

FCC ORDERS COAST PHONE RATE SLASH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission ordered the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and its subsidiaries today to readjust the so-called "interstate Pacific scale of telephone rates by March 15 to conform with other interstate rates for like services and equal distances.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., and its subsidiaries, the commission said, had failed to show why subscribers of the Pacific system should be compelled to pay from 9 to 40 per cent more for "interstate Pacific" calls than for "other interstate" calls.

"The interstate Pacific rates are unreasonably high, and furthermore produce undue and unreasonable discrimination and prejudice throughout the Pacific system's territory," the commission said. "The only proper method of correcting the situation is to reduce the 'interstate Pacific' scale to the level of the 'other interstate' scale of rates."

LABOR NEWDEALER DISLIKES CHARGE

PORTLAND, Feb. 8 (AP)—Portland's Labor Newdealer, weekly newspaper which the CIO state industrial union council repudiated last week on a charge of communism, replied Friday it "does not espouse communism. The statement in part said:

"The newspaper is not communistic and does not espouse communism, nor is it published or edited by soviet sympathizers. Its editor, Lee Coe, is a registered democrat, and is not a communist. He is responsible to an editorial board composed solely of CIO members elected democratically by the Labor Newdealer Publishing association.

"The Labor Newdealer, like the CIO itself, is a purely American institution, dedicated to the American principle of improving the living conditions of working men and women and upholding the constitution and the bill of rights.

chamber rejected a proposal that the bill be amended to prohibit the sending of American troops outside the territorial waters of the western hemisphere.

The Fish amendment was defeated by a standing vote announced as 147 to 70.

LITTLE STARS IN DANCING RECITAL

A galaxy of little stars danced, whirled, cart wheeled and pirouetted before a packed house at the Pelican theatre Friday night as Mr. and Mrs. John McCown presented the tenth annual recital of their students before an especially appreciative audience.

Errors of the tiny performers, and perfections of the more experienced troupers, brought rounds of applause. The show was part of a benefit sponsored by the Mothers club of Sacred Heart academy.

An outstanding number of the show was the "Beautiful Ballet in Blue," in which solo parts were taken by Alice Kay Johnson, Patty Smith and Janet Dixon, Catharine Bland, Donna Wilkes, Billie Jean Jackson, Shirley Francis and Marilyn O'Neill, the latter doing an intricate toe number with professional ease.

In the Jungle ballet, which was the final number of an especially well presented program, the entire company appeared in a riot of jungle colors which featured acrobatic performers.

HOLMAN, McNARY INTRODUCE BILLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—A measure to further development of mineralized areas in national forests through road construction and improvement (S 780) was introduced by Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) yesterday.

It would appropriate $1,500,000 for the current fiscal year for such work.

Among other measures were those by senators: Holman (R-Ore.)—(S 770) Forbidding the disclosure of any election returns in races for the presidency, vice presidency or congress before all polling places in the United States had closed. He offered his bill to "prevent election returns from any part of the United States from affecting voting in other parts of the United States."

McNary (R-Ore.)—(S 789) Authorizing the secretary of agriculture to make agreements with land owners in national forests regarding the extent timber should be cut or permitted to regrow; (793) to establish a national cemetery at Portland, and (S 794) authorizing the secretary of interior to lease certain public lands to Junction City, Ore., for 50 years, free of charge for park and recreational purposes.

FICTION

Caldwell, Janet Taylor, "Earth Is the Lord's"—a tale of the rise of Genghis Khan. An imaginative recreation of the world, the loves, and the times of Genghis Khan up to the point where he achieves world power.

Lawrence, Josephine, "No Stone Unturned"—The merciless exposure of a nice, moral man who plays the devoted husband and an all-wise father to the four children whom he does not in the least understand or appreciate.

Whipple, Maurine, "Giant Joshua"—The time is the 1860's; the scene, Dixie Mission in the Utah desert where a band of Mormons fight drought and flood, famine and hostile Indians. Like the giant Joshua, the great cactus of the desert, these men and women thrust their roots down through a soil so arid that one would suppose it incapable of supporting life.

BIOGRAPHY

Valtin, Jan, "Out of the Night"—Autobiography of a German youth from the time when, as a child, he was involved in the insurrections that flared up in Germany at the close of the last war, to a very recent date. Pursued by the Gestapo, betrayed by his own party, and his faith in the revolution of violence completely shaken, he escaped and wrote this book.

