an idiotic attempt to bring a cleavage between the Duce and the Italian people. Another lord might come and try to separate me from the German people; others have tried that and failed . . .

Counts Mistakes
"This generation is full of fight. Blow for blow we will return and if the world were full of devils we would succeed anyway.

"One English statesman figures out I have made seven mistakes in the past year. I checked up and found I had made 724 mistakes, but my enemies 4,385,000."

There was laughter at this juncture.

U-Boat Fight
"We are entering upon a new year with the defense force equipped as never before in German history.

"We are working ceaselessly on improvements. This spring the U-boat fight will begin. It will show we have not been asleep.

The air force will properly continue to introduce itself. Our production continues. What others are planning is already a reality with us.

Aryan Front
"This will be the historical year of the new order in Europe. Tyranny will be abolished. The world will be open to all. The foundations for real understanding of peoples will be laid.

"My prediction of September, 1939, will come true: that the Jews' role is ended. People after people are sharing our racial conceptions. There will be a front of aryan humanity against international Jewish profiteers.

"Let our prayer be that God grant us victory this year."

With those words the man on whom the late President Paul von Hindenburg conferred the chancellorship just eight years ago today finished his address.

Hitler devoted 25 minutes of his speech to an attack on the British empire, which he called the product of 300 years of robbery and Britain herself the most "anti-social" state in the world—"a paradise for a few, continuous misery for the masses."

Britain, he said, might have to come to Germany one day "to study our social program." He asserted there is "evidence that in other countries, such as England, a social crisis is beginning."

He called British democracy "mere sham" and said the British dare not "institute a plebiscite among her own peoples to determine whether they desire to belong to the empire."

85.9 per cent) that Lake county should be fully cognizant of its minority position and should affirmatively desire unison with Klamath before any such step is taken.

Vocational School
State Representative Henry Semon, in a letter received by The Herald and News Thursday, stated he does not favor the junior college bill now before the legislature. "I am wondering," he said, "if the people there are really interested in the junior college or if it is not the vocational school plan which they want."

"As you know, there is a tendency at present to enlarge the field of classical and general education until we have a large crop of young fellows each year who believe they are just white-collar people and just won't take any other work. I believe this trend is bad and would be more so in an industrial center such as Klamath Falls. The cost of education today takes over half the tax and the junior college plan would just aggravate the situation."

Skeleton Bill
"There are a number of us who feel there is a need for some way of training young people along industrial and agricultural lines and a system of vocational schools, placed at strategic points, would enable many youngsters to really fit themselves to make a living."

Semon said there is a skeleton bill introduced in the legislature to provide for the vocational schools. It calls for referendum vote by the people on the measure.

Free-Ways
The legislative committee of the Central Labor council is expected to give consideration to suggestions on the vocational school idea. This committee has communicated with Senator Cornett and Representatives Semon and Boivin on the junior college bill recently introduced.

Approval has been given by the county chamber of commerce to a measure authorizing the establishment of free-ways by the state highway commission. These are arterial streets access to which can be restricted by the highway commission. Such a thoroughfare has been suggested as a possibility for carrying traffic between Klamath Falls to the Merrill junction.

The legislative committee of the Klamath county chamber of commerce this week took the following action, approved by the chamber directors:

Recommended increase in district attorney's salary from $2400 to $2700, and suggested county budget committee next fall make recommendations on other county salary adjustments.

Disapproved House Bill No. 13 which would require those engaging in logging operations to deposit with the county clerk money equivalent to the current payroll.

Disapproved House Bills Nos. 22 and 26 tending to enlarge benefits under the unemployment compensation law.

Opposed a uniform pistol act. A number of other proposals are pending before the committee.

WIDOW WEDS
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Jan. 30 (AP)—Annie Laurine Dodge, widow of Daniel Dodge, millionaire auto fortune heir, and Dr. William A. Lange, a plastic surgeon of Detroit, were married here today by the Rev. Herbert L. Miller, pastor of Emanuel Memorial Episcopal church.

FRIENDS HAIL PRESIDENT ON 59TH BIRTHDAY

day celebrations goes to research institutions, to hospitals, and to agencies which help victims of poliomyelitis.

Celebrities
In Washington, there will be receptions, parties, balls, special programs at theatres, and more than a dozen movie, radio and sports stars making the rounds of all of them with Mrs. Roosevelt.

Among the celebrities were Hollywood's Deanna Durbin, Lana Turner, Preston Foster and George Raft; Tommy Harmon, Michigan's all-American football player; Alice Marble, woman tennis queen; Benny Goodman and his orchestra and Red Skelton as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Roosevelt asked them to the White House for luncheon, and she planned to lure Mr. Roosevelt away from his work to meet them. All were invited to be present tonight when the president speaks over four major radio networks at 7:24 p. m. (PST) both to celebrants here and to those at festivities throughout the country.

Physically Fit
While the years in Washington have left their mark on the president at 59, they have not dulled his ready wit or smile or a zest for the things he likes. Moreover, his physician, Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, described him as "in top physical condition."

McIntire marvels at Mr. Roosevelt's stamina, his ability to make a physical "comeback" and his facility for brushing aside his cares when he needs a good night's sleep.

