

GREETING GUESTS AT their St. Valentine's bridge luncheon were Mrs. Ted Marvin Medford, (left), and Mrs. Ray William Oldenburg, center. Guests—left to right, Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, who assisted about the room, Mrs. Louis Mann, and Mrs. John Martin.

SPRING PARTY GOERS on Wednesday were Mrs. Carl Steinseller, (left), Mrs. Ted Reeves, and Mrs. William Kuykendall, pictured in the pine paneled room at the Oldenburg-Medford party.

MRS. ROLLO C. GROESBECK, state chairman of Doernbecher, pours tea for Mrs. Carl G. Reymers at the hospital benefit Saturday.

Doernbecher Tea

Against a background of lovely cyclamen, crimson carnations and palms, close to four hundred women enjoyed an afternoon of bridge last Saturday with proceeds turned over to the Doernbecher hospital fund. The party was given in the Willard hotel ballroom by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. General chairman of cards was Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, with Mrs. Warren Hunt tea chairman.

High score in bridge went to Mrs. Holly Monroe, second to Mrs. Charles Stanfield, both receiving bright red azaleas, and low to Mrs. A. C. Baekes. In auction Mrs. Wenzel received high, Mrs. Oscar Solie, second. The other three received white cyclamen. The guest prize went to Mrs. James Busch, the award being the lovely St. Valentine's centerpiece used on the tea table.

TEA DRINKERS AT THE DOERNBECHER party last Saturday at the Willard hotel were, left to right, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Franklin Lewis Weaver, and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor.

—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

PLAYING BRIDGE Wednesday at Mrs. Medford's and Mrs. Oldenburg's afternoon luncheon were Mrs. R. D. Eller, left, and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, both of whom assisted their hostesses.

TALKING OVER THE SUCCESS of the annual Doernbecher benefit party were Mrs. R. R. Proebstel, (left), and Mrs. Horace E. Getz, both active in affairs of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club which sponsors the affair.