Williams, Rebecca Yancey, "Vanishing Virginian"—A southern version of "Life with father."

TRAVEL

Bigland, Eileen, "Into China"—Description of a trip over the Burma road as guest of the Chinese government, and a dangerous flight to Chungking to see the war at firsthand.

Von Hagen, Victor, "Jungle in the Clouds"—An account of the explorer-collector's experiences in the Honduras, and of the hunting of the quetzal, the sacred bird of the Aztecs, its capture, and ultimate installation in the zoos of New York and London.

SPORT

Elkins, Frank, "Complete Ski Guide."
Mets, Dick, "Secret to Par Golf."

HERO

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Three-year-old Russell Wilson Jr., saved his 1-year-old brother, Richard, from burning to death. Their mother left him to watch the baby while she went to a grocery.

Garments on a line near the kitchen stove caught fire and fell into the crib. Russell snatched the child out, dragged him to the front porch and yelled. Neighbors called firemen, who put out the blaze and gave Richard first aid for severe burns on the arms and legs. The baby wasn't hurt.

HEAD FOR BUSINESS

KANSAS CITY (AP)—As two robbers fled his drug store with $30 in loot, Milford W. Loomis, night manager, grabbed a pistol and fired over their heads.

Police asked why he shot high.

"I knew I couldn't hit them anyway, and besides, I saw one of our customers coming toward the store. I wouldn't want to hit a customer."

ties as the actuating force behind the opposition to this bill. "The chief executive has led the way, in hurrying even the charge of pro-German at a leader of opposition in the United States senate, Senator Wheeler of Montana. If this were to go unnoticed, and unchallenged, there would soon be no brakes on the chief executive. That is not healthy at any time and under any president in a republic.

Should Klamath win the basketball game from Ashland Friday night it would be the spirit of Wardlow Howell, 220 pound superman player for the Ashland team some 10 years ago, who antagonized the boys on to victory, according to Walter Eschebeck.

Eschebeck, a graduate of KUHS and now a member of the faculty, was the chief speaker at the pep assembly Friday. After recalling his own basketball career (record: played two games; made one basket; gave two hour speech on "The History and Technique of Basketball or Why I Didn't Make The Team") Eschebeck gave three rules every team could use to win a game. Method one: dash out at the beginning of the game, make a basket, hang on to the ball for rest of the game, make a basket; three: kets than the opponent; three:

have more brain power. The latter is the way Coach French says the Pelicans do it, Eschebeck stated.

Also on the program were Emil Buzaid and Bill Parish and his coronet. The two played three numbers.

Wayne Chase was chairman of the assembly.

A new system of issuing receipts for money deposited for student body funds was adopted Thursday and the two-tone brown "Wiz" machine is called by office secretaries, "the new piece of equipment."

The machine is equipped to make triplicate copies of deposits. It also has a cash drawer for use of the office.

"Hello there" and "Hi" were in order Friday when the Traditions committee sponsored "Get Acquainted" day followed by a dance from 4 until 6 o'clock in the girls' gym. Music was furnished by Emil Buzaid's four piece band.

"Get Acquainted" day and the dance are annual traditions of the committee. Carter Sparks is chairman; Mrs. Rachel Good, advisor.

Mrs. Blanche Waters tells of one freshman's effort to express himself in regard to a certain book. Wrote the student: "I would wreakemend this books to anyone."

SPRAGUE RIVER TROOP GATHERS

SPRAGUE RIVER—The board of directors of the Sprague River Boy Scouts met Monday, February 4 to reorganize the troop and to make plans for 1941.

Chester Hosely was appointed scoutmaster to lead the troop. He succeeds George Hobbs, who resigned because of shortage of time due to his coaching activities at Sprague River high and due to his absence from town during the summer months.

The board of directors for the local scout troop are: Harry Short, chairman, A. L. Book, C. C. Heidrich, Fred Zibull, Carl Seright and Ben Wolford.

The troop is now at its fullest strength and composed of the following boys: William Wolford, Loren Ryan, Bill Patrick, Mike Short, Joe Martin, Jimmy Rumelhart, Duane Seairight, Forrest Seright, Dewey Parrish, Fonzie Parrish, Harry Lundgren, Howard Lee, Armon Coleman, and Robert Carnini. Several other boys have in their applications and will be voted on at the next meeting.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP)—Sergt. Jay C. Ostrander, training with the national guard at Fort McClellan, Ala., wrote his parents: "Next time you send a box put a pan of beans in it. We don't get any here."