ANTI-SEASONALITY LEAGUE WILL MEET

There will be a regular meeting of the Workers Seasonality Protest league in the circuit court rooms Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting is of particular interest to all workers of this district who are interested in having the seasonal feature of the present unemployment insurance law abolished. The league has prepared its bill and now has a representative in Salem. The bill will be introduced either by the time this is in print, or the first of the coming week.

The officers of the Workers Seasonality Protest league, have put in a lot of time, study and expense in preparing the bill, trying to make it fair to all parties concerned, and feel that they have a good chance of getting it passed at this session of the legislature. The bill retains the merit rating system of the present bill. It also contains an emergency clause, so that the law will become effective as soon as it is passed, thereby making all workers of seasonal districts eligible for benefits as soon as it becomes a law.

There are about 215,000 miles of steel pipe lines for transporting oil, gasoline, and natural gas in the United States.

the army and navy and the British to buy all they want to buy, and one or the other might have to reduce its requirements accordingly.

The secretary declined flatly to give any indication of how large the British aid program might be.

Stamp Plan
Children's dimes and housewives' dollars will help finance some $3,000,000,000 of America's defense program, if a joint savings stamp campaign under consideration today by the treasury and postoffice departments is finally adopted.

The postoffice department, it was learned, has given favorable consideration to a treasury proposal that the existing postal savings system be used to borrow money from persons of moderate means.

Here's how the plan would work:
Anyone with loose change and a desire to invest it in defense could go to any postoffice in the country and buy savings stamps in denominations of 10, 25 and 50 cents, and $1. Persons with more money or who had accumulated a number of the small stamps could buy savings "certificates" in denominations ranging from $1 to $1000.

These stamps and certificates already are on sale, but many people don't know about them, and officials were considering a campaign to publicize them.

The postoffice department would reinvest the savings stamp receipts in treasury bonds or certificates. Thus the treasury would get the money without the expense and trouble of setting up a new system designed to accomplish the same thing. In the world war, the treasury did establish its own system, but it was costly even though it utilized postoffice facilities.

MOTOR COP HAS SCRAPE WITH DOG

Motorcycle Police Officer Otis Metsker had a run in with a big Scotch collie dog Wednesday afternoon at Del Moro and Pacific Terrace, Metsker keeping his seat on the motor and the dog receiving a slight injury.

According to the report the officer was cruising in that vicinity during the hours the children were leaving Roosevelt school when the big dog jumped out at him. Metsker accidentally ran over the dog's foot. The animal is owned by W. C. McArthur, 1540 Eldorado street.

STIFF SENTENCE GIVEN ON DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE

James Godowa of Beatty received a stiff sentence from Police Judge Leigh Ackerman when he was arrested by city police on Klamath avenue early Thursday and charged with driving while drunk, and no operator's license. The first court cost him $100 and 30 days, and the second, $50 and 25 days.

James A. Balcom posted $5 bail on a violation of basic rule charge.

Three traffic tickets, four drunks, and one vag made up the Thursday morning report.

VETERAN LUMBER WORKER INJURED

William Elliott, 67, veteran lumberman, suffered a bad fracture of the hip late Wednesday night when he slipped on a piece of bark at Kesterson's mill as he stood watching logs carried on the chain.

Elliott is a former employe at Burney, Calif., where he worked as sawyer. He was carried by ambulance to Klamath Valley hospital where he received attention.

of San Francisco. Barrar will stay in Klamath to supervise crating and loading operations.

This sale is of particular interest, according to C. A. Henderson, county agent, in that grading and packing will all be done in Klamath county, thereby providing further considerable crating of this nature has been done at point of shipment. It is very possible that this is the forerunner of considerable business of this kind for shipment by boat, which will bring premium prices for top grade Klamath potatoes and help to dispose of considerable lumber in the manufacture of crates, as crates are much more preferable in sea-borne commerce.

day by the Oregon state communist party, which said the 1941 legislature is a war legislature.

The communist party, which also accused the legislature of favoring "anti-American legislation," submitted an argument against passage of a senate bill to prevent communists from running for public office. A hearing on the bill will be held tonight.

"I don't see why we need to get excited about this," Rep. Vernon D. Bull (D-Union) said. "We should be immune from anything. The communists have the same rights as any citizens to place matter on our desks. Besides, this matter was distributed by mail, and couldn't be stopped."

Bills Presented
Bills to restrict sale of fortified wine to holders of liquor permits, and a southern Oregon proposal to create a fourth congressional district of Jackson, Josephine, Coos, Curry, Douglas and Lane counties, now in the first district, were introduced in the house.

Bills, supported by Governor Charles A. Sprague, to give the game commission power to fix hunting seasons and bag limits, and to provide for an administrator for the workmen's compensation law, were ready today for introduction. The joint ways and means committee agreed to sponsor the governor's bill to construct a $1,000,000 state office building in Salem.

The house passed and sent to the senate a bill to give the superintendent of state police authority to dismiss his office workers without trial.

Guard Measure
The measure to give the governor authority to create a state guard was up for final passage in the house, but it was referred back to committee again.

The senate passed and sent to the house four bills requested by the unemployment compensation commission to correct the unemployment law.
