

Enlist In the Navy and Earn While You Learn

The advantages offered by enlistment in the United States Navy command the attention of every alert American youth . . . the opportunity to learn a useful trade . . . a fair salary . . . promotions . . . travel to distant shores . . . wholesome food . . . expert medical and dental care . . . a career with every chance for advancement if remaining in the Navy, or security in later civilian life through trade training during the period of enlistment . . . these features illustrate the attractiveness of Navy life.

Thousands of young Americans are today learning a trade at sea in the Navy. Navy ships equipped with the most modern machinery and appliances, making them perfect laboratories for learning trades. The Navy looks upon each man as a permanent part of its personnel, and keeps him under continuous training and instruction. When he returns to civilian life, the Navy man is adequately prepared to enter a skilled trade . . . after 20 years' service he may be transferred to the Fleet Reserve and receive as retainer pay one-half the base pay of his rating. After 30 years' naval service he may retire with a good pension.

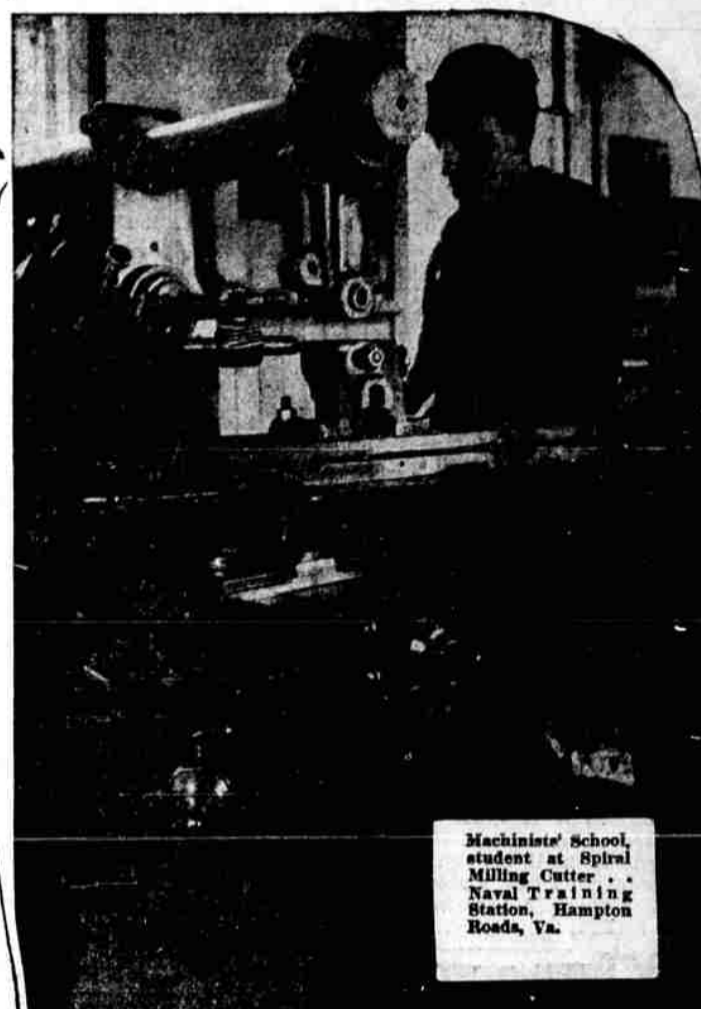

Winding an armature. Electricians' School, aboard Repair ship U. S. S. Vestal.

Radio School at a Naval Training Station.

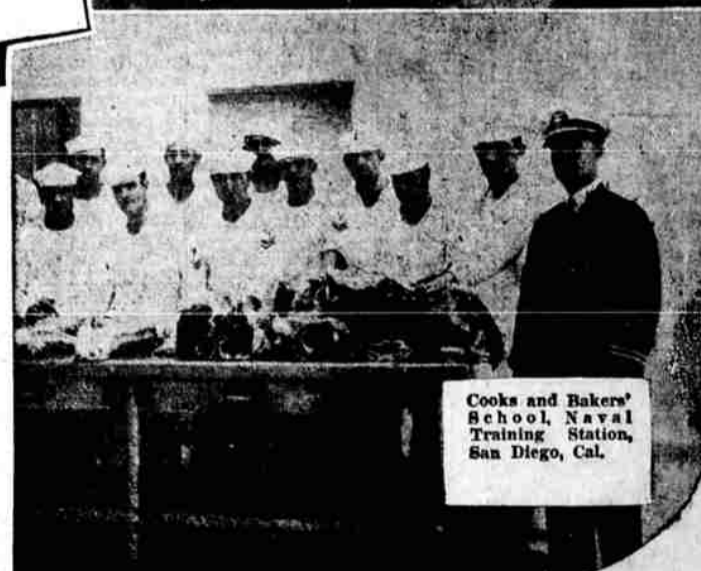

Pattern makers . . . making patterns for castings aboard Repair Ship U. S. S. Vestal.

Machinist's School, student at Spiral Milling Cutter . . . Naval Training Station, Hampton Roads, Va.

Naval Training School for Motion Picture Technicians, San Diego, Cal.

Cooks and Bakers' School, Naval Training Station, San Diego, Cal.

Trades You Can LEARN In The U. S. Navy

- MACHINIST
- ELECTRICIAN
- PAINTER
- PRINTER
- SHIPFITTER
- BAKER
- RADIO
- CARPENTER
- SAILMAKER
- MOLDER
- STENOGRAPHER
- PHARMACIST
- PHOTOGRAPHER
- BOILERMAKER
- MUSICIAN
- METALSMITH, Etc.

50% of the Men in the Navy Are Specialists!

Investigate NOW!

If you are a citizen of the United States, not less than 17 and under 31 years of age, unmarried and physically sound, an excellent opportunity for you to embark on an interesting career is available through the enlistment in the U. S. Navy

Inquire at Local Recruiting Station - - Room 204
U. S. Postoffice Building, Klamath Falls

The Above Information Made Possible By Ivory Pine Co.
Algoma Lumber Co.
Kalpine Plywood Co.
Ewauna Box Co.
Pelican Bay Lumber Co.
Weyerhaeuser Timber Co.