

Doernbecher Party Event of Saturday

St. Valentine's Day Theme Used at Library Club Benefit Bridge Tea in Willard Hotel.

Always one of the most interesting affairs of mid-winter is the Doernbecher benefit party given by the Klamath Falls Women's Library club and this year's affair was no exception. The party was an event of Saturday afternoon in the Willard hotel and proceeds will be sent to the children's hospital in Portland.

The St. Valentine's theme was used in decorations and at the prettily appointed tea table where a center arrangement of red carnations, white snapdragons and white narcissi was flanked by tall red candles in white sticks. Silver tea and coffee services at either end of the long table were presided over by Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck, state chairman of Doernbecher, and Mrs. C. C. Kelley, vice president of the Library club. A lovely white lace cloth completed the decor.

Tallies also stressed the Valentine theme and all in all the party was exceptionally successful from a financial as well as social angle.

Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm was chairman of cards, and Mrs. Warren C. Hunt, tea chairman, assisted by a number of women from Library club.

The following were reserved by the following women and organizations: Mrs. M. H. Rauw, Mrs. Marvin Thomas of Tulelake, Mrs. J. N. Brochtrup, Mrs. G. Logan Black, Mrs. W. H. McPherson, Mrs. Dwight French, Mrs. John Cusick, Mrs. R. D. Eller, Mrs. H. M. Monroe, Mrs. Carl Mason, Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. William Ganong, Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn, Mrs. Cecil H. INVITATIONS TO WEDDING RECEIVED

Invitations were received this week for the wedding of Miss La Vene Esther McCollum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley McCollum, and Mr. Otto Frederick Kenschot Jr., on Friday evening, February the fourteenth, at eight o'clock in the First Christian church. The Rev. Arthur Charles Bates will read the service.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the church. A number of out of town guests will attend the wedding. The young couple plan to spend their honeymoon at Sun Valley, returning here March the first to make their home.

PEO Chapters Meet Jointly

Enjoying the presentation of a special program in observance of Founder's Day, members of Chapters U and AU of PEO Sisterhood held a joint meeting on Tuesday evening, January the twenty-eighth, when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. N. B. Drew on North Ninth street.

Miss Dorothy Johnson of Berkeley, California, is visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Edwards at their home, 122 Hillside avenue.

Founder's Day Plans Made

PTA To Observe Commencement of Activities on February 3

Parent-Teacher Society's day will be observed by the Klamath county organization at its regular meeting Monday, February the third, at Fairview school when an interesting program has been announced by Mrs. A. M. Bradford, chairman.

A business meeting at half past ten o'clock will open the day's activities. Mrs. Fred Rueck, chairman of the International relations phase of Parent-Teacher society, will discuss this subject. The nominating committee will also be elected at this time.

A potluck luncheon will be served at noon and Mrs. John D. Selby, luncheon chairman, has sent cards to all units with the request that members desiring to attend contact their presidents.

Following luncheon there will be a short program and pageant symbolizing Founder's day. Presentation of publications and books from the local units for the parent-teacher bookshelf will also be made at this time.

All PTA members whether officers in their local units or not are invited to attend this annual observance of the beginning of parent-teacher activities.

ANDERSONS HOME AFTER FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson have just returned to their home on Upland street after an interesting month's vacation trip during which they motored to the eastern coast via the southern route.

After leaving here the Andersons toured Death Valley and Death Valley Scotty's castle after which they attended the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, California. Before turning eastward they visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill Hunter at Lemon Grove, near San Diego, where they were entertained at the Hunter's new home.

Highlights of their journey across the continent were stops at the Carlsbad Caverns and New Orleans. After enjoying several days at Miami Beach, Florida and other Atlantic coast points they started their homeward trip. One of the most interesting and enjoyable stops en route home was at the Grand Canyon.

Afternoon Book Section AAUW Meets
Members of the afternoon book section of the American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nelson Reed on Del Moro street. Mrs. John McFee will review, "Born in Paradise," by Armine Von Tempcke.

Mrs. W. J. Dinsmore returned the early part of the week from San Francisco where she has been for several weeks.

Co-Hostesses At Luncheon

Lovely Affair Given Wednesday at Arnold Home

One of the most enjoyable of the many affairs given this past week was that of Wednesday afternoon, January the twenty-ninth, when Mrs. Wilbur Arnold and Mrs. O. R. Holloway were co-hostesses at a bridge luncheon given at the Arnold home on Crescent avenue.

