

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

Junior Princess Merlon Albrecht and escort, "Knight" Melvin Miller.

Honored Queen Janice Bubb of Jobs Daughters, and Bob Erlandson, "King of Hearts," will rule over the dance to be given Saturday evening, February the eighth, in the Masonic temple.
—All pictures by Kennell-Elia.

Senior Princess Mary Lou Johnson and escort "Knight" Bill King.

"King of Hearts" Dance

Members of the younger set are anticipating the King of Hearts dance which will be an event of next Saturday evening, February the eighth, at nine o'clock in the Masonic hall with Jobs Daughters as the hostess group. King of Hearts will be Mr. Bob Erlandson and he will be crowned by Miss Janice Bubb, Honored Queen of Jobs Daughters.

Knights attending the king are Tom Weinberg, Steven Stewart, Melvin Miller, and Bill King.

Miss Bubb and Mr. Erlandson will lead the grand march. Stepping through a huge red heart, the King of Hearts will be crowned, the crown carried on a pillow by little Shirley Heath wearing a red and white costume in keeping with the Valentine motif.

Miss Barbara Moore will be presented in a ballet dance, and Conrad Schultz, DeMolay from Tulalake, will sing. Decorations will be Valentines and gay hearts strung about the ball room. Herb Cochran's orchestra will play.

Patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson.

Guide Mary Jane Drake and escort, "Knight" Steven Stewart.

Marshall Betty Buchanan and escort, "Knight" Tom Weinberg.