A springlike touch was added to the occasion by the crystal, baskets of acacia bloom and red-centered narcissi which were used on the luncheon tables and about the rooms.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. L. Young, Mrs. Frederick Hamilton, Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Mrs. E. A. Albrecht, Mrs. L. E. Mead, Mrs. A. W. Schupp, Mrs. A. N. Beals, Mrs. J. H. Poppy, Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mrs. Walter Webster, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Harry Bathiany, Mrs. Samuel Earhart, Mrs. Charles J. Martin and Mrs. James Bishop Foster.

RUBINOFF TO APPEAR IN CONCERT HERE

Greatly appreciated by lovers of music is the coming appearance next Sunday, February the ninth, of Rubinoff and his violin, brought here in concert by members of the Lions club. The performance will be given in the auditorium of Klamath Union high school and reserved seats are selling rapidly.

Tickets may be had from members of the Lions club, all funds to be used for the worthy project of sight conservation.

MISS BARNARD

Miss Irene Barnard will become the bride of Mr. George E. Crakes within a few weeks. Miss Barnard is a former resident of Wagner, South Dakota.

EASTER PARTY, PLANS MADE BY GUILD

Potluck luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church Thursday of this past week with a business meeting following. Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, president, named the following committee to purchase material for the holiday bazaar, Mrs. LeRoy Tyrrell, Mrs. William Barron, Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, and Mrs. John Morgan.

The next meeting of Guild will be held February thirtieth. Mrs. John Morgan Jr., has moved to Bend and the office of vice president has not been filled. Mrs. Horace Getz will conduct the next session.

Plans for the Easter Monday bridge tea and fashion show were discussed and Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. D. J. Rees, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, and Mrs. W. J. Dinsmore named as a committee to present the show which will be a parade of old fashioned gowns. The date is Monday, April the fourteenth, and all women of the city are invited. Cards will be played and tea served.

Valentine Party Given

Mrs. Devlan Hostess to Friends at Bridge Luncheon

Taking advantage of the season when the colorful valentine motif prevails, Mrs. J. R. Devlan presided as hostess at luncheon and five tables of bridge on Tuesday afternoon, January the twenty-eighth, in the banquet room of the Hotel Elk.

Arrangements of crimson carnations and a valentine hearts made effective centerpiece and at the close of bridge which followed the one o'clock luncheon the honors were awarded to Mrs. Charles Gilbert for high, Mrs. Ben Gibson for second high, and Mrs. Harry Wortley, for consolation.

Guests for the occasion were Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. Harry Wortley, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, Mrs. K. C. Forcum, Mrs. M. H. Rauw, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. E. D. Balsiger, Mrs. Lillian Hagman and Mrs. Ben Gibson.

MISS SCOTT ON EDITORIAL STAFF OF PAPER

Mary Margaret Scott, daughter of Mrs. Clara Scott, has temporarily given up riding horses for the more literary pastime of writing about them. She is a sophomore at Reed college, Portland, and is majoring in literature.

Last week she made a recording of one of her "horse" poems for a speech class. She hopes to put her love of horses to practical use on a dude ranch this summer.

Mary Margaret is also working on the editorial staff of the Griffin, the college annual, this term.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT RECENT SHOWER

Miss Dorothy Templar entertained with a miscellaneous bride shower in honor of Miss Irene Barnard at the Templar home on Crescent avenue. Miss Barnard will become the bride of Mr. George E. Crakes. Both are former residents of Wayner, South Dakota.

The bride-elect taught school for three years before coming to Klamath Falls. Since June of last year she has been employed at Castieberry's.

Guests honoring Miss Barnard included Mable Soderstrom, Mildred Black, Norma Madden, Lois Jeanne Ferris, Brita Strid, Louise Russell, Ruth Moulton, Dorothy Andrews, Dorothy Lindenhau, Wilma Lee, Inez McCoy, Mary Trulove, Ruth Poole, Helen Hanks and Phyllis DeBolt.

Klamath Ski Fans Plan Sun Valley Trip

Robert Leonard, Herbert Berry, Fred Schmidt, Al Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Divens left this weekend by motor for Sun Valley to spend the coming week at Sun Valley where they will ski and enjoy other winter sports.

The William Pitt chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will meet at the home of Mrs. William Anderson, 435 Alameda street, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Merryman Is Hostess at Tea

Delightful Affair Given Friday Afternoon in Compliment to Mrs. George Harris Merryman Jr.

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the tea given Friday afternoon from three to six o'clock by Mrs. George H. Merryman at her home on Pacific Terrace in compliment to Mrs. George Harris Merryman Jr., who has come to Klamath Falls as a bride